Owners Want WT To Buy Apartments; Unfair Competition Seen

Only voters in voter precincts 9 and 10 and those in South Amarillo in Randall County will have a chance to vote on whether liquor sales will be allowed in those areas. County Commissioners called the election to decide the issue Monday. The issue will be on the November general election ballot.

The owners of a 100-unit apartment house in Canyon have offered to turn the complex over to West Texas State University for use as married student and faculty housing.

Officials at the university say they are considering the proposal.

The plan ran into opposition Tuesday night from Canyon apartment house owners, who met with university officials to discuss the proposal.

No One Named To Take Slot For R. Plank

No one will be named to run on the ballot in the place of Republican Rhett Plank, who was told last week he must continue as a candidate for state representative in this district.

Tom Price III, Randall County Republican committee chairman, said Tuesday representatives of the GOP committees from Armstrong, Potter and Randall counties voted that morning not to place another name on the ballot to replace Plank.

Plank, a local attorney, withdrew from the race in early August only to discover last week that his name must stay on the ballot unless the executive committee replaces it with another name.

In a letter to County Clerk LeRoy Hutton, Secretary of State Bob Bullock said last week that Plank couldn't withdraw from the race unless a successor on the ballot were named.

Plank told The News last week, "I consider myself withdrawn. I submitted my resignation and it's been accepted. If my name is on the ballot, it will be there just through a legal operation of the law and not through my own will or that of the committee."

Plank said he will not campaign for the office, which is now held by Democrat Bryan Poff.

Due to economic difficulties, Ed Fancher and Stan Davis, two owners of Canyon Creek Apartments, a $1.2 million complex in Hunsley Hills, said they must either face foreclosure or let WTSU refinance the project with interest subsidy assistance from the federal government.

Fancher, Davis, WTSU President James Cornette, financial vice president Virgil Henson and student life vice president Paige Carruth were told by several of 10 local apartment house owners Tuesday the owners would rather face the possibility of foreclosure than of university competition with private enterprise in the apartment business.

Several apartment owners expressed disdain that the university would enter this area of competition.

Dr. Cornette said the university administration had been approached recently by the Canyon Creek Apartment owners concerning the proposal.

He said the university is currently neutral on the proposal.

Davis explained that the apartments were begun two years ago during a period of time which gave every indication the university would continue to grow and that the economy was on the upswing. He said studies indicated the apartments would be profitable.

Then, he said, just as the apartments were completed, university enrollment began to drop drastically—and other economic factors came into play forcing the action.

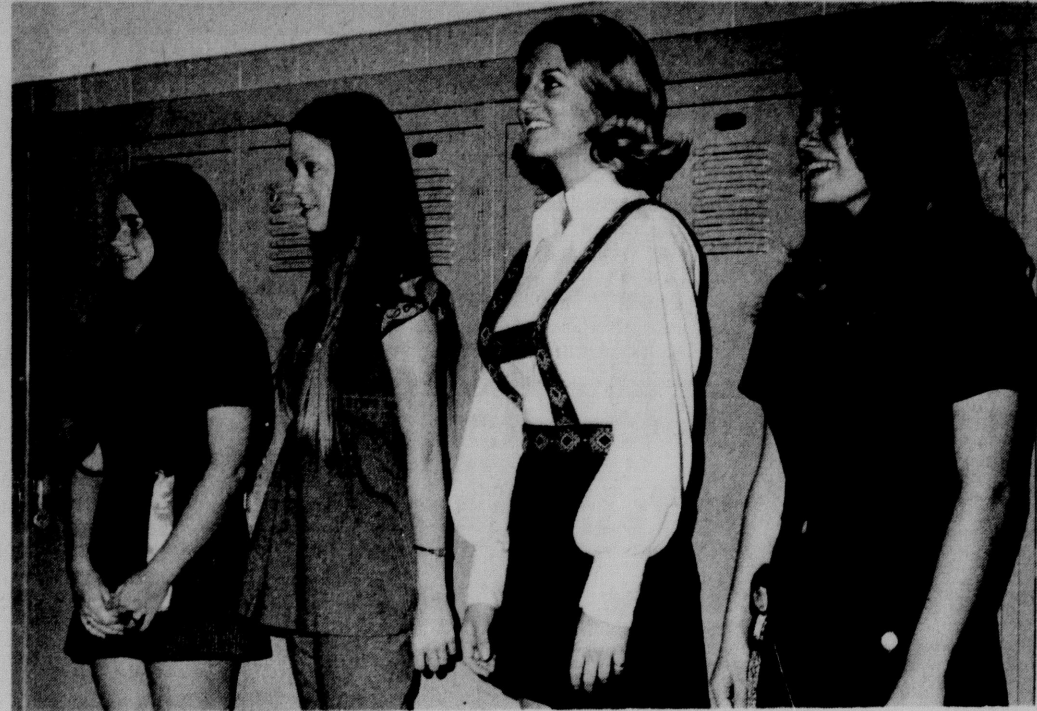

He said the apartments became an economic burden, which the partnership owning the complex can no longer bear.

His proposal, as outlined Tuesday night, is that the apartments be given WTSU with the current owners receiving no money for their equity of $300,000.

The university would not really assume the current FHA-insured loan on the complex, a loan Davis said is costing 8 1/2 percent interest annually.

Rather, the university could

contest. The winner, to be announced just before the Eagle-Palo Duro football game Friday night, will reign over the festivities.

CHS Homecoming Begins Tonight, Ends Friday

Canyon High School homecoming activities begin today with a pep rally and traditional bonfire being held just south of the school at the south end of 10th St.

The rally will be led by cheerleaders in an effort to spur their Eagles on to victory over the Palo Duro Dons the following night.

A second pep rally will be held Friday just outside the team's dressing room at Kimbrough Memorial Stadium prior to the game. That rally is set for 7 p.m.

A "car smash" is also planned for sometime late in the afternoon or early evening.

On Friday at 2:30 p.m., an assembly will be held in the school auditorium at which time the four candidates for homecoming queen will be introduced, along with their escorts.

The four finalists chosen by the student body last week are Charlotte Tompkins, Cindy Williams, Teddi Crager and Kathy Dees, all seniors.

The queen was voted on earlier this week by the student body and the winner will be announced just prior to the Eagle-Palo Duro game Friday night. The crowning ceremony will also take place at that time.

Immediately following the game, a social will be held in The Commons at the school.

The CHS Band is holding a fund raising supper Friday with proceeds from their "spaghetti supper" to go toward their planned band trip next year. The event will be held in the school cafeteria from 5 to 7 p.m.

Advisor Hired To Inform Students

Appointment of John W. Eder Jr., 29, as admissions advisor at West Texas State University was announced today.

A distinguished military graduate of WTSU in 1968, Eder last month resigned a commission as a captain in the Army airborne rangers after serving four years to return to the university in this newly created job.

"The purpose of the admissions advisor is to further the university's program of bringing information about West Texas State to high school and junior college students," said Dr. Kenneth M. Laycock, vice president for planning and development.

"We feel we have an outstanding and personable young man for this new position, one who is familiar with the university as a distinguished student and who will work hard to explain the institution's many academic programs and services to area students," Laycock said.

Eder will be available to visit schools to explain scholarships, financial aids, admissions requirements, housing, academic counseling and other information about West Texas State.

Further information may be obtained by writing Admissions Advisor, Box 246, W. T. Station, Canyon, Tex. 79015.

A graduate of Corpus Christi Carroll High School, Eder attended Texas A&M University and transferred to West Texas State, where he received a Bachelor of Business Administration Degree.

He was a member of Alpha Kappa Psi, national professional business fraternity, Lambda Chi Alpha, social fraternity, and Scabbard and Blade, Army ROTC honor society.

Eder, son of J. W. Eder and Mrs. W. P. Minnich, both of Corpus Christi, is married to the former Vicki Daniel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Daniel of 405 Taylor Lane, Canyon.

Option Won't Appear On Canyon Election Ballot

The local option question will not appear on the November general election ballot in Canyon.

County Clerk LeRoy Hutton told County Commissioners Monday he did not receive any petitions calling for such election in justice precinct 1, the Canyon area.

Commissioners placed the liquor question on the November ballot for justice precinct 4, the South Amarillo area, after hearing Hutton report the petitions from that precinct had an adequate number of signatures.

Employees in Hutton's office were still checking precinct 4 petitions after noon Monday.

Deadline for submitting petitions to get the liquor question on the general election ballot was midnight Sunday.

Canyon election seekers needed 812 names to call the election here.

Hutton told commissioners 5,716 persons signed the petitions turned into his office last week and weekend. He said his employees disqualified 1,983 for various reasons including signing twice, using a signature other than the one on the registration certificate, or showing an out-of-precinct address.

Hutton certified to the commissioners that more than 3,732 signatures on the petitions were valid and then read the election order.

The proposal will go on the ballot in Randall County voter precincts 9 and 10 and all of South Amarillo within Randall County.

Hutton told commissioners he was conservative in allowing names to appear on the petitions. "If we were challenged I feel the courts would probably certify more than I did," he said.

"Did you have any problems with forgeries?" asked Commissioner Jim Fletcher.

"You never can tell," Hutton said, acknowledging that some men try to sign the petitions for their wives. These names were stricken from the petitions, he said.

Mrs. Dorothy Meehan of Amarillo appeared before the court to hear the outcome of Hutton's signature count.

When the election order was read and passed, she said, "That's the first step."

Hutton said it would be possible for petitioners in Canyon to try again on the election issue.

He noted that it would be March of 1973 before petitions could be accepted from the Umbarger area. Since an election failed several months ago in that area, the petitioners must wait 18 months before they are allowed by law to try again.

James Vinyard, a West Texas State University student and organizer of the petition drives, had been quoted as saying he will try again to reorganize in the near future.

He said he needed more than 300 signatures late Saturday. He has been quoted as saying a lack of organization in the Canyon area caused the failure to acquire enough signatures to call the election here.

In other business Monday, commissioners eyed a plat for a 50-acre subdivision called Harboring apparent attitudes of discontent, about 75 maintenance department employees at West Texas State University met Tuesday afternoon with the executive director of the Texas Public Employees Association.

Throughout a 1 1/2 hour session punctuated with bursts of complaints, Jim Stewart of Austin explained the TPEA program and asked the maintenance employees to join the organization so their voices would be heard.

Some interest was expressed in joining the group as employees filed from the meeting room with applications blanks in their hands.

"Philosophically speaking," Stewart said, "we're not a union. Our by-laws state that we are not to become affiliated with any union or endorse any union. We're a team."

Stewart said the TPEA by-laws prohibit strikes and what he termed "hard-core grievance procedures."

He said, though, the association encourages and backs open communication between employees and management in attempts at talking out and solving problems.

Historically, Stewart said, the TPEA was formed 27 years ago to get some recognition for state employees and then attacked a group insurance plan for members.

Recently, he said, the association has lobbied for employee benefits and other legislation affecting state employees in a non-academic status.

"In the last regular session of the legislature, we submitted another legislative program," he said. "We didn't get all we wanted but we got a pretty good sized chunk."

For example, he said, legislators, under the urging of the association, passed the largest money benefit program ever for state employees.

That package included a 6.8 percent wage increase, which was over the 5.5 percent allowed

WTSU's Big Weekend Begins Tonight Here

Homecoming at West Texas State University gets underway tonight with a torch walk through campus and a bonfire and dance.

Tonight's events touch off an activity-filled weekend which includes contests, beautiful girls, carnivals, reunions and finally, football.

New Mexicans Passing Team

It will be the run against the pass at 7:30 p.m. Saturday when West Texas State University's Buffaloes host the New Mexico State Aggies in Frank Kimbrough Memorial Stadium.

New Mexico State, with 6-4, 225-pound Joe Pisarcik doing the pitching, depends almost entirely upon the passing game. The Buffaloes use the pass seldom, but are strong runners out of the Wishbone-T.

West Texas will be after its second Missouri Valley Conference victory of the season, against one setback. The Aggies are 0-1 in league play.

While the Aggies will bring a 0-5 record into Saturday's game, West Texas State coach Gene Mayfield well recalls Pisarcik (See BUFFS, page 5)

today at Stafford Hall in honor of the six senior football players on this year's Buffalo team. Winding through campus, the walk will end south of the tennis courts on Spur 48 at the bonfire site.

The bonfire will be lighted at 7:30 p.m. and then from 9 p.m. to midnight, students can dance in the student union building.

For the 17 coeds vying for the title of Miss WTSU, it's been a long week.

The number remaining in the running was reduced to 10 after last Saturday's preliminary round judging but the finalists will not be known until the contest finals at 8 p.m. Friday in the activities center ballroom.

The winner of the third annual pageant will reign over the homecoming football game in her first act as official hostess for the university this year.

She will also represent WTSU at the Miss Texas Pageant in Fort Worth next summer.

Activities in the contest continue tonight, but the big day is Friday.

Homecoming really gets underway on campus Saturday when a carnival featuring clown acts, more than 40 booths operated by campus organizations and a marching combo will operate from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. between the education building, library and museum. Activities for alumni also begin Saturday.

At a noon luncheon in the university cafeteria, Cloyce Box, Dallas businessman and chairman of the WTSU board of regents, and Dr. Ruth Lowes, retired university professor, will be honored as recipients of this year's Distinguished Alumni Awards presented by the WT Ex-Students Association.

Lily Tomlin, comedienne on television's Laugh-In show, will appear at 2 p.m. in the WTSU fieldhouse.

Following this, a reception for the class of 1947 will be held at 4 p.m. in the activities center. A dinner for the same class and the audience cramming the ballroom.

Lightened with anecdotes and asides that brought bursts of laughter, the message was earnest—to stay off drugs, to be concerned about the nation, to care for one another. But his talk was punctuated with occasional blunt digs at President Nixon that left parts of the audience unmoved.

Casually clad in tailored denim jacket and trousers and displaying the aplomb and subtle timing of the star athlete, Russell charmed the youthful crowd into sympathetic attention for most of the evening.

"I don't give advice," he said, "but if I did, it could be summed up in two words—think and participate. To think without participating is folly, and to participate without thinking is deadening." He re-emphasized the idea at the conclusion.

The train of remarks fluctuated from the ludicrous to the serious, Harlem clichés suddenly blossoming into the king's English one would expect from the former Celtic star, now television sports commentator.

"Back in Oakland there was this cat, see, and well, I was poor, everybody was poor, but this friend of mine, he was PO—you had to spell it with just two letters, he was so po," might run into a grave observation like, "This nation has excelled in absolutely every way except one—morality," or "I personally am opposed to the use of drugs and alcohol."

And then Russell would relieve the craning necks and tense silence with a wisecrack, exaggerated innuendo, or droll Stepanfitch doubletake. "I (See RUSSELL, page 5)

Spitting Test Due Saturday

Cash prizes totalling $50 will be awarded Saturday morning to the world championship tobacco spitters in Canyon.

A World Championship Tobacco Spitting Contest will be held by The Canyon News at 9:30 a.m. Saturday on the west side of the Canyon courthouse building in downtown Canyon.

Overall winners who top two categories will receive the cash prizes.

First place winner will receive $25, second place $15, and third (See SPITTING, page 5)

FROM THE CANYON RIM

Graham Purcell is running what is known among the pros as a shotgun campaign something like that employed by Lloyd Bentsen in his campaign against Ralph Yarborough.

Bentsen hit Yarborough with a new charge every day and Ralph galloped around trying to put out fires. What time he spent campaigning was inevitably consumed in answering charges.

There's a big difference in the Purcell-Price contest.

Purcell is on the ticket with two of the most scurrilous campaigners in history. Tactics much milder resulted in a duel when Andrew Jackson was campaigning.

George McGovern last week went so far as to brand the President of the United States a "bloody murderer" and went on to say this administration is the most corrupt in history.

Regardless of how Purcell may plead ideological differences with the standard bearer, the fact remains that he has said publicly that he will vote for McGovern.

Purcell was even praised last week in a speech here by H. M. Baggary, liberal editor of The Tulia Herald, for "doing the honorable thing and supporting McGovern."

In his campaign Purcell must run the risk of having his charges backfire. He takes a terrible chance of being likened to McGovern and Shriver, whose entire campaign seems to be built on invective.

Price is in the position of not having to do much to refute Purcell charges and so far he hasn't personally said much about them.

One of the latest Purcell accusations is that Price delayed the progress of a meat packing plant planned for Dumas.

Dick Reavis, president of the Dumas Chamber of Commerce and editor of The Moore County News, repeatedly denied this allegation.

Reavis from twin vantage points atop the newspaper and Dumas Chamber probably knows as much about what's going on there as anyone.

A Purcell aide Monday said Millard Neptune, an Economic Development Administration official, was prejudiced because he is a Republican appointee. Neptune likewise had denied the Purcell charge.

In fairness, it must be pointed out that Dick Reavis is not even a Republican. Having known Reavis for years as a sometimes less than conservative Democrat I was astounded to learn that he was in the Price corner after having given at least lip service support to Dick Brown when Brown challenged Price in 1968.

Reavis said this is the first time he has supported a Republican for national office in 20 years.

"I have nothing against Purcell," Reavis declared when I called him this week. "Price has done a good working job as congressman and has been receptive to the district's needs. He helped us in every way possible while we were working for the packing plant here."

A Purcell aide said the Democratic candidate will have more to say on the Dumas meat packing plant in the future.

***

In the meantime, Price seems to be pulling ahead here in Randall County. At least that's what the people to whom I talk indicate.

Purcell is saddled with the McGovern ticket which is becoming more unpalatable to voters in this area by the day.

He has little choice but to attack, attack and attack again. Some years and under certain conditions it will work as it did for Lloyd Bentsen but this year it is likely to blend into the national Democratic campaign din which has lost rather than gained strength for George McGovern and his running mate.

Voters may turn in disgust from the entire Democratic ticket as they turned from the incumbents in the May primaries in Texas.

If this happens, it might even result in the election to the state legislature of Rhett Plank, Republican candidate who tried to get off the ballot but was forced to remain by Democratic Secretary of State Bob Bullock.

***

As I mentioned earlier, H. M. Baggary spoke here last week. I used to think H. M. was more of a teacher than a newspaperman. Now I'm beginning to doubt him on both counts.

The Tulia editor said the Republican Party was founded by Alexander Hamilton. Actually, Hamilton was a Federalist and the Republican party was not born until 1854, decades after Hamilton was killed in a duel with Aaron Burr.

Baggarly said only the Democrats led by Thomas Jefferson were interested in human rights and fostered the bill of rights being incorporated into the Constitution. According to him Republicans have been more interested in property than people.

If Baggarly would crack an American history book a tiny bit he would know that many if not most of Jefferson's associates along with Jefferson himself were slave holders.

It was Lincoln the man of the people and first Republican President of the United States who preserved the Union and freed the slaves.

The Democratic Party of today little resembles the Democratic Party founded by Jefferson and of which Baggarly purports to be so proud.

It stood for states rights and a weak central government.

Since election of Franklin Roosevelt in 1932 this role has just about been reversed.

If the likes of George McGovern, Sargent Shriver or Teddy Kennedy had shown up at Monticello, Thomas Jefferson undoubtedly would have set the dogs on them.

Two students begin moving furniture into the Haunted House which will occupy the third floor of the old First National Bank building on the square in Canyon beginning next week. The house, which will feature ghosts, goblins and werewolves, is sponsored by the parents of Canyon band students in an effort to raise money for future band trips.

Kids Inc., Teams Win 1, Lose 1

Two Canyon Kids Inc. teams were active last weekend and turned in one win and one loss.

Playing a home game Sunday afternoon, the Canyon Headhunters won out over Avondale by a score of 8-0.

The game's lone touchdown came on a seven-yard run by Eddie Clement. The two-point conversion followed on a pass from Charlie Childs to Chuck Perry.

One drive by Avondale was throttled when Stan "Super" Sanders of the Headhunters intercepted a pass.

The Headhunters meet Belmar at Austin Junior High in Amarillo on Oct. 17, in a game that will decide the league championship. Time of the Tuesday game is 6:30 p.m.

The Purple People Eaters dropped a 14-0 decision to Coronado at Southlawn despite another good defensive effort.

Coach Wayne Williams said the defensive team did "real well" with outstanding performances being turned in by Bruce Byrd, Jeff McKay, Doug Davis and Jack Hayes.

Byrd, who intercepted a pass late in the game and returned it some 35 to 40 yards, was named the outstanding player of the game.

Williams said Coronado was the strongest team he had faced this year and that the Purple People Eaters had played an exceptionally good game.

The Canyon entry in the fifth grade league travels to Bonham Junior High this Sunday for a game against Ridgecrest.

Canyon Schools Making Self-Evaluation Study

The administrative staff and faculty of the Canyon Independent School District have launched a two-year self-evaluation study in which they will be appraising the facilities and procedure of the local schools.

According to Curriculum Coordinator Ruth Holladay, speaking for Supt. Jerry Jacobs, the self-evaluation is a procedure required for continued accreditation in the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, and it was recommended by the Joint Professional Communications Committee of the Canyon Classroom Teacher Assn.

The last evaluation of the Canyon school system was made in 1963-64, and, at that time, Canyon was given full accreditation by the association. It is the only fully accredited school system in the Panhandle and one of only two in the state which has full approval at all levels.

A steering committee of faculty and administrative personnel, under the chairmanship of Herman Demus, will direct the study. Members of the committee are Libby Read, Guyda Webb, Suzella Parsons, Luther Lawless, Vondean McGregor, Denny Park, Dave Corley, Leonard Kent, Charlotte Brantley and Mrs. Holladay.

Ex-officio members of the committee are Bob Parks, John Sommer, Hazel Strickland and Jacobs.

Dr. Bascom Hayes of the University of Texas and Dr. Kenneth Laycock of West Texas State University are serving as professional consultants throughout the study.

Initial work is now being done by two major committees: School and Community, and Philosophy and Objectives. The first committee will analyze the socio-economic situation in which Canyon schools operate and will evaluate the relations between the two. The second committee, considering the opinions of faculty, administration, patrons and students, will formulate a statement which will express the local consensus as to the relevance and significance of current educational practices and will state specific objectives which the local school would hope to accomplish.

Present plans call for completion of work by those committees in November of 1973. During the school year, classes may experience early dismissals in order to allow faculty and administration members to meet and work on the program.

Upon the completion of the committee studies in November, curriculum committees and subcommittees will begin study of subject matter, teaching qualifications and facilities of each department and grade level. Other committees will be evaluating student activities, the educational media available, guidance services, school facilities and school staff and administration.

Those studies will continue throughout the winter and tentative committee reports will be submitted in April of 1973. During the 1973-74 school year, those reports will be finalized and a summary of the self-evaluation will be compiled. In April, as a climax to the study, a visiting team of more than 40 educators from the Panhandle area will spend two days in the local schools, making their evaluations. A final, conclusive report of the local schools will give commendations and recommendations.

Concerning the self-evaluation program, Supt. Jacobs said, "Our staff will learn wherein we excel and the points at which we need to improve our teaching program. This grass-roots study will enable us to project our planning to make possible better education for the children and young people of Canyon."

Student Voters Could Be Taxed

Students who registered to vote in Randall County have, in effect, declared themselves residents of the county and are subject to paying taxes here.

That's the opinion of Dist. Atty. George Dowlen as he commented on last week's ruling concerning student voter registrations.

Federal District Judge William Wayne Justice ruled earlier this month that a portion of the state election code which had previously required students declare in writing their intent to remain in the county where they attended school before they could register, was unconstitutional.

Dowlen said that by registering to vote in Randall County, students have established a residence here and could be required to pay taxes here.

As a practical matter, Dowlen said most students would be liable to pay taxes only on cars or furniture since most don't own property in the county.

Dowlen said although the federal judge's opinion struck down the requirement that students sign an affidavit of their intent to remain in the county and even the requirement that they be asked of their intent, the mere signing of the registration form is an expression of intent.

But, he said, it appears students could not be held legally responsible for that statement of intent, since they could change their minds and intentions at any time.

City and School tax assessor-collector Conway Kuykendall is unconcerned. He says if students' cars are not registered in Randall County it would be difficult to tax them, anyway.

New Chairman Heads Council

Dr. Jerry D. Miller, associate professor of business, is the new chairman of the West Texas State University Faculty Council.

He succeeds Dr. Ronald G. Huffstutler, professor of mathematics, who has served the maximum two two-year terms.

Dr. J. Pat Stephens, associate professor of government, was named secretary at the council's organizational meeting this week.

The council is composed of instructional faculty members from each of the five colleges and schools. They are elected for two-year terms.

Other council members are Dr. Jimmie L. Green, head of the plant science department in the School of Agriculture; Peter L. Petersen, assistant professor of history; Dr. Jack Bullock, associate professor of mathematics; Dr. David A. LaBrie, assistant professor of biology; J. Stuart Lawrance, assistant professor of business; Allene Stovall, assistant professor of physical education; Dr. Eugene F. Buckley Jr., assistant professor of education; Dr. Wendell Cain, professor of speech; and Elsa Porter, assistant professor of music.

The purpose of the council is to serve as a channel of communication between the university administration and the instructional faculty on matters of faculty concern.

If you have pets, whether domestic or wild, please call and let me know about them. Our pets are important to us, and I know yours probably hold a special place in your homes, too. So let me know, and I'll let everyone else know.
SINCE THIS IS the first week, I'll begin by saluting our dogs, Sampson and Colonel. Sam is a two-year-old greyhound and Colonel is an eight-month-old Weimaraner. Spooky, our cat, is six months old. Between the three of them, they consume enough food a week to feed five families! But we love 'em!

BEGINNING NEXT WEEK, we will be presenting a "Best Newstipper Award" to the neighbor who calls me and gives me the best newstip. The judge will be a neutral party, but I won't mention any names. Remember, the newstip has to be "printable" and you have to contact me-not vice versa! So come on, gang. Call now and get your news in the hat. Yours may win! 622-1439 is the number. If it's busy, try again. If I'm gone, try again. Whatever you do, please call! (This contest is open to anyone, regardless of race, age, or sex!)

THANKS—SEE YA next week.

Canyon Kiwanis Club installed a new slate of officers and presented awards at their fourteenth Annual Installation

Phil Langen

Langen Takes Kiwanis Helm

Banquet held Thursday evening, Oct. 5, at the Canyon Community Center.
Phil Langen, president, headed the list of officers who will be directing Kiwanis activities in the coming year. Other officers installed were David West, vice-president, George Ritter, secretary, and Stuart Lawrence, Treasurer.
One of the evening's highlights was the presentation of the Kiwanian-of-the-Year award to J. Stuart Lawrence. Attendance awards were presented to Burwell Southern, Durward Brown, Hatcher Brown, Benny Cooper, Charles Wright, George Ritter, Ted Albertson, J. Stuart Lawrence, Ernest Carlson, Mike Morris, Holly Snyder, Charles Smith, David West, William Ritchie, and George Bertish.
Seven new directors were also installed on the board for the year 1973. They were Ted Albertson, George Bertish, Jim Bethell, Steve Hines, Bill Ritchie, Paul Stevenson, and Bill Hillen, the outgoing president.

Barley Dowell, of Hereford, lieutenant-governor of Div. 33, Texas-Oklahoma District, officiated in the installation ceremonies. Master of ceremonies for the evening was Dusty Brown.
Wives of members were special guests for the evening.

To Be Honored

Donald L. Robertson of Canyon will be one of four persons honored tonight for 10 years of service with Colorado Interstate Corporation.
Robertson will be honored during the company's annual service award dinner for long-time employees in Amarillo.

Carnival Set For Oct. 30

Six local associations have laid plans to set up booths at the annual Halloween Carnival in the Junior Livestock Bull Barn in Canyon on the evening of Oct. 31. Alpha Delta Phi Alumni will sponsor a cake walk, Canyon Dames will host a nickel toss, Scabbard and Blade will sponsor a ring toss, Heritage Club will have a toy walk, the Lions Club will sponsor bingo, the University Study Club will have a nail hammering booth and Southside Baptist Church will sell peanuts, popcorn and candy. The event will be from 6 to 10 p.m. in the bullbarn in north Canyon.

Clubs are urged to sponsor a candidate for Halloween Queen. All candidates must be Canyon High School students.
Mrs. Jim Brown is chairman of the carnival.

A $5.00 PRIZE will be given to one student from each of the bands (elementary, junior high, high school) who sells the most tickets in dollars. So please, do your bit to help support a fine group of young people, and get a good meal at the same time!

WHAT MORE NATURAL thing is there to do after you've eaten all that spaghetti than to go and watch the Eagles' Homecoming Game against Palo Duro of Amarillo? The game will be that same night and preceding the game will be the crowning of the lovely Homecoming Queen. It's a full night of entertainment. Don't miss it!

BEGINNING OCT. 20, the Band Parents will also be sponsoring the Haunted House at the old First National Bank building in Canyon on the square. Tickets are 50¢ each and can also be purchased from the band students. The dates are Oct. 20-21, 26-28, 30, 31.

LET ME MAKE this perfectly clear! Those Home Demonstration Club members you may have seen staggering from Nell Moore's house last Thursday were not inebriated! They were coffee-lugged! Yes, after a four-hour coffee and a business meeting, everyone's legs were just a mite weak from all that sitting. But everyone really seemed to enjoy visiting and sipping coffee. We were really pleased to have with us Mrs. Edith Stephens, a guest, and Jo Deller Walker, who works and can only come to morning meetings.

WE MET AGAIN at Nell's this week for a demonstration by Beverly Norman on dried flower arrangements. Next week the meeting will be at the home of Reba Guess. It will be a luncheon and a baby shower for Reba's daughter-in-law, Becky.

LAST WEEK WE Palisades residents were fortunate enough to have 236 yards of asphalt dumped in different places along our roads. A crew of several of our men worked diligently the biggest part of the week trying to smooth it out in places where the road washes worst. Agreed, it's still pretty rough now, but when bad weather hits and our roads are wet, we'll really appreciate it. Thanks to all you men who have worked so hard to improve our road conditions!

RACES AND MORE races! Whether they be on horses or cycles, either way the Palisades is blessed with winners! Don't have any details, but I do know Jamie Walker took first in the 100 class at Green Belt last Sunday! Congratulations, fella!

DORA WALDROP RETURNED from the National Finals in Ft. Worth this past Saturday with a high-point trophy in the Senior Women's Division! She also won two first place trophies and three ribbons! In excellent weather, Dora competed with 59 other contestants in ten games. She raced both her horses, Best Tone and Mustang Brown, and both won first places! She said they both got a very good workout and were very tired Saturday night after the games. Finding accommodations for the horses got to be a real problem. As Dora put it, "Horses are worse to travel with than babies!"

ON THE TRIP, Dora spent some time with her son and his wife Mr. and Mrs. Don Waldrop, and their children Alice, Alan, and Grace in Smithfield. They got a big kick out of Dora's horses, who boarded in their back yard for a night.

MANY CONGRATULATIONS to you, Dora. Our community is proud to have you as a neighbor! (By the way, did you see the write-up Jim Sands of the News gave Dora last week? Quite a tribute, wasn't it!)

Mrs. Purcell To Be Honored

The wife of U.S. Congressman Graham Purcell will be honored with a come and go coffee next Thursday afternoon in Happy. The coffee for Nancy Purcell will be at 2:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Foster Harman.

Hostesses for the coffee will be Mesdames Foster Harman, Alfred Buecker, Gene Shipman, Clayton Devin, Eugene Jackson, Ed Wright, Melvin Schaeffer, Ken Danner, Roy Bryan, Evelyn Dowd, G.L. Robinson, Carl Bryan, Babe Walberg, Mark Nichols, Dale Whitlow, Burl Sims, C.D. Taylor, Bob Johnston, Homer T. LaRoe and Tom Henry.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION
JOHN RON TRAVIS, Defendant, Greeting:

YOU ARE HEREBY COMMANDED to appear before the Honorable 181st District Court of Randall County at the Courthouse thereof, in Canyon, Texas, by filing a written answer at or before 10 o'clock A.M. of the first Monday next after the expiration of forty-two days from the date of the issuance of this citation, same being the 20th day of November A.D. 1972, to Plaintiff's Petition filed in said court, on the 4th day of October A.D. 1972, in this cause, numbered 12-247-B on the docket of said court and styled in the Matter of the Marriage of Sheila Kathleen Travis and John Ron Travis.

A brief statement of the nature of this suit is as follows, to-wit: Suit for divorce as is more fully shown by Plaintiff's Petition on file in this suit.

If this citation is not served within ninety days after the date of its issuance, it shall be returned unserved.

The officer executing this writ shall promptly serve the same according to requirements of law, and the mandates hereof, and make due return as the law directs.

Issued and given under my hand and the seal of said court at Canyon, Texas, this the 4th day of October A.D. 1972.

Attest:
POLVADORE Clerk,
181st District Court
Randall County, Texas.
By Kay J. Morton, Deputy.

Notice is hereby given that original Letters Testamentary upon the estate of Arthur M. Olson, Deceased, were issued to me, the undersigned, on the 9th day of October, 1972, in the proceeding indicated below my signature hereto, which is still pending, and that I now hold such Letters. All persons having claims against said estate, which is being administered, in the County below named, are hereby required to present the same to me at the address below given, before suit upon same are barred by the general statutes of limitation, before such estate is closed, and within the time prescribed by law.

My post office address is 2408 14th Avenue, Canyon, Texas 79015.

Dated this 9th day of October, 1972.

Esther Olson, Independent Executrix of the Estate of Arthur M. Olson, Deceased, No. 2748 in the County Court of Randall County, Texas class of 1923 is planned for 5:30 p.m.

The memory of Frank Kimbrough, who devoted 44 years to athletics, will be permanently preserved Saturday night just before the homecoming game between the Buffs and New Mexico State University.
In a ceremony on the football field, the university stadium will be formally dedicated in his honor.
Kimbrough, who spent 24 years at WTSU as coach and athletic director, died in February 1971.
Dr. James P. Cornette, university president, will officiate at the ceremony during which a plaque will be presented Mrs. Frank Kimbrough by Don Patterson of Amarillo, president of the T-Lettermen's Club. The plaque is given by the WTSU Ex-Students Association.
The university will erect a bronze memorial to Kimbrough on the hill at the south end of the stadium.
The university board of regents is expected to participate in the ceremony.

ain't supposed to be smart, you know. After all, I went to college on a scholarship."
Russell attacked the appeal of drugs, marijuana and harder, by suggesting alternatives.
"You know I like to get high, too. . . I get high on people—people are a gas. . . The single, most exhilarating feeling in this world is to be with someone you love. Just try that, man."
The retired warrior of the basketball court said that someone had once looked him up and down and asked him if he was a basketball player, and he had responded, "No, I am a man who plays basketball." He explained that everyone is a man first of all, and to deny him this is to deny him his humanity.
Enlarging on the topic, Russell expressed his disapproval of the once common practice of colleges and universities signing black athletes with no concern for their education. "I don't think anybody ought to invite a student to a campus where they do not expect him to fully participate in campus life—social, academic, athletic, or political."
A few sentences on, he commented, "Athletes are, in this country, looked upon like pretty girls. No one listens to him or cares what he thinks as long calling for another 13.9 per cent increase.

"You're not going to win this kind of thing as individuals," he said. "It takes a team effort and a lot of cooperative unity from throughout the state."
Stewart said the "name of the game is politics," in trying to obtain better benefits for state employees.
Currently, he said, Texas is 35th in a ranking of all states in pay for state employees.
He said the association's 34,

as he looks good. For this reason, most athletes are somewhat underdeveloped personality wise."
Russell looked back on his career with satisfaction. "In playing basketball, I discovered men of diverse background can work together. Respect is the key word—and self-respect is the most important. You can't respect anyone else if you don't respect yourself."
But the reknown sports figure said he quit coaching the Celtics, even though he had a contract guaranteeing him seven more years, because he was tired of the game.
He recalled that after Emerson Boozer was signed on by the Baltimore Bullets, they beat the Celtics three games by a margin each time of around 30 points. Russell said he felt his team had practically quit, and decided in the next bout with the Bullets he would rally spirits with a "kill-em" kind of pep talk. In the last two minutes of the game, the score was tied so the Celtics called a time out for Russell to sound the "kill-em" command again.
"Suddenly I began thinking. What am I doing here, semi-nude in front of 25,000 people, about to kill over a simple basketball score? I began laughing—and I 2000 members are working to improve that ranking through lobbying in Austin.

"Let's face it. It's a political game and you're part of it," he said. "If public employees don't realize you're part of the game, you're going to get swallowed."
Stewart said employees at other universities are trying to organize and to join TPEA in an effort to let their voices be heard.
And, then the WTSU employees' voices were heard as they griped about what they considered inequitable salary increases on Sept. 1, about the absence of a university grievance policy, about their status within the university and the state.
"Where do they get the idea we're not state employees?" asked one, as he explained that on some occasions they had been told they were state employees and on others they had been told they were university employees.
"We'd consider you state employees," Stewart said.
While fielding questions, Stewart revealed that a uniform personnel administration act which would standardize job descriptions and salaries is in the mill for the legislature in 1973. He predicted the bill would pass and alleviate Texas' problem of lack of standards for promoting non-academic employees and paying them.
He suggested the act, if passed, would clear up problems of seeming inequities in pay raises.
Employees had complained to The Canyon News several weeks ago that they didn't receive what they believed to have been an intended 6.8 per cent raise. At that time, they said the raises were far from uniform throughout the maintenance department.
One strong complaint voiced was that the maintenance department personnel were forced to sign contracts each year.
"We were told just to sign or get the hell out," one man said.
Another said the contract was nothing more than a piece of paper since the employees could quit at any time or could be fired at any time during the year.
"It just means we agree to work another year for the same amount of money," he grimaced.
"I didn't know a working contract for state employees existed," Stewart replied. "I haven't ever seen one like you described. It wouldn't appear to me that it was any good."

Another employee complained that there is no avenue to air complaints to the university administration.
Stewart said the university should have a formal grievance procedure set out.
Another employee made reference to apparent threats made by the university administration if the employees tried to join a union.
Several weeks ago, the employees told The News they were considering joining with the Operating Engineers Union in Amarillo.
The meeting ended Tuesday with several persons promising to poll maintenance employees concerning membership in the organization.

Registration Hits 29,000
Almost 30,000 persons have registered to vote in Randall County.
Mrs. Audrey Bruse, tax assessor-collector, said registration ended Saturday with between 28,000 and 29,000 persons registering here.
The county's two tax offices—the one in Amarillo and one in Canyon—were crowded throughout the morning Saturday as residents waited to the last minute to register.
Mrs. Bruse reported about 400 persons registered Friday and about 400 Saturday in both the South Amarillo and Canyon offices.
Registrations in the county set a record weeks ago, when the number passed the 22,633 mark established in 1968.

Capers Dance At WT Center
Canyon Capers danced at the WTSU Activities Center on Monday, Oct. 9, with four squares. Visitors from Teen-Twirlers and Pistols and Petticoats joined in.
Audrey Brown called in the absence of the regular caller.
Lessons are open for one more week. The next dance will be Oct. 16 at 8 p.m. in the Activities Center. All persons are welcome.

negotiate with FHA and the Department of Housing and Urban Development for an interest subsidy which would allow only 3 per cent interest annually on the $1.2 million.
Henson said the university could sell bonds for the amount.
If the university does not accept the property, Davis said, the owners would be forced to foreclose, an act he intimated would have far-reaching and dire effects on future FHA lending in the area.
"Rather than dump this on the market or sell it to the lowest bidder, we set this way to smoothly transfer ownership without affecting the local economy or any of the adverse publicity there'd be with a foreclosure sale," Davis said. "We are looking for a way to not ditch the local economy and benefit the college."
Davis said he feels the college would benefit greatly from the apartments.
He said under HUD rules, the university could use the property only for students or faculty members.
Stressing the advantage of having such a facility for married students and to attract faculty, Davis said he believes that the transfer would only enhance the university.
Dr. Cornette and Henson said WTSU is one of the few, if not the only, college in the country which doesn't already own apartment house complexes within the city.
"We're probably the only one that doesn't have apartment houses," Henson said.
A check Wednesday with Assistant Dean of Student Life David Nail at Texas Tech University revealed that school owns no apartment houses for married students or faculty either.
Dr. Carruth said in many cases it has become necessary for universities to provide married student housing because apartment house owners in many college towns have jacked up prices to unaffordable levels.
He stressed this has not been the case in Canyon.
The apartment house owners present Tuesday night were basically concerned with two things: the rents the university would charge and the taxes which would be lost if the apartment house became university property.
"It has to make ends meet and there must be a sure override in it," Henson said.
Although Henson would never say what kind of profit margin he would expect to make on the rentals, he stressed that the apartments would have to operate in the black and would hopefully provide enough money to undergird other programs on campus.
Dr. Cornette voiced the same opinion.
"We're having problems right now," said Bill Davis, local realtor, "and in my eyes it would be foolish to get in a deal where it would have to be that full. Either way you go it's probably going to hurt us."
"The university might lower their apartments to like $100 or lower and they'd have a new apartment building and they'd probably rent theirs before we rented ours. Either way it looks like we're damned if we do and damned if we don't."
Davis was reacting to statements by Stan Davis that if the current owners are forced to foreclose, the FHA would probably sell the apartments for about $700,000, an amount which would allow the future owner to lower rents to a more competitive level anyway.
"I hate to see the university go into this competition with us," Bill Davis said.
Also of concern to the apartment owners was the amount of tax money which would be lost if the Canyon Creek complex reverted to the university.
Charles Gerald said he checked with the school and city tax office and found that the apartments currently bring about $17,000 in taxes into the coffers.
Apartment owner Alvin Kuhlman expressed dismay at the thought that the university, financing with only 3 per cent interest and paying no taxes, could offer their apartments at such a probable low rate.

"We're in business to make a profit," Bill Davis said. "I hate to see another situation taken over in this manner where you can operate at a break-even point. I'd rather take the risk of letting it go back to FHA."
Owner Wayland Angel expressed some apprehension.
"It's hard to compete with an agency that has no taxes and a rake-off on interest," he said. "It isn't fair."
University officials said they would continue to eye the proposal.
Before anything firm can be done, though, the university board of regents must pass on the plan.
Canyon Creek Apartments were begun about two years ago. Open house for the apartments was in the fall of 1971.

throwing five touchdown passes against his Buffaloes in last year's 50-24 Aggie victory in Las Cruces, N.M.
West Texas State is 2-2 for the season, losing to Drake in an opening season conference game and last week to Southern Mississippi. The Buffaloes defeated Colorado State in a game which colored on the conference standings and halted then unbeaten Lamar University.
Pisarcik has completed 83 of 185 passes for 949 yards and five scores this season, while suffering 10 interceptions. Split end Hank Cook, who has only one eye, is one of the nation's leaders in receptions with 26 for 383 yards. Flanker Scooter Warren has caught 14 passes for 142 yards.
The Buffaloes leading passer, Mike Wartes, has hit on only nine of 34 passes for 174 yards.
West Texas depends upon its three running backs for yardage. Sophomore Cole Fraley leads the Buffalo ground game with 293 yards. Billy Pritchett, who gained All-Missouri Valley honors last year as a sophomore, has 261 rushing yards. Jimmy Lisle, another sophomore, has 248 rushing yards.
The Aggies' leading rusher is Reggie Gray, who has 144 yards on 51 carries. The starting fullback will probably be Jack Collins, who has 78 yards in 29 carries. Collins is the son of former Buffalo Ben Collins, who is the second leading scorer for a career in West Texas State's history. The senior Collins tallied 221 points in three years with the Buffs. He led the nation in scoring in 1941 with 132 points.
New Mexico State is the oldest current rival of the Buffaloes in football. The Buffaloes hold a 17-7-1 advantage in the series, which started in 1941 with a 51-0 West Texas State win.
Five times in past years the teams have met in a West Texas State homecoming game and the Buffaloes have won four of them.
For the second straight week, the Buffaloes will be facing an outstanding punter. The Buffaloes met the nation's leader, Ray Guy, in last Saturday's game with Southern Mississippi. Mike Stephens took over the punting job for the Aggies last week against SMU and kicked for a 42.5-yard average in eight punts.

The spitting contest is the second in a series of competitions to be sponsored by The Canyon News to boost community spirit and attract business.

Eagles In Homecoming Tiff With Palo Duro
Friday night's homecoming battle at Kimbrough Memorial Stadium between the Canyon Eagles and Amarillo's Palo Duro Dons will be played without the services of key players from both teams, the coaches said this week.
Palo Duro mentor Doug James said he would be trying to bounce back from a loss last week and would have to do it without three starting players. He listed right tackle Jack Galbraith, defensive right tackle Baron Tillman and fullback Mike Smith as injured and not ready for duty.
Coach Ron Mills of the Eagles said he would be operating without standout back Bill Moore, split end Roger Burton, tailback Gary Bednorz and wingback Kenny Barton. Two other players have been placed on the "doubtful" list, Mills said.
According to coach James, he is expecting a good game from the Eagles, a team he described as "getting better every week." He said he expected to see the Eagles do "a bit of everything" against the Dons, especially through the air.
James said he felt Canyon had done an outstanding job against 4-A opponents this year and should readily prove themselves in 3-A district competition to begin next week against Levelland.
Coach Mills, in citing his team's four losses to 4-A teams, said he would be glad to begin district play.
The Eagle coach said this week that he was shooting for good, sound football in the Palo Duro game. Because of deep penetrations against Hereford and Pampa falling short of the goal line, the Eagles have worked on goal line offense, said Mills.
Of the string of losses this year, Mills said, "It's mostly us. Making mistakes. We haven't been whipped physically."

Lutheran Church Will Celebrate Mission Festival
St. Paul Lutheran Church is celebrating their annual Mission Festival this Sunday, October 15 at the 11:00 and at a special service at 3:00 in the afternoon. A pot-luck lunch will be served immediately after the morning service.
Rev. Walter Ellwanger, pastor of Christ Lutheran Church, Tulsa, and formerly president of Alabama Lutheran Academy and College, Selma, Alabama, a predominantly black school, will be the preacher at both services.
Pastor Ellwanger, a man in his seventies, has also served in an inter-city congregation and has broken a great deal of ground in the area of Christian ministry to and attitudes toward blacks long before it became a respectable thing. There are many black Lutherans in the full-time ministry of the Church because of his influence.
St. Paul invites the members of the Canyon community to its celebration.

Football Teams Score Wins

BY TROYCE MULHERIN GREETINGS:

THE WESLEY BROMLEY family wishes to express a heartfelt thank you to all who administered to them in their time of sorrow in the loss of their loved one, Billy.

The Bromleys take this opportunity to extend special appreciation to all who served and helped in the Bromley home in any way. The floral offerings were so beautiful and greatly appreciated. The Bromleys hold dear the memories of the many kindnesses and considerations shown to them.

FOOTBALL SCOREBOARD: SIXTH grade team coached by Dick Balke and Leonard Schmidt won over Whittier last Sunday afternoon with a score of 13-7. The Minier brothers coached their fourth grade boys to a 6-0 win over Eastridge. The mixed fifth and sixth grade team coached by Ricky Smith lost to Claude 6-0. Absolutely nobody wins 'em all, and we will all be rooting for all these boys next game. Now is the time perhaps to comment on the excellent support the parents give these youngsters at the games. Always good attendance and good moral support given the coaches and the boys.

JOHN HICKS, SON of Johnny and Phyllis Hicks, is not a bit bashful about telling his age. In fact, he is quite pleased to be approaching the Big Six on the 15th. A happy sixth birthday to you, John.

LISA ERWIN, DAUGHTER of Billie and Harold Erwin, celebrated her becoming twelve years of age Friday night in a big way. Traci Bufkin, Cindy Todd, Janice Delaney, Linda Foster, Donita Hall and Kendra Wallis joined in the fun time. Lisa treated her friends and herself to the production of Disney on Parade. Then back home for birthday party-making and topping off the evening with a slumber party. Very little slumbering and absolutely no sleeping was the rule of the day. Happy on this one, Lisa, and many more.

DO NOT, REPEAT, do not purchase any lightbulbs until after October 16. Why? Because, after that date youngsters in the Kids, Inc. program will be conducting their annual lightbulb sale. Kids, Inc. youngsters and their parents are invited to meet on October 16, at Robert E. Lee

School at 7:30 to go over the details of the sale. Bulbs will be issued that night and the youngsters will be knocking on your doors the following day. The proceeds from the lightbulb sale help to keep the necessary Kids, Inc. fees to a minimum. Not only that, but prizes to the youngsters selling the mostest bulbs include a trip to Dallas on Thanksgiving Day. Other prizes include things like bicycles, watches, radios, along with hundreds more. So, if any your bulbs go between now and then, drag out the candles or the flashlights, cause that sight-saving knock will be heard on your door about the 17th.

THE DOUG FORD family has been partying like mad recently. Birthday partying, that is. The most recent member of the family to celebrate is Mark, who observes on the 13th of this month. Many happyes to you, Mark.

THE CANYON BAND Parents Club is sponsoring a Spaghetti Supper to be held on October 13. The goodies will be consumed in the cafeteria at Canyon High School between the hours of five and seven o'clock. For a modest $1.25 for adults and $0.75 charge for students, empty tummies will be appeased with a big dish of spaghetti, salad, tea and dessert. A $5.00 prize will be given to one student from each band selling the most tickets in dollar amount. The Gene Howe band, Rex Reeves band and the junior high and high school bands are all included in the ticket sales and contest. The proceeds from the supper will go into the general fund. Mrs. Sue Rittenbury is chairman for the spaghetti supper; and, Mrs. Dudley Moore and Sherrie Cates are responsible for the decorations and publicity. Come on and treat yourselves to dinner out. You'll enjoy the evening even more in the knowledge that you're helping the ol' band fund out, too. Good food, good company, good cause.

PICK EITHER ONE or more of the following nights, October 20, 21, 26, 27, 28, 30 or 31, and mark same for your calendar of important things to do. Spend the time between now and then preparing yourselves and your youngsters for a scary but fun evening in observance of Halloween. Ghouls, vampires and werewolves—What do they really eat?—Ever wondered? Go visit the Haunted House on one of the above dates—perhaps you'll find out. If you can stay around long enough, that is. More details on this spookish subject later.

TERRY RUDD, SON of Mr. and Mrs. B.L. Rudd, took his twelve swats (or smacks, as the case may be) like a man on his birthday on the 6th. Melissa Dyson, Janice Delaney, Traci Bufkin, Lisa Erwin, Cindy Todd, Billy Cunningham, Kyle Balke, Steve Schmidt, Robin Stidger, and Terry Tension helped Terry celebrate with a bowling party. Cindy outbowed them all, with a total final score of 113. This group represents a lot of energy, as they topped off the fun with a tag football game at Sam Houston park.

KEEP THOSE CARDS and letters and phone calls coming in, folks.

Tidbits here and there

By CAROL CRAIN
A SPAGHETTI SUPPER is being sponsored by the CHS Band Friday night preceding the CHS Homecoming game.

The meal, served in the high school cafeteria, includes the spaghetti, sauce, salad, choice of homemade pie or cake, and drink.

Tickets for the yummy dinner are only 75 cents for children and $1.75 for adults. And, you will be supporting one of the state's finest bands.

WTSU HOMECOMING is also this weekend with the Miss WTSU Pageant at 7:30 p.m. Friday. Saturday is the all-day carnival, registration of exes that morning at the carnival area, and fun-for-all.

THE DISTINGUISHED ALUMNI BANQUET is slated for noon at the lovely WTSU cafeteria—tickets are $5.00.

LAUGH-IN'S Lily Tomlin will entertain the audience at the fieldhouse at 2 p.m. The football game with New Mexico State has a 7:30 p.m. kick-off time.

THERE'S SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE THIS WEEKEND!

BRENNAN'S in Dallas is noted for their delicious cuisine and "Breakfast at Brennan's" is a very special treat.

A notice in a recent issue of the Dallas Morning News invites you to dine at Brennan's for lunch and have either one of two cocktails for 25 cents. . . . just in case you might be going to Dallas in the near future.

WHY DOESN'T SOMEONE SPONSOR a Benefit Game Party for our community? The arts and garden department of Dallas Woman's Forum is giving one this season to benefit the department's special projects this year.

Bridge, canasta and other games will be played. Prizes will be awarded and luncheon served at the Big D event.

An evening of bridge and other games could easily be set-up at the community center here, with possibly a Mexican buffet or other meal. Sounds like fun!

THE LEMON DROP, a new tiny shop on the square, will be opening soon, I understand. The word is that some darling goodies will be available for sale and that many are consignment items from some very talented people.

A WORD OF THANKS TO THE First National Bank for their ad giving the Calendar of Events last week. It really comes in handy if you cut it out—that way you may plan your activities early in the month. (I hope this will be regular feature).

SORORITY CHAPTERS USUALLY SCHEDULE COFFEE for their alumnae the morning of Homecoming, so check with yours for individual times. Don't miss any of the numerous activities.

Xi Kappa Zeta Lists Donations To Pageant

At the regular meeting of Xi Kappa Zeta of Beta Sigma Phi held Tuesday, Oct. 3, at the Girl Scout house, further plans for the Little Miss Canyon Pageant were presented by Virginia Rossiter, chairman.

Miss Rossiter reported on prize donations by Canyon merchants and businessmen for pageant winners. Three $50 bonds, the first prizes, have been donated by Cooper's Market, Southwestern Public Service Co., and Parker Cattle Co. The second prizes, three $25 bonds, were donated by Kreme Kone Drive In, the Tweedle-Dee Children's Shop, and Marie's Beauty Salon.

The chairman, Miss Rossiter, also announced that crowns for the three winners were being donated by Gibson's, and bracelets for runners-up were being given by LaGrone's. Courtesies for judges are being donated by Irwin Greenhouse. Woody Pond, Miss Rossiter also revealed, would preside as master of ceremonies in the role of "Old King Cole," in keeping with the theme of "Little Miss Canyon in Mother Goose Land."

Entertainment during the pageant will be provided by Mrs. Donna Wilson, who will present a girls' choir consisting of fourth, fifth, and sixth grade girls. Miss Cheryl Bellah will play piano accompaniment.

According to Miss Rossiter, a photographer would be present to take pictures of the contestants.

WTSU Artists To Convention
Tickets for the Little Miss Canyon Pageant on Saturday, Oct. 21, at 7 p.m. in the Canyon High School auditorium, may be purchased from any Xi Kappa Zeta member or at the door. Adult tickets are $1.00 and children's tickets are 50 cents.

Following discussions of the pageant, Miss Rossiter presented a program on "The End of Life," and served refreshments as hostess for the meeting. One guest, Mrs. Rosetta Baer, of Dumas, was present.

Survey To Eye Educations

A monthly survey in this area on employment and unemployment will include this month questions on school enrollment and college or professional degrees received in the past year, the Bureau of Census announced this week.

A sample of households in this area, part of the 50,000 national sample representing a cross section of all households, will be interviewed next week.

The labor force information, collected for the U.S. Department of Labor, provides a continuing measure of the economic health of the country.

The August survey indicated there were 86.9 million employed, up from 86.5 million in July.

Bird Series Continues

The second in a series of illustrated lectures on birds in the Panhandle was held at 4 p.m. Wednesday in the west wing of the main library at the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum.

The series was presented by Dr. Charles G. Smith, assistant professor of biology and ornithologist at West Texas State University.

Five lectures make up the series.

Wednesday afternoon, Dr. Smith presented a lecture on the history and biology of vultures as well as game birds and some song birds.

Mrs. Sherri Cates and Mrs. Betty Stokes show some of the crafts which can be produced by Cub Scouts under guidance from den mothers. Eight den mothers underwent leadership training early this week at the First Methodist Church.

Mothers Become Scouts

Eight Canyon women became Cub Scouts Tuesday.

The women, all den mothers or prospective den mothers, attended a two-day Cub Scouting workshop, the first held in Canyon in more than three years, at the First Methodist Church, and placed themselves in their charges' places Tuesday afternoon as they attended a mock den meeting.

Scouting itself, arts, crafts, hobbies, stunts, skits and other activities were presented the den mothers in preparation for their duties with between 8 and 10 short men as Webelos leaders. The boys need help badly at the den, pack, troop and district level.

Mrs. Cates has been a den mother and had held various other jobs in Cub Scouting for 10 years. She was recently presented the Silver Fawn award through her pack. The Silver Fawn is the equivalent of the Silver Beaver.

Throughout those 10 years, she feels she's accomplished quite a bit for the Scouts.

And, she cherishes "the pleasure and joy of seeing boys steered the right way."

"I feel it's the most important thing in the world to work with young people to see that they have guidance," she said. "Parents can't do it by themselves. They've got to have the church and schools and other things."

Another workshop for den mothers will be held Saturday at Southwestern Public Service Co. in Amarillo. The shop will be from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Counselling Helpers Sought

A steering committee to begin a counselling service in Canyon is being organized.

The Rev. Baldwin Stribling, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, met with Mitch Jones, retired West Texas State University professor, Mrs. John Childs and County Judge Woody Pond Monday to continue discussions on providing a volunteer and free counselling service here.

The Rev. Mr. Stribling told the three he believes a definite need exists for the service here.

"The middle class is not getting this kind of service because they're working at the end of their rope," he said.

The minister stressed the need for competent professionals who would volunteer two hours of their time each week to counsel.

But, before professionals are needed, he said, enthusiastic and energetic people are needed to help organize the service in Canyon.

"I know it will work if we have the right kind of organization," Jones said.

The meeting broke up Monday with those present vowing to find other local residents interested in forming the service and devoting time to organizing it.

Group Oks Resolutions

Nine resolutions, several of which originated in Randall County, were included in a package passed last week by the Texas County Judges and Commissioners Association in Fort Worth.

County Judge Woody Pond and Commissioner Glen Dowlen returned from the meeting Sunday and Pond said 25 resolutions were passed, including one which strongly opposes recommendations to change the Texas court structure.

Several changes in the state's court structure, including the elimination of justice of the peace courts and the requirement that all county judges be attorneys, were proposed by the state supreme court Chief Justice's Task Force for Court Improvement.

Four resolutions adopted several weeks ago by the Panhandle association were also adopted last week by the state group. The four originated in Randall County Commissioners Court.

They include a resolution calling for the granting of homestead exemptions to single as well as married persons, a resolution opposing the establishment of district appraisal centers for taxing entities, a resolution concerning delinquent tax receipts and a resolution opposing the establishment of regional data processing centers for taxing jurisdictions.

HAPPY DAYS AT Canyon High School during homecoming week, this eighth week of school. Many Canyon graduates will be here for the festivities.

TOMORROW EVENING FROM 5:00 till 7:00 will be the spaghetti supper in the High School cafeteria, sponsored by the band parents. The menu includes salad, spaghetti, tea and dessert, and tickets are $.75 for students and $1.25 for adults. The bands' members are in competition on ticket sales. There will be a $5.00 prize given to one student from each band with the highest amount of sales. The bands are Elementary, three Junior High (Cadet, Concert and Symphony) and High School. Back the bands and get in on some real good food and fun. This supper is just preceding the homecoming football game between Canyon and Palo Duro High. Come on Eagles!

Dr. Wallace L. Johnston, head of the department of industrial education at West Texas State University, has been selected to edit and publish the journal of the Texas Industrial Arts Association, quarterly journal of the TIAA.

The 1400-member organizational publication, representing public school industrial arts teachers in junior high and high schools and college and university teacher preparation programs in this state, will contain news of regional, state, and national interest.

High school student clubs, state college industrial arts student activities, and the national industrial arts college club news items will be featured along with guest editorials and information submitted from various sources.

The Journal has been edited for the past two years by Dr. John Richards of NTSU in Denton, the recently elected secretary for the TIAA.

BROWNIE TROOP 181 has been real busy in their meetings the past two Tuesday afternoons. Last week they toured Neblett Hospital and this week they toured the Canyon Fire Department. After returning to the Scout Building they learned the proper way to make a fire. Their theme for this year is to learn to help others. Members of the troop are Tammy Bonner, Suzanne Bromlow, Melissa Carruth, Leslie Gordon, Donna Grimes, Kemi Hill, Holly Hooper, Niki Newman, Quinell Newman, Stephanie Raymond, Meg Reeves, Michelle Rider, Ellen Scarbrough and Kristi Sheffy. Troop Leaders are Mrs. Karen Sheffy, Mrs. Judy Hill, Mrs. Nelda Newman and Mrs. JoEll Newman.

Indian Guides To Organize Tonight - - Flying Pattie Off To Columbus

BY TOOTIE BYBEE
HOW DO YOU do and how are you !! Hope you have been busy and having a good time from life.

HAD THE NICEST telephone call from the nicest lady and wanted to give her news first since it is so important. The lady was Darlene Finke and her news was about the big Spaghetti Supper the Canyon Band parents are sponsoring. It will be Homecoming with Canyon playing Palo Duro, Oct. 13. They will serve from 5 til 7. The tickets are $1.25 for adults and $.75 for students and this entitles you to a plate of spaghetti, salad, tea and dessert!!

ALSO, THE BAND will have the "Halloween Haunted House" once again. It will be open Oct. 20, 21, 26, 27, 28, 30 & 31. It will be in the old First National Bank Building on the Square and tickets are 50c. Mrs. Verona

Had a party? Or giving one? Tell The Canyon News about it. Telephone 655-7121, or stop by the News office on the south side of the square.

Collier is Chairman. So, here are a couple of good ways to give support to our fine school bands. Won't you help by participating?

WELL, OUR OWN sweet Marty Johnson and "Flying Pattie" are really flying high these days. Martha has been selected as one of the 8 young people to represent Texas in Columbus, Ohio, with "Flying Pattie" of course. This is the National Youth Congress of the American Junior Quarter Horse Association. This is where the youth champions from each state meet and compete for national honors. We all want to wish Martha and her superb mare the very best of luck and tell her how very proud we all are of her. Just remember only 8 from the whole big ole state of Texas were selected and Marty was one of them!!

IN WITH THIS, want to tell you the results of the two shows at Dalhart and Guymon, Okla. At Guymon Marty and her mare won, 2nd in halter, 2nd in showmanship, 1st in junior Western pleasure, 1st in youth Western pleasure and 1st in youth reining. At the same show Steve Ross won 4th in Showmanship, 5th in Pleasure and 6th in halter class. At Dalhart along with other honors Marty and "Flying Pattie" won Grand Champion Mare.

WENT TO THE sweetest baby shower I have been to in a long time. The honoree was Blanche Hudson and it was held in the Lantern Square Club House in Amarillo. There were little tiny baby carriages made from the individual pockets of egg cartons and pipe cleaners. There were all kind of goodies and lovely decorations. Such a very pretty baby shower for a precious person. Saw Deann Cooper, Mike Whitehead and Ann Tow there from Mescalero Park. Saw lots of other people too, but didn't know too many of them. Blanche's mother and grandmother were there from New Mexico; also, Mike's mother was there again, from New Mexico. Now all that's needed is the baby and that won't be long.

THE CAMP FIRE girls had their weekly meeting with a hike and good singing. We also had a nice discussion on "What is a Friend." We are all anticipating and getting ready for our annual candy sale which is November 2-26. Hope you all will be ready for us and will give us good support like you have always done in the past.

THE JUNIOR HIGH Camp Fire Girls, which is Discovery Club, held their first meeting for this new year. Officers were selected and costumes and many other things were discussed. The Guardian of the group is Betty Malson.

OH, YES, DOUG Jones is selling bags of Halloween candy if you should need some. This is for his Pioneer group of Rangers at his church. It will help to buy camping equipment for the group, so give him a hand if you can.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO a very special little boy, Matt Malson, and hope you have a real bang up year and many more, and for Heaven's sake have a good time.

VICKIE MILLER TELLS me they had a visitor this weekend. Her grandmother from McLean was visiting. This is her dad's mom, Mrs. Miller.

HAD A ROARING good time here at our house Saturday night, Oct. 2. We had our youth choir out for supper and singing. We counted 35 teenagers and 6 adults. But any way had several ask what was happening over here and that was it. We built a big fire outdoors and sang and visited. Nothing can keep your spirits up and your body run down like a precious group of teens. Love them all.

WE WILL ALL be real anxious to hear from Martha and family, Corky and Johnnie Johnson when they return from Columbus. A big Thanks to "all" of you who let me know about Martha being selected to this honor. Don't know what I would do without my good reporters.

A VERY SPECIAL congratulations is sent to Mr. and Mrs. Mike Trammell on the birth of their new baby girl, Krista Dawn Trammell. Born October 1 and weighing in at 7 lbs. and 14 oz. Of course, the new mommy is the former Susan Ross. Also, happiness to the new grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Delton Ross who are good neighbors on Cochise.

SAW A NEW pickup truck being driven by Mr. Crews. My, sure was a sharp looking job. Also, the Cooper's have somehow wound up with a new car. Sam said what kind is it and I said a green one, guess that doesn't tell one much but never was too good on the "kind" of car it is. But it sure is pretty, Tracy.

WELL, THE LADIES Thursday Club met again Thursday, in Shirley Jones' home. Had a small attendance as everyone was a little busy this week. But had a big time just the same. Good weight watchers lunch I heard about. We will meet in Ann Tow's home this Thursday and discuss a little business, hope to see you there with your covered dish in hand. Was happy to welcome Mrs. Brooks to our little group and hope she comes again.

THE PATTERSONS ARE off on a most anticipated trip. They left Sunday morning for Denver to spend a few days with youngest son, Toby and family and then around to the coast of Texas to spend a few days with their oldest son. Said all in all two weeks just wasn't enough. But seeing the little granddaughter will be a real pleasure for them.

SINCE I BELIEVE so strongly in youth character building organizations wanted to give you a little information about onethat is getting a start in the Gene Howe area. It is the "Y" Indian Guides. Thursday evening at 7:30 Roger Whitehead and son Dale will host the organizational meeting in their home. This will be to organize a first year Tribe of first and second graders. There was quite a bit of interest shown for this program. It involves the Dad and sons only. They attend the meetings together and plan to carry out the whole program together. No boys without their fathers or grandfathers etc. accepted and no moms. So, it sounds like a lot of fun for some little and big boys. If you are unable to attend the meeting and are interested please call: 622-0052, Roger Whitehead. There is a big camp out already planned for all Tribes in October, so be sure to get in on the fun.

THE EVANS HAD some visitors over the weekend. Barbara's Mom and Dad, Mr. and Mrs. J.N. Phillips from Brownfield were here for a short visit.

MIKE TOW IS at it again. He won first place in the 250 class at the motor cross races at Dalhart Sunday. Cousin Linda Tow took second in the Powder Puff Derby. This was after racing three consecutive Sundays and totaling points. So they both did pretty well.

THE CAMP FIRE Girls met Monday for their weekly meeting and chose their Indian names and started on their record notebooks. Wish you could hear some of the lovely melodious names they chose for themselves. Sang a little and talked a little and had a good time. Good bunch of Girls!

IF YOU HAVEN'T bought your Halloween candy yet, Cindy Buckles is still selling for the Canyon High Choir. And to those who already bought from her a big thanks to you.

I WAS TOLD a little riddle. Kathy Rogers sits in front of Sam Rogers at school but it is not her brother Sam Rogers but Barb Rogers' brother Sam Rogers. Figure that out. Hi Kathy!

GOTTA RUN AND you know that number, 622-1471, so keep it ringing. And to those who say they can never catch me at home, try about 9-10 in the evening. Everyone has to sleep, even me.

ONE LAST WORD: To Betty Tow: Guess I know a "sweet Tomato" when I see one. Hope you enjoyed them all.

DON'T TAKE RURAL TEXANS FOR A RIDE...
...AND DON'T TAKE US FOR GRANTED.

HERE'S WHAT NIXON IS DOING TO RURAL AMERICA

WHEAT SCANDAL - Giant wheat exporters made huge profits at the expense of individual wheat farmers, many in Texas, on Soviet trade.

TAXES - Wall Street Journal says federal laws favor the corporation or investor who farms on the side for a tax write-off.

FARM ISSUES - Under Nixon, parity dropped the lowest since 1933. Nixon held up payments of nearly $400 million for feed grains in 1970, forcing farmers to borrow at highest interest rates in history.

CONGLOMERATE SCANDALS - Big Business first, the public second - that's the Republican philosophy. Anti-trust suit against ITT dropped at the same time ITT pledged $400,000 to finance Republican Convention.

Harry S. Truman said, 'The Republicans admire our government so much they want to buy it.'

Let's face it. The Republicans just haven't changed much since the days of our grandfathers. They still favor Big Business over the average working man and woman. And while they're taking us for a ride, they keep telling us what a 'dangerous radical' Senator McGovern is.

That's what they said about Harry S. Truman.

HERE'S WHAT MCGOVERN IS DOING FOR RURAL AMERICA

HIS STANDING - George McGovern has been elected time and again as a Democrat from a Republican farm state . . . because they know where he stands.

TAXES - His tax proposal would end the loopholes for tax-loss farming by giant corporations and the wealthy individuals who compete unfairly with family farmers. McGovern's proposal calls for the same tax on capital gains as on earnings.

FARM ISSUES - He sponsored and co-sponsored: Meat Import Limitation Law; Dairy Import Act; Wheat, Feed Grain, and Soybean Emergency Reserve Bill; Rural Development, Rural Job Development, and Rural Telephone Acts; Farm Credit Act; and other pieces of important legislation.

HIS BELIEFS - George McGovern knows that the answers to many of our most pressing problems in America today can be found by developing genuine opportunities for everyone in our small towns and rural areas throughout the country.

Let's not be taken for granted by the Nixon Republicans. Rural America has always fared best under a Democratic administration. If you want to stand up and do something good for rural America, the answer is to help put a Democrat in the White House. We need George McGovern . . . and George McGovern needs us.

RURAL TEXANS NEED A DEMOCRAT.

ZTA Presents Foundation Gift

Barbara Jo Payne, sophomore of Odessa, is the recipient of a scholarship grant from the Zeta Tau Alpha Foundation in recognition of her high academic achievements and outstanding personal qualifications.

Mrs. Stan Elliott, president of the Zeta Tau Alpha alumnae, made the presentation at a meeting Oct. 9 of the collegiate chapter.

Miss Payne is the first member of Elta Eta chapter to receive a Foundation grant. She has been on the Dean's List every semester and is a member of Mary E. Hudspeth Honor Society. An English and journalism education major, she has had the highest grade average in her Zeta Tau Alpha pledge class.

The Zeta Tau Alpha foundation is a separate, non-profit organization with funds derived from gifts, bequests, grants and contributions. The funds provide scholarship grants or loans, improved educational facilities, supplement the work of colleges in developing programs, and lend financial assistance to aged or disabled former students.

Buff Cross-Country Runners Slowed By Injury, Illness

West Texas State cross country coach Bob Kitchens isn't and never claimed to be a healer, but he certainly has enough business to keep one jumping for a while.

After Saturday's West Texas State Invitational, the list reads as follows for injured Buffaloes: Larry Lane (muscle pull behind knee); Wally Nowicki (stress fracture of lower leg); Robert McElroy (knee injury); Lindsey Snodgrass (strained tendon in leg); and Gary Keim (kidney infection).

Nowicki will be examined by the team doctor this week, but may be out for the season. He, McElroy and Keim, who is out for the season, didn't attempt to run Saturday. McElroy may also miss the remainder of the season.

The Buffaloes started Saturday's race with three runners and only two of those finished. Jim Hogan, the senior veteran from Buffalo, N.Y., won the four-mile event in 21:04. Lane limped home in sixth place with 21:48, but Snodgrass stepped in a hole on the course at Amarillo's Thompson Park and was unable to finish.

Kitchens claimed the last three running place points for his Buffaloes and still placed third in the four-team event. Texas Tech won with 34 points. Wayland Baptist College had 60, West Texas 61 and Lubbock Christian College 64.

$447,000 Set For Resurface

The expenditure of $447,000 for maintenance of two stretches of U.S. 60 in Randall County has been approved by the Texas Highway Commission.

District Engineer Charles W. "Chili" Smith announced the appropriation this week for 1973.

Smith said the money will be used to place additional asphalt base and surface on the west bound lane of U.S. 60 from the Deaf Smith County line east 9.3 miles.

Resurfacing work will be done within the city limits of Umbarger on both the eastbound and westbound lanes.

Smith said the resurfacing

The work to be done is part of the state highway commission's combined state highway and safety and betterment and farm to market road improvement program for the next year.

Supervisor for the work will be Donald D. Day, senior resident engineer in Canyon.

A real eye-opener to electric heating costs

Electric heating operating cost estimates usually surprise our customers. They expect electric heat to cost a good bit more. A factual, easily understood, written estimate opens their eyes to the fact it can cost little more than they've been paying. Thousands of our customers are heating electrically now because they asked for the facts about electric heating costs. Phone us today for an estimate. It's free. It's accurate. And, it's a real eye-opener.

Rainbow Girls Schedule Hamburger Supper, Oct. 20

By MARY NEAL HENRY WITH RUTH SIMS' permission, I tell this. Last Tuesday morning I finished my column to send to Canyon by Ruth as she went to school. Ruth has a one o'clock class on Tuesday. I telephoned her and said, "I'll meet you at the Main Hiway." "O.K.," she says. So I get there at the time I'm supposed to, but not a minute early and Ruth is nowhere in sight. I began to think and drive down to the Main Street of Happy and the hiway crossing and then back to Northern and still no Ruth. So I try one more time.

There had been a train across the Main Street crossing and I thought perhaps she had been detained because of it.

Finally, I parked at the crossing of Northern and the Main Hiway and here comes Ruth from the North. She had gone to the Wayside Highway to meet me. She just laughed. Habit is a strange thing and she had picked me up too many times at the Wayside Highway.

DURING HOMECOMING, SOMEONE asked me where I moved. They knew by reading the column that I had moved, but they didn't know where. (I am always amazed that someone reads the column.) I laughingly say I live on the same street that Ruth Sims does. And someone thought I lived West of town. We live eleven miles East of Happy. And I love it. Once I get all the "extras" done, I can keep up until they need doing again. I still lack a few jobs on the house and most of the landscaping. I've planted twenty trees and an "acre" of iris—all still living. Those are my chores. Tom has another set of goals. Together, this place should shape up.

HAPPY RAINBOW GIRLS met last week for business. Mary Ann Sims presided. The annual Hamburger Supper will be October 20 at the high school cafeteria. Tickets are ninety cents. This includes your hamburger, french fries and drinks. Pie will also be sold. The Rainbow will begin serving at 5:30 p.m. and serve until, during, and after the game with Wilson.

ALENE MANN PRESENTED Kay Spear her gavel from the OES Chapter. This is a big moment for the girls. They began to plan for the time they will use that gavel as Worthy Advisor.

THERE WERE TWENTY-SIX girls and six adults present for the meeting.

JOYCE WHEAT WAS awarded her 50 Year OES pin at the Happy Chapter on Tuesday of last week. Pat Hargrave was on hand to do the presentation. Joyce also received a beautiful bouquet of REAL flowers that day from her family—Bob, Mark and Tricia; Si and Willa; Willa Jane, Jim and Christi, and I can't remember all those names on that card. I may be leaving someone out.

THE COWBELLES MET at Willie Butlers on Wednesday morning of last week at 9:30. Mrs. Bill Eubanks, Vivian Woods, and Nora Taylor were co-hostesses. Our special guests for the morning were Mrs. Jewel Ament of Tulsa, Silverton or Vigo Park. Elaine is the president of the "Tulsa Area" Cowbells and Mrs. Ament is the state second vice president. Others present were Mildred Gooch, Eron Jennings, Bernice Hamblen, Myra Nell Culp, Judy Shipman, Othella McGehee, Leona McFarland, Delores Wilhelm, LaNelle Todd, Ruby Vise, Linda McDonald, Willa Elliott, Barbara Danner, Jo Hand, Ruth Sims, Joyce Wheat, and me.

VIVIAN WOODS WAS elected president; 1st vice president is LaNelle Todd; 2nd vice president is Mary Neal Henry; secretary is Delores Wilhelm; treasurer is Linda McDonald; historian is Nig Taylor; and parliamentarian is Othella McGehee. Judy Shipman, Anna Bee and I took reporter. Since we want the whole world to eat more American beef, you'll get the stories, too.

HAPPY COWBELLES IS the name we adopted. We invite all you out there to join us. Our main project is to promote beef. You know you eat Ham for Easter, Turkey for Thanksgiving, well, you eat Beef for Father's Day. We figure since he is king, we'll feed him the best.

OUR NEXT MEETING will be Wednesday, November 8, at 11 a.m. It will be a luncheon in the home of Ruby Vise.

MRS. AVENT ANNOUNCED that there would be a Cowbelle Brunch on Tuesday, October 24, at 10 a.m. in the Villa Inn at Lubbock. I'd like to go.

SWEETIE JOHNSON HAD luncheon and the bridge club in her home on Tuesday of last week.

JUDY SHIPMAN AND LaNelle Todd took the G.A.'s of the First Baptist Church to Amarillo to the Hi Plains Children's Home on Wednesday of last week.

CONNIE HAND, COLETTE McCarley, Megala Thornton, Johnnie Wilson, Bobbyetta Butler, Patricia Geathreaux, Brenda Penn, Bonnie Briscoe, Star Turner, Tammie Nation, and Denise Cope toured the home and met many of the children.

RUTH SUNDAY SCHOOL Class had a luncheon at Nig Taylor's home on Thursday of last week. Wanda Bates was co-hostess. Billie Pearson gave the devotional. Also present were Vivian Woods, Camilla Greenfield, Traverne Vermeire, Jo Hand, Louise Sanders and Nan Earl Geathreaux. A donation was made to the church nursery. Plans to donate to the church library next quarter.

THIS WAS THE week that the Wranglers had an open date. Today they play River Road at Happy at 4:30 (according to the schedule.)

HAPPY COWBOYS BEAT Nazareth 35 to 6. A more exciting game than the score denotes. Chris Pearson made three of those touchdowns and Greg Looney, the other two. Mark Hargrave kicked all the extra points.

DEBRA MAGNESS FLEW to Houston on Friday and returned Sunday. Been a long siege, hasn't it, Deb?

MARY ANN AND Don left Houston Tuesday and spent that night in Dallas visiting Donna Ann. They arrived home on Wednesday afternoon. They've taken in some professional football while at Houston, the Jet-Oiler game for one. They also took a tour down the ship channel and saw about fifteen foreign ships loading one day. Very interesting! But welcome home!

MR. AND MRS. Dee Taylor left Wednesday for Arlington to see Nig's nephew ordained a minister at the South Side Baptist Church in Arlington. They'll return Friday.

RUTH AND ALDEN Mann are in Temple this week. Alden had a knee operation on Tuesday morning. Their address is Ponderosa Motor Inn, 2625 South 31st Street, Temple, Texas 76701. Alden is in Scott and White Hospital.

MRS. OTIS HARMAN is still in St. Anthony's Hospital, but is resting much better. Her condition is stabilized and there is no paralysis.

JOHN FRANK TOLES is home and about to be a little bit active—welcome home, Johnny!

THE FESTIVE FOODS program will be in Canyon on October 26 this year. There will be two programs at the Farm Bureau Building, one at 10 a.m. and one at 1:30 p.m.

HAPPY RAINBOW ASSEMBLY was hostess to a joint meeting of nine assemblies on Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Cortez Dowlen, Grand Visitor, was their special guest. Mary Ann Sims was the presiding officer of the day. Ruth Mann, Faye Foster and Evelyn Dowd served punch and cookies to about eighty guests.

ELBURN WALLACE AND Eric Wallace, Joyce, Dick and Brenda Railsback, Amelia Irbeck, Sherry Altman, C.E. and Jack Hayes, Dorothy and Burl Sims, and of course, Scott Railsback, James and Jay Irbeck, Steve Altman, Doug Sims, were the familiar faces that J.T. and I saw at the Punt, Pass and Kick activities on Saturday morning at the Maverick Club in Amarillo.

EDDIE CLEMENT OF Canyon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Clement won the eleven year old division and will compete in Oklahoma City next Saturday. Rance Williams, won the runner-up in that age group and received a certificate. Delores was also there.

SUNNY HILL HOME DEMONSTRATION Club met with Mary Wilhelm on Thursday morning of last week. Barbara Danner called the meeting to order. Roll call was answered with "My Favorite Food." Helen Bryan opened the meeting with a quiz, very funny. Your answer told about you. Phyllis Bryan gave a program on foods. Mary served coffee and cookies to Barbara Danner, Helen Bryan, Phyllis Bryan, Maurine Allison, Judy Shipman, Mary Jane Miller, Gwynn Tueck and Melissa, Rowdy Bryan and myself.

KIM FOSTER HAD a birthday on Monday and Angelique Henry, Kaye Stubblefield, Dan E. Venhaus, Don E. Venhaus, Connie Venhaus, Clay and Duane Simons helped her celebrate it. Lissa, Dana and Kelly Foster also helped their mom out. Della, Carla, and Gay Venhaus and Skip Simons were on hand to wish Kim a happy birthday.

WAYSIDE HOMECOMING, AN annual event, will be Sunday, October 15. Church services will be at the regular hours, with Sunday School at 10:00 a.m. and Church at 11. A basket lunch in the basement of the church will immediately follow the church service. The program will begin about 1:30. Invitations read "Relive the Roaring Twenties. We all recall the 20's roared, but just who made them roar in Wayside, come and find out." Program chairman is Mittie Comerford, now living in Amarillo. This sounds like something you wouldn't want to miss!

HAPPY RODEO ASSOCIATION has fresh steers for that Wesley Sims Memorial Roping. And are they hard to find! Plans are for you to be on hand October 21st and 22nd. The calf roping will be on Saturday. Each contestant will rope three calves and the top four will rope a fourth calf.

THIRTY STEER ROPERS have already entered the tripping on Sunday and these will also rope three head and the top ten rope a fourth.

LINN HELTON OF La Grande, Oregon, will be the announcer again. You may remember Linn from last year. Linn will also announce the rodeo finals this year; I understand, a job that McSpadden had always held.

HAPPY JAYCEES WILL sponsor a dance on Saturday, October 21, at the Jaycee Hall. The Hawkriders of Dumas will be playing.

CHERYL SCHAEFFER WILL be honored with a bridal shower on Saturday afternoon at Baptist Fellowship Hall.

MRS. NANCY PURCELL, wife of U.S. Congressman Graham Purcell, will be honored in Happy at the Foster Harmon home on Thursday of next week. It is a "Come and Go Coffee." And we hope you will be among those who come. Nancy is a lovely person.

THAT HAMBURGER SUPPER is this Friday in the high school cafeteria. Rainbow Girls need to sell lots of hamburgers. You be there. Serving will begin at 5:30 p.m. and continue through the game and after it. Come and eat hamburgers, french fries, and homemade pie. See ya! Mary Neal

Rock Group Will Tour Next Summer

A New Day, pop-rock student choral group at West Texas State University will take part in an overseas tour next summer on behalf of the U.S. Department of Defense.

The ensemble, conducted by Dr. Hugh Sanders, associate professor of music, was selected for a 30-day tour of the Caribbean May 24 — June 22.

The selection was made by the Overseas Touring Committee of the National Music Council, the United Service Organizations (USO) and the defense department on the basis of performance tapes by last year's group, Sanders said.

Four new members were recently named to the 10-member group. They were Dana Gibson, Amarillo graduate student, Linda Adams, Amarillo junior, Vicki McFarlin, Fritch senior, and Jeryl Hoover, Odessa freshman, who will serve as pianist.

Last year's group members selected again were guitarists Phil and Andy Dietz, Borger sophomores, Steve Garms, Canyon junior, Rene Clemente, El Paso senior, and Cheryl Richardson, Canyon sophomore. Sanders will perform on the drums in addition to directing.

A New Day was formed a year ago for the purpose of reaching a television-oriented public and to give student vocalists the chance to sing and experience the "now music of the younger generation, Sanders said.

The group makes its season debut this week at the Miss WTSU Pageant in the Activities Center ballroom. It also is booked for a performance Oct. 24 at the Pampa Chamber of Commerce banquet.

WTSU Prof At NSA Meet

Dr. John A. Rider, professor of business education and office administration at West Texas State University, was the guest speaker at a meeting of the Albuquerque, N. M., chapter of the National Secretaries Association (International) Tuesday night.

Rider, who came to West Texas State in 1970 after four years on the faculty at the University of New Mexico, spoke on the "value of the Certified Professional Secretary certificate."

Five Albuquerque area secretaries who achieved the CPS rating this year received their certificates.

Rider, who received a doctorate from the University of Nebraska, has had five articles published in professional publications and was listed in Who's Who in the West.

Final Plans Set For Home Tour

Final plans for the Annual Tour of Homes next Sunday, 2-6 p.m., were made this week by the University Study Club, which will use proceeds to fund many worthy community projects. Tickets may be purchased for $1.00 from any member or at the door.

Homes to be opened on the tour are those of Mr. and Mrs. George Blackwell, 702 Taylor Lane; Dr. and Mrs. Dudley Moore, 11 Southridge Dr.; Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Crossland, 1400 Creekmore; Mr. and Mrs. Larry Brandon, 1102 Creekmore; Dr. and Mrs. Charles Smallwood, 2505 12th Ave.; and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Perry, 2816 7th Ave.

Contemporary styling and warm colors characterize the interesting three-bedroom, two-floor home of the George Blackwells. The foyer, with flagstone floor, open stairway, and free-form window on the second level, makes an attractive entrance and gives passage to living or kitchen areas as well as upstairs bedrooms.

Leading off from the formal living room of the Blackwell home is a large family room featuring generous bookshelves flanking picture window, fireplace set in brick wall, and comfortable easy chairs in textured fabrics of gold and orange — an ideal setting for relaxation or entertaining. A copper-enameled painting done by Georgia Blackwell and an abstract metal sculpture lend individuality to the fireplace wall. Other examples of her handicraft and needlework, including a striking hooked wall hanging in the upper foyer, provide decorative detail.

The Dudley Moore's brick and frame, split-level home features a floorplan perfectly suited to providing all the members of their large, active family with space to "do their own thing." Girls' bedrooms along with master bedroom suite are on the upper level, while the boys have their sleeping and relaxing area on the first level. A large kitchen and dinette features the dark, rich hues of natural wood cabinets and carpeting in gold and brown pattern.

The living room of this home reflects Mrs. Moore's personality and tastes in the pastel colors and traditional furnishings, many of which are refurbished family pieces that belonged to her mother and grandmother. The colonial blues of a landscape painting by the French artist Dellard, seen over the fireplace, are picked up in the chair grouping and rug nearby as well as other appointments of the room. White walls and carpeting provide a restful background for love-seats in gold and soft greens and blues. Lamps with Chinese porcelain bases and Chippendale tables add decorative accents.

The interesting architectural lines of the exterior of the George Blackwell home, 702 Taylor Lane, are matched on the interior with tasteful use of textures and colors in contemporary styling. Mrs. Blackwell, above, will open her home for viewing in the Annual Tour of Homes next Sunday, 2-6 p.m.

Simple, contemporary lines and warm shades of gold, orange and turquoise characterize the furnishings of the George Blackwell home, one of those to be featured in the Annual Tour of Homes next Sunday. Examples of needlework and handicraft by Mrs. Blackwell add the extras.

WTSU Senior Sets Recital

Contralto Vicki McCormick, West Texas State University senior from Dumas, known for her role of Kate Lucas in the musical drama "Texas," will be presented in recital Oct. 23.

Miss McCormick, a voice student of Royal Brantley of the WTSU music faculty, will perform at 4 p.m. in the Fine Arts Auditorium on campus. The recital is free.

Miss McCormick has won both dramatic and musical awards for such leading roles as Irene Molloy in "Hello, Dolly," Golde in "Fiddler on the Roof" and Nikolaus in "Tales of Hoffman" in university productions.

Last summer she appeared for the first time in the role of Kate, the earthy sweetheart of comical gold prospector Tucker Yelland in the popular Paul Green show that plays in Palo Duro Canyon State Park.

She is a member of Mu Phi Epsilon, honorary music sorority; Alpha Psi Omega, honorary dramatics fraternity; Alpha Chi, national honor society; and Buffalo Masquers, dramatics club. She is also a member of the WTSU Choral and of the Schola Madrigals.

Her recital program includes Schubert's "Die Forelle," "Der Lindenbaum" and "Der Tod und das Maedchen;" Saint-Saens' "Samson et Dalila;" Vaughan Williams' "The Water Mill" and "Two Songs of Seumas O'Sullivan;" and Mozart's "Ombra Felice."

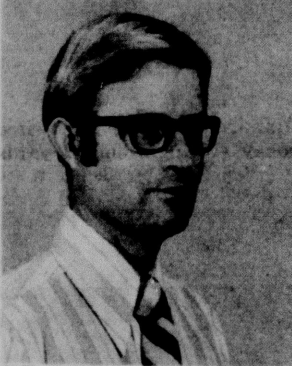

The recital is presented in partial fulfillment of graduation requirements for the Bachelor of Music Education Degree in voice.

History Can Affect Music And Career

Great historical events can influence both the course of a musical composer's career and the content of his music, a West Texas State University music professor says.

Dr. Hugh D. Sanders, associate professor of music and director of choral activities, says he based this on interviews with three generations of German choral composers last summer.

His research, sponsored through a WTSU Organized Research Committee grant, will be published in the Journal for American Choral Directors.

DR. HUGH D. SANDERS

"The first generation of composers interviewed were almost a lost generation in that their period of writing fell during the rise of the Third Reich when Hitler's stipulations and bans on what he regarded as revolutionary music caused most to quit writing during the fuhrer's regime," Sanders says.

"These men got off to a slow start since they were working with such taboo experimental techniques as atonality, serial music and music in the tradition of such banned composers as Hindemith, Schoenberg and Weber," he adds.

Sanders says one eminent composer interviewed was delayed in his career by 10 years in Hitler's army and one year in an American prisoner of war camp.

"The choral music these men were creating was what they called 'Gebrauchsmusik,' or utility music — works meant to be used or performed rather than published and sold," he says.

The second generation of composers were those getting out of high school during the Third Reich days. These men were immediately drafted into the army, thus postponing for several years their university careers, Sanders says.

"Their generation tended to be more traditional," he says. "Their period of writing fell when Germany was rebuilding her churches and buildings after the devastation of war."

The third generation were too young during the war years to relate significantly to those times, Sanders says. Their work shows a far-greater sense of freedom and experimentation, he adds.

Sanders says one of the unique features of German choral music is its emphasis on performance rather than publication, which, he adds, is the primary concern of commercial-minded American writers.

Since the media is all state-owned, Sanders says, there is a greater emphasis on national music — "German music for Germans."

"Outside the contemporary music being written in nearby European countries, the German composers have little knowledge of what is going on outside their borders," Sanders says.

"They won't admit Stravinsky was an American; they know little or nothing of DellaJoio and other great American composers. They know Leonard Bernstein because of his 'Mass,' but few have any knowledge of his choral compositions."

German choral directors' teaching methods are still in the tradition of the Prussian drillmaster, he says.

"A Stuttgart boy's choir I saw was ruled with an iron thumb by its director, with no nonsense or talking during the entire rehearsal session."

Among the newest innovations in German choral music is the use of "metered speaking," or speaking within the music, and the addition of electronic equipment, Sanders says.

An experimental work by one of his interviewed composers, Hans Zimmerman, will be performed by the WTSU Choral in its opening concert Oct. 29.

The work, "Psalmkonzert," utilizes jazz idioms with the choir as well as an accompanying vibraphone and string bass, Sanders says.

During his month in Germany, Sanders says he discovered in a Lubeck library two unpublished cantatas by Buxtehude, famed Germany choral composer. Sanders is editing the works for publication.

Happy Roping This Month

The annual Wesley-Sims Memorial Roping contest will be held Oct. 21 and 22 sponsored by the Happy Rodeo Association at the Happy Rodeo Arena.

Contestants will rope three calves each on Oct. 21 and the ten with the fastest times will rope a fourth calf.

On Oct. 22, steer ropers will rope three steers each with the top 10 roping a fourth.

Linn Helton of LaGrande, Ore., will announce both events. Helton is a world-renowned announcer who will announce the national finals this year.

Happy Jaycees will sponsor a dance following the action Oct. 21 at the Jaycee Hall. The Hawkriders of Dumas will provide the music.

Canyon Youth Moves Up In Punt, Pass, Kick

An 11-year-old Canyon youth, who won his age group's Punt, Pass and Kick contest in Amarillo last weekend, will go to Oklahoma City Saturday to compete in district play.

The winner, Eddie Clement, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Clement of 1209 9th Ave., had advanced to the Amarillo meet, along with five other Canyon entrants, after taking first place in the local tournament held here the previous weekend.

Young Clement scored 235 points in the judging based on both distance and accuracy. This will be his second trip to the district competition, having placed second at Oklahoma City two years ago as a 9-year-old.

A younger brother, 8-year-old Ted Clement, had advanced to the Amarillo event by winning in Canyon also. He finished second with a score of 128 in the event which saw the winner score 132 points.

Other Canyon youngsters who competed in the Amarillo tournament were 9-year-old Jim Fulcher of 608 8th Ave., 10-year-old Jack Hayes of 1111 Hillcrest, 12-year-old Harold Ashley of 103 12th St., and 13-year-old Rob Haws of 1110 7th Ave.

Should Eddie Clement win in Oklahoma City, he will then advance further toward the final competition to be held in January during the annual Super Bowl game. A total of five area and regional meets must be won in order to reach the final contest.

Piano Forum Wednesday

The problems of piano teachers — ranging from inspiring young pupils to coping with stage fright in public performances — will be discussed at the 3rd annual Piano Teachers Forum Wednesday at West Texas State University.

Boosters Still Stick By Eagles

The Eagle Booster Club Monday night saw film highlights of the Canyon loss to Pampa last weekend and heard coach Ron Mills discuss the mistakes his team had made.

In speaking of the upcoming homecoming game against Palo Duro Friday night, Mills said he probably would not use Bill Moore who has been hobbled by an injury. According to the coach, he did not want to take the chance of re-injuring any player, especially in non-conference games. District play for the Eagles begins Oct. 20, in a home game against Levelland.

The coach told the estimated 20 members that failure to move the ball across the goal line despite deep penetrations had proved costly against Pampa. He also noted that the Eagle passing attack fell flat when the ball and receiver seldom arrived at the same place at the same time.

Mills told the group that goal line offensive drills and passing were being worked on in preparation for the encounter with Palo Duro.

The club meets each Monday at 7 p.m. at the First National Bank in Canyon. Visitors are invited, a spokesman said.

The program will be held from 9:30 a.m. to noon in the Fine Arts Building. A complimentary luncheon is planned for those who make reservations in advance.

Conducting the forum will be members of the WTSU piano faculty, Dr. George Eason, Cecil Lotief and Sarah Moore.

Eason's talk will focus on the works of Alexander Scriabin, Russian composer and mystic whose work, because of its exuberance and romanticism, is said to be particularly appealing to the temperament of young people.

"Scriabin, although he lived in the late 19th and early 20th centuries, was interested in combining music and color and lights together to create a spiritual experience that nowadays would be called 'psychedelic,'" Eason said.

He added that Scriabin may have been one of the first to create a "light show" for musical background when he invented an organ that projected different colors while a piece was played.

Lotief's lecture will deal with various attitudes that should be instilled in young students in regard to public performances. Among these, will be approaches toward alleviating nervousness and stagefright during performances.

Miss Moore will discuss methods of teaching beginners, with emphasis on teaching young piano students to read music.

Area Story In Photos On Display

The Panhandle Story, told in photographs by West Texas State University graduate Bill Clough of the Houston Chronicle, will be featured in an exhibition opening Saturday at the Panhandle-Plains Museum.

The show is among Homecoming activities sponsored by the WTSU Student Activities Council. The artist plans to be present for the opening reception at 10:30 a.m. until noon.

The exhibit will be on display through Oct. 20 in the museum's Little Gallery, off the North Gallery.

Clough, 31, a 1965 graduate of WTSU, came to Amarillo in 1952 from Beaumont. He launched his journalistic career with the Amarillo Citizen, where he worked for four years.

In 1964 he served as staff photographer for the Globe-News Publishing Co.

After two years in the Navy during which he toured the Far East, he returned to the Globe-News where he worked until 1969.

In 1970 he moved to Beaumont where he worked on the city's newspaper, and the next year he became a staff photographer for the Houston Chronicle.

His WTSU show will encompass 10 years of photography. In his work, he tries to capture the flavor and personality of the High Plains — its farms, rolling plains, brilliant sunsets, its harvesters and grain elevators, and most of all, its people.

CHS Band To Hold 'Spaghetti Supper'

The Canyon High School Band, in an effort to raise funds toward their band trip next year, will sponsor a spaghetti supper Friday at the high school cafeteria.

Serving will begin at 5 p.m. and end at 7 p.m.

The charge will be $1.25 for adults and 75 cents for children. This also includes the first dessert, a school spokesman said.

Cakes and pies will also be sold separately during the supper.

The meal is being prepared by the school cafeteria staff.

These three pictures and 30 others go on display Saturday morning in the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum in an exhibition of photographs by Houston Chronicle staff photographer, Bill Clough. The first photo, depicting the horse and woman, is entitled "Canyon, Texas," the second is entitled "Old Settler," and the third is entitled "Rodeo at Will Rogers Range Riders Arena."

WT Orchestra Makes Debut This Month

The West Texas State University Symphony Orchestra makes its season debut in a concert at 3 p.m. Oct. 22 in the Fine Arts Theatre on campus.

Conducting will be Michael Matesky, who makes his debut as WTSU's new orchestra director. The 28-year-old assistant professor of music also serves as cellist in the university's Faculty Trio and assistant director and principal cellist with the Amarillo Symphony.

The concert will open with Aaron Copland's "Fanfare for the Common Man," a piece written for and first performed by the Cincinnati Symphony during the 1942-43 season.

In part, Matesky says, the work's purpose was to pay tribute to the heroism of World War II soldiers and, in part, to enrich the literature for brass and percussion instruments.

The work is highlighted by huge percussion blasts, golden brass fanfares and a massive climax by the entire ensemble.

Also programmed are Bach's "Brandenburg Concerto No. 3 in G Major," one of the first works,

Matesky said, to be recorded by electronic synthesizer, and Christoph Willibald von Gluck's "Overture to Iphigenia and Aulis."

For the finale, the orchestra will perform Beethoven's "Symphony No. 1 in C Major." Matesky said, "Beethoven rewrote the book, built the orchestra, vastly influenced future composers and gave to all men music of sublime worth and beauty. Although at times, disguised in humor, the Symphony No. 1 contains it all."

Club Meets In Simon Home

The Friendship Sewing Club met recently in the home of Mrs. Tony Simon, 610 11th St., with Mrs. Nell Sheets, president, presiding. Members brought cookies for the children of the Amarillo Speech and Hearing Center.

The business meeting was called to order with those present singing the club song. It was voted to buy sheets and pillowcases for Girls Town at Whiteface. Following business, each member presented a favorite poem as part of the program.

Those present were Mmes. Nell Sheets, Leonard Winters, Joe Turpin, Herrick Simon, Clarence Winters, Lou Hermesmyer, Frank Simon, and the hostess.

The next meeting of the sewing club will be in the home of Mrs. O.E. Sherer, Rt. 2, on Oct. 19.

Buff Golfers Run Into Rain

West Texas State University's golf team ran into rain and high winds during last week's Tucker Invitational Tournament at Albuquerque and its scores climbed higher than was allowed.

The Buffaloes were among the seven teams cut after Friday's third round. Coach Vern Farquhar said four of his players teed off at 7:45 a.m. that day in heavy rain and high winds, but said the weather cleared somewhat for players who competed in the afternoon.

Jerry Boeka led the Buffalo golfers with rounds of 76, 73, and 79. Other three-round totals were John 242, Mickey Piersall 244, Dick Weston 246, Randall Burton 248, and Junior Salinas 262.

West Texas competes in two week at the Socorro, N.M., Collegiate Invitational Tournament.

U.S. Olympian To Be Here Next Thursday

One of America's Olympic swimmers and the first man to win three consecutive modern pentathlon U.S. titles will be in Canyon next Thursday.

Chuck Richards, a U.S. Army captain, just returned from the Munich Olympics where he set a new world record in the Modern Pentathlon 300-meter swim with a time of 3:21.7. He was the front member of the U.E. Modern Pentathlon Olympic team.

Richards will discuss conditioning for swimming competition and demonstrate swimming techniques at a clinic in Canyon which will be free to the public.

The clinic will be at 12:15 p.m. Thursday at the West Texas State University activities center pool. The physical education department will sponsor the clinic.

Students from Canyon High School will attend the WTSU program, which is slated to continue through 1:30 p.m.

Richards, who is representing the U.S. Army Recruiting Command, is conducting clinics throughout the Southwest.

He is currently stationed at Ft. Sam Houston, Tex.

Jowell 4-H Hears Geologist Speak

Jowell 4-H Club met in the Jowell Schoolhouse on Oct. 6 for regular business and to hear a program presented by Dr. Gerald E. Schultz of the Geology department of West Texas State University. Mrs. Raymond Henders was hostess.

James Irlbeck reported that the club had made $42 with concessions at a pig sale.

Centering his talk on the subject of fossils, Dr. Schultz explained they were the remains of organisms that had lived long ago. He said many fossils have been found in the Texas Panhandle and exhibited samples of those found here and elsewhere.

Those present included Ronda Davis, Stan and Jana Cranmer, Gary Greg and Neal Henders, James and Janie Irlbeck, Shawn and David Hall, Brenda Abbott, Rocky and Kelly McRobertes, Jay Findley, and guest, Stacie Stroup.

Prehistoric Skull Restored

Restoration of a prehistoric reptile skull, believed to be about 190 million years old, has been completed after three years of work by Dr. Gerald Schultz and paleontology students at West Texas State University.

The skull, that of a phytosaur, was discovered about five miles west of Boys Ranch on the south side of the Canadian River in Olkham County.

It was donated to the university's geology department by three Amarillo men, A.C. Moore, Jerry Cates and Eddie Collier.

The phytosaur skull, along with a sketch drawn by Mrs. Mary Frost, geology senior from Canyon, of what the ancient reptile looked like, is on public display on the first floor of the Science Building on campus.

Phytosaurs were common in the Texas Panhandle during the upper Triassic age. Such skulls are not rare, Schultz said, but this was "one of the more complete specimens."

Festive Foods Show Scheduled

The Festive Foods Program will again be sponsored by the Randall County Home Demonstration Council on Thursday, Oct. 26, it was announced by Mrs. Becky Hall, County Extension Agent.

Marilyn O'Dowd, home service advisor for Southwestern Public Service Company, will present two sessions of food demonstrations, one from 10-11:30 a.m., and one from 1:30 to 3 p.m.

All homemakers in the area are invited to attend at no charge.

Mrs. Hall, extension agent, is in Denver, Colo., this week attending the national Home Economist Association meeting.

Going somewhere? Or been? The Canyon News wants to know about it — and so do its readers.

Importance Of Using Quality Yarns

There is nothing more fierce than a woman "scorned," (goes the old saying). Unless it is a woman who knits or crochets a non-satisfactory garment because of inferior yarns.

A hand knitter (even males these days) may pay $5-$10-$15 or more for yarns which may take 40-60 hours knitting time.

The psychological impact of completing a garment and then having it look poor and perform poorly because of inferior yarns is tremendous.

That is why men and women drive many miles to stock up on yarns from Dan's 5th Ave. where quality wool and wintuck yarns are sold for less.

The most meaningful indicators of a quality yarn are elongation, recovery, bulk and resiliency. Dan's 5th Ave.

Schultz, associate professor of geology at WTSU and a vertebrate paleontologist, described the phytosaur as "a four-footed reptile that looked like the crocodile or alligator, and although it did not give rise to the alligator or crocodile, it did fill the same ecological niche."

A phytosaur had four sprawly limbs and a powerful tail, Schultz said. The nostrils were located on top of the head in front of the eyes instead of at the tip of the snout as is the case in alligators, he added.

The semi-aquatic reptiles are divided into broad and narrow skulled varieties. The WTSU specimen has been classified as having a fairly narrow skull and a slender snout. This type of phytosaur probably fed mostly on fish but small reptiles and amphibians may also have formed part of its diet, Schultz said.

During the upper Triassic age, the Panhandle had a humid to subhumid climate, he said.

"Sediments laid down during this time were continental fluvial to tidal-flat deposits spread over a broad, swampy lowland probably under conditions similar to those existing in the present Amazon River basin," Schultz said.

"Many drainage systems brought sediments to the basin, and the discontinuous and varied nature of the beds indicates the absence of widespread uniformity of deposition within the basin."

The phytosaurs were "the dominant predators and rulers in this area at the time," he said. "They were ahead of the larger dinosaurs."

These reptiles, common not only to North America, but also to Europe and Asia, grew from six to 20 feet or more in length. In North America they were found in Texas, New Mexico, Arizona and the eastern United States.

Schultz offered a possible explanation for the decline and ultimate extinction of the phytosaur.

"The alligators and crocodiles were on the rise at this time and were possibly more successful," he said. "They may have competed with the phytosaurs for the same ecological niche. The phytosaurs were crowded out by their competitors and became extinct by the end of the Triassic period."

The WTSU specimen measures about 36 inches in length, with the back of the lower jaw and the right side of the face missing.

Schultz said anyone who has a skull, tooth, or isolated bone that he would like identified, or knows of fossil localities that should be investigated should bring it to his attention.

He has carried on research on fossils of the Panhandle region for about eight years. He said he is concerned that scientifically important sites may go unreported and that important fossils may be lost or destroyed by erosion each year.

"We greatly appreciate the cooperation of hobbyists and amateurs. Many important finds have been made by them. On the other hand, some sites and specimens could be destroyed by thoughtless collectors lacking the knowledge of proper collecting techniques," Schultz said.

Dr. Gerald Schultz, West Texas State University geologist, points to a cavity in the skull of a 190-million-year-old phytosaur which once lived in the Panhandle. Mrs. Mary Frost of Amarillo and other WTSU paleontology students assisted in the restoration of the prehistoric reptile.

WT Netter Outstanding In Tourney

West Texas State's Mike Bolton was the outstanding individual in the Rocky Mountain Collegiate Invitational Tennis Tournament, which was completed in Boulder, Colorado, Saturday afternoon.

Bolton, playing the number one position for the Buffaloes, defeated New Mexico's Herman Aguirre, 7-5, 6-1, Saturday to complete a sweep of singles wins. He had beaten the Air Force Academy's Alex Parsons, 6-3, 6-

3, and John Grant of the University of Colorado, 7-5, 6-3, in matches Friday.

Bolton also teamed with Bill Marsh to go undefeated in doubles competition. Marsh, a junior college transfer, and Bolton, a senior, beat the University of New Mexico's Dick McGuire and Tim Russell, 4-6, 2-6, 6-3, Saturday.

The Buffaloes were edged, 5-4, by New Mexico and took second in the four-team meet. New Mexico finished 3-0, while West Texas was 2-1, Colorado 1-2, and Air Force Academy 0-3. "We have been looking this fall for a number one singles player and Mike (Bolton) just came to the front in this tournament," said WTSU coach David Kent.

Dale Corbin and John Phillips combined to give the Buffaloes their third victory against New Mexico by beating Aguirre, who is the state men's singles champion of New Mexico, and Peter Arndt, 6-3, 6-7, 7-5. Steve Bailey and Guy Thytherleigh scored the Buff's other win by stopping Jim Mitchell and Arnie Tylen, 6-1, 6-2.

In other singles matches the Buffaloes were beaten. Marsh fell to Arndt, 2-6, 6-2, 6-4; Phillips was beaten by McGuire, 4-6, 6-4, 6-4; Corbin lost to Mitchell, 6-4, 3-6, 6-3; Bailey fell to Russell, 6-0, 6-1; and Thytherleigh was halted by Tylen, 2-6, 6-2, 6-4.

Todd Recital Next Sunday

Violinist Donald Todd of West Texas State University will be presented in recital at 3 p.m. Oct. 15 in the fine arts auditorium on campus.

Todd, associate professor of music and violinist with the Amarillo Symphony, will perform Bach's "Partita in E Major," Beethoven's "Sonata in F Major" and Franck's "Sonata in A Major."

Accompanying Todd in the Beethoven and Franck works will be pianist Mary Jane King of Canyon.

Todd's performance credits include appearances with the Indianapolis Symphony, the Kansas City Philharmonic and the Eastern Illinois University Symphony. Now in his sixth year at WTSU, Todd has made numerous solo appearances on radio and television and with symphony orchestras.

He is a member of the Faculty Trio, a group organized in 1967 at the university for performance of chamber music. The trio has been featured in arts and civic events throughout the Panhandle.

Todd received bachelor's and master's degrees in music from Northwestern University and a doctorate in musical arts from the University of Illinois.

While a student at Northwestern, he received chamber music coaching from Charles Foidart, former violinist with the Paganini String Quartet.

Prior to coming to WTSU Todd taught at Eastern Illinois University for 10 years.

Haunted House Planned

A Haunted House, scary enough to pale the bravest spook, will be sponsored again this year beginning next week.

Canyon parents of band members will construct the house and man the operation during its 7-day run on the top floor of the old First National Bank Building on the west side of the square.

Headless ghosts, werewolves, vampires, witches and goblins are scheduled to make appearances throughout the house's short life before Halloween.

Mrs. Verona Collier and Mrs. Mary Ellen Garner are chairmen for the house.

Seven haunted rooms will be available for public inspection from 7 p.m. to about midnight each night with tickets costing only 50 cents.

Parents of band students through high school age are busy this week making costumes and decorations for the house.

The house will be open Oct. 20, 21, 26, 27, 28, 30 and 31.

The house is sponsored to help raise money for band trips this year and for any other financing the bands need.

Persons interested in helping prepare the haunted house for occupancy are asked to come to the First National Bank building at 7 p.m. Monday.

Persons with old clothing, costumes, makeup or anything else which might be used in a haunted house are asked to contact Mrs. Garner.

Amendments To Be Eyed

The 14 amendments to the Texas Constitution will be examined for the public by six West Texas State University government professors Oct. 24.

"Fourteen Constitutional Amendments: What Are They All About?" is the subject of the public meeting at 7:30 p.m. Oct. 24 in the ballroom of the Activities Center.

Travis McBride, chairman of the WTSU political science department, will moderate the discussion of the amendments.

Others who will talk about the pros and cons of the various amendments will be Dick Jackson, J. Pat Stephens, George Ritter, Fred Marsh and Walter Shelly.

Each faculty member will discuss two or three of the amendments, giving a brief outline of what the amendment means and the pros and cons of each proposal.

A department spokesman said it is not the intention of the professors to take positions on the amendments, but rather to inform the public about what the amendments mean.

The constitutional amendments appear on the November general election ballot for voter approval.

Included in the amendments are proposals which would almost double the salaries paid legislators and which would more than quadruple the salaries of the lieutenant governor and speaker of the House, which would provide four-year terms for state office holders and which would provide equal rights for residents regardless of sex.

Owners Want WT To Buy Apartments; Unfair Competition Seen

Only voters in voter precincts 9 and 10 and those in South Amarillo in Randall County will have a chance to vote on whether liquor sales will be allowed in those areas. County Commissioners called the election to decide the issue Monday. The issue will be on the November general election ballot.

Option Won't Appear On Canyon Election Ballot

The local option question will not appear on the November general election ballot in Canyon.

County Clerk LeRoy Hutton told County Commissioners Monday he did not receive any petitions calling for such election in justice precinct 1, the Canyon area.

Commissioners placed the liquor question on the November ballot for justice precinct 4, the South Amarillo area, after hearing Hutton report the petitions from that precinct had an adequate number of signatures.

Employees in Hutton's office were still checking precinct 4 petitions after noon Monday.

Deadline for submitting petitions to get the liquor question on the general election ballot was midnight Sunday.

Canyon election seekers needed 812 names to call the election here.

Hutton told commissioners 5,716 persons signed the petitions turned into his office last week and weekend. He said his employees disqualified 1,983 for various reasons including signing twice, using a signature other than the one on the registration certificate, or showing an out-of-precinct address.

Hutton certified to the commissioners that more than 3,732 signatures on the petitions were valid and then read the election order.

The proposal will go on the ballot in Randall County voter precincts 9 and 10 and all of South Amarillo within Randall County.

Hutton told commissioners he was conservative in allowing names to appear on the petitions. "If we were challenged I feel the courts would probably certify more than I did," he said.

"Did you have any problems with forgeries?" asked Commissioner Jim Fletcher.

"You never can tell," Hutton said, acknowledging that some men try to sign the petitions for their wives. These names were stricken from the petitions, he said.

Mrs. Dorothy Meehan of Amarillo appeared before the court to hear the outcome of Hutton's signature count.

When the election order was read and passed, she said, "That's the first step."

Hutton said it would be possible for petitioners in Canyon to try again on the election issue.

He noted that it would be March of 1973 before petitions could be accepted from the Umbarger area. Since an election failed several months ago in that area, the petitioners must wait 18 months before they are allowed by law to try again.

James Vinyard, a West Texas State University student and organizer of the petition drives, had been quoted as saying he will try again to reorganize in the near future.

He said he needed more than 300 signatures late Saturday.

He has been quoted as saying a lack of organization in the Canyon area caused the failure to acquire enough signatures to call the election here.

In other business Monday, commissioners eyed a plat for a 50-acre subdivision called

The owners of a 100-unit apartment house in Canyon have offered to turn the complex over to West Texas State University for use as married student and faculty housing.

Officials at the university say they are considering the proposal.

The plan ran into opposition Tuesday night from Canyon apartment house owners, who met with university officials to discuss the proposal.

No One Named To Take Slot For R. Plank

No one will be named to run on the ballot in the place of Republican Rhett Plank, who was told last week he must continue as a candidate for state representative in this district.

Tom Price III, Randall County Republican committee chairman, said Tuesday representatives of the GOP committees from Armstrong, Potter and Randall counties voted that morning not to place another name on the ballot to replace Plank.

Plank, a local attorney, withdrew from the race in early August only to discover last week that his name must stay on the ballot unless the executive committee replaces it with another name.

In a letter to County Clerk LeRoy Hutton, Secretary of State Bob Bullock said last week that Plank couldn't withdraw from the race unless a successor on the ballot were named.

Plank told The News last week, "I consider myself withdrawn. I submitted my resignation and it's been accepted. If my name is on the ballot, it will be there just through a legal operation of the law and not through my own will or that of the committee."

Plank said he will not campaign for the office, which is now held by Democrat Bryan Poff.

Due to economic difficulties, Ed Fancher and Stan Davis, two owners of Canyon Creek Apartments, a $1.2 million complex in Hunsley Hills, said they must either face foreclosure or let WTSU refinance the project with interest subsidy assistance from the federal government.

Fancher, Davis, WTSU President James Cornette, financial vice president Virgil Henson and student life vice president Paige Carruth were told by several of 10 local apartment house owners Tuesday the owners would rather face the possibility of foreclosure than of private enterprise in the apartment business.

Several apartment owners expressed disdain that the university would enter this area of competition.

Dr. Cornette said the university administration had been approached recently by the Canyon Creek Apartment owners concerning the proposal.

He said the university is currently neutral on the proposal.

Davis explained that the apartments were begun two years ago during a period of time which gave every indication the university would continue to grow and that the economy was on the upswing. He said studies indicated the apartments would be profitable.

Then, he said, just as the apartments were completed, university enrollment began to drop drastically and other economic factors came into play forcing the action.

He said the apartments became an economic burden, which the partnership owning the complex can no longer bear.

His proposal, as outlined Tuesday night, is that the apartments be given WTSU with the current owners receiving no money for their equity of $300,000.

The university would not really assume the current FHA-insured loan on the complex, a loan Davis said is costing 8 1/2 percent interest annually.

Rather, the university could (See BUY, page 5)

CHS Homecoming Begins Tonight, Ends Friday

Canyon High School homecoming activities begin today with a pep rally and traditional bonfire being held just south of the school at the south end of 10th St.

The rally will be led by cheerleaders in an effort to spur their Eagles on to victory over the Palo Duro Dons the following night.

A second pep rally will be held Friday just outside the team's dressing room at Kimbrough Memorial Stadium prior to the game. That rally is set for 7 p.m.

A "car smash" is also planned for sometime late in the afternoon or early evening.

On Friday at 2:30 p.m., an assembly will be held in the school auditorium at which time the four candidates for homecoming queen will be introduced, along with their escorts.

The four finalists chosen by the student body last week are Charlotte Tompkins, Cindy Williams, Teddi Crager and Kathy Dees, all seniors.

The queen was voted on earlier this week by the student body and the winner will be announced just prior to the Eagle-Dons game Friday night. The crowning ceremony will also take place at that time.

Immediately following the game, a social will be held in The Commons at the school.

The CHS Band is holding a fund raising supper Friday with proceeds from their "spaghetti supper" to go toward their planned band trip next year. The event will be held in the school cafeteria from 5 to 7 p.m.

Advisor Hired To Inform Students

Appointment of John W. Eder Jr., 29, as admissions advisor at West Texas State University was announced today.

A distinguished military graduate of WTSU in 1968, Eder last month resigned a commission as a captain in the Army airborne rangers after serving four years to return to the university in this newly created job.

"The purpose of the admissions advisor is to further the university's program of bringing information about West Texas State to high school and junior college students," said Dr. Kenneth M. Laycock, vice president for planning and development.

"We feel we have an outstanding and personable young man for this new position, one who is familiar with the university as a distinguished student and who will work hard to explain the institution's many academic programs and services to area students," Laycock said.

Eder will be available to visit schools to explain scholarships, financial aids, admissions requirements, housing, academic counseling and other information about West Texas State.

Further information may be obtained by writing Admissions Advisor, Box 246, W.T. Station, Canyon, Tex. 79015.

A graduate of Corpus Christi Carroll High School, Eder attended Texas A&M University and transferred to West Texas State, where he received a Bachelor of Business Administration Degree.

He was a member of Alpha Kappa Psi, national professional business fraternity, Lambda Chi Alpha, social fraternity, and Scabbard and Blade, Army ROTC honor society.

Eder, son of J. W. Eder and Mrs. W. P. Minnich, both of Corpus Christi, is married to the former Vicki Daniel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Daniel of 405 Taylor Lane, Canyon.

Air Gripes At Meeting WT Employees Now Eye Group

Harboring apparent attitudes of discontent, about 75 maintenance department employees at West Texas State University met Tuesday afternoon with the executive director of the Texas Public Employees Association.

Throughout a 1 1/2 hour session punctuated with bursts of complaints, Jim Stewart of Austin explained the TPEA program and asked the maintenance employees to join the organization so their voices would be heard.

Some interest was expressed in joining the group as employees filed from the meeting room with applications blanks in their hands.

"Philosophically speaking," Stewart said, "we're not a union. Our by-laws state that we are not to become affiliated with any union or endorse any union. We're a team."

Stewart said the TPEA by-laws prohibit strikes and what he termed "hard-core grievance procedures."

He said, though, the association encourages and backs open communication between employees and management in attempts at talking out and solving problems.

Historically, Stewart said, the TPEA was formed 27 years ago to get some recognition for state employees and then attacked a group insurance plan for members.

Recently, he said, the association has lobbied for employee benefits and other legislation affecting state employees in a non-academic status.

"In the last regular session of the legislature, we submitted another legislative program," he said. "We didn't get all we wanted but we got a pretty good sized chunk."

For example, he said, legislators, under the urging of the association, passed the largest money benefit program ever for state employees.

That package included a 6.8 percent wage increase, which was over the 5.5 percent allowed by the federal cost council.

Nevertheless, Stewart said the TPEA sued the federal government to allow state employees in certain brackets to receive the full 6.8 percent raise and won.

This year, he said, the TPEA is submitting a legislative program (See GRIPES, page 5)

Russell Scores A Win With Youthful Crowd

Bill Russell, "athlete of the decade," scored another win Tuesday night at the activities center of West Texas State University, with a talk keyed to the predominantly young audience cramming the ballroom.

Lighthearted with anecdotes and asides that brought bursts of laughter, the message was earnest—to stay off drugs, to be concerned about the nation, to care for one another. But his talk was punctuated with occasional blunt digs at President Nixon that left parts of the audience unmoved.

Casually clad in tailored denim jacket and trousers and displaying the aplomb and subtle timing of the star athlete, Russell charmed the youthful crowd into sympathetic attention for most of the evening.

"I don't give advice," he said, "but if I did, it could be summed up in two words—think and participate. To think without participating is folly, and to participate without thinking is deadening." He re-emphasized the idea at the conclusion.

The train of remarks fluctuated from the ludicrous to the serious, Harlem clichés suddenly blossoming into the king's English one would expect from the former Celtic star, now television sports commentator.

"Back in Oakland there was this cat, see, and, well, I was poor, everybody was poor, but this friend of mine, he was PO—you had to spell it with just two letters, he was so po," might run into a grave observation like, "This nation has excelled in absolutely every way except one—morality," or "I personally am opposed to the use of drugs and alcohol."

And then Russell would relieve the craning necks and tense silence with a wisecrack, exaggerated innuendo, or droll Stepanchitch doubletake. "I (See RUSSELL, page 5)

Spitting Test Due Saturday

Cash prizes totalling $50 will be awarded Saturday morning to the world championship tobacco spitters in Canyon.

A World Championship Tobacco Spitting Contest will be held by The Canyon News at 9:30 a.m. Saturday on the west side of the Canyon courthouse building in downtown Canyon.

Overall winners who top two categories will receive the cash prizes.

First place winner will receive $25, second place $15, and third (See SPITTING, page 5)

WTSU's Big Weekend Begins Tonight Here

Homecoming at West Texas State University gets underway tonight with a torch walk through campus and a bonfire and dance.

Tonight's events touch off an includes contests, beautiful girls, carnivals, reunions and finally, football.

New Mexicans Passing Team

It will be the run against the pass at 7:30 p.m. Saturday when West Texas State University's Buffaloes host the New Mexico State Aggies in Frank Kimbrough Memorial Stadium.

New Mexico State, with 6-4, 225-pound Joe Pisarcik doing the pitching, depends almost entirely upon the passing game. The Buffaloes use the pass seldom, but are strong runners out of the Wishbone-T.

West Texas will be after its second Missouri Valley Conference victory of the season, against one setback. The Aggies are 0-1 in league play.

While the Aggies will bring a 0-5 record into Saturday's game, West Texas State coach Gene Mayfield well recalls Pisarcik (See BUFFS, page 5)

today at Stafford Hall in honor of the six senior football players on this year's Buffalo team. Winding through campus, the walk will end south of the tennis courts on Spur 48 at the bonfire site.

The bonfire will be lighted at 7:30 p.m. and then from 9 p.m. to midnight, students can dance in the student union building.

For the 17 coeds vying for the title of Miss WTSU, it's been a long week.

The number remaining in the running was reduced to 10 after last Saturday's preliminary round judging but the finalists will not be known until the contest finals at 8 p.m. Friday in the activities center ballroom.

The winner of the third annual pageant will reign over the homecoming football game in her first act as official hostess for the university this year.

She will also represent WTSU at the Miss Texas Pageant in Fort Worth next summer.

Activities in the contest continue tonight, but the big day is Friday.

Homecoming really gets underway on campus Saturday when a carnival featuring clown acts, more than 40 booths operated by campus organizations and a marching combo will operate from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. between the education building, library and museum.

Activities for alumni also begin Saturday.

At a noon luncheon in the university cafeteria, Cloyce Box, Dallas businessman and chairman of the WTSU board of regents, and Dr. Ruth Lowes, retired university professor, will be honored as recipients of this year's Distinguished Alumni Awards presented by the WTSU Students Association.

Lily Tomlin, comedienne on television's Laugh-In show, will appear at 2 p.m. in the WTSU fieldhouse.

Following this, a reception for the class of 1947 will be held at 4 p.m. in the activities center. A dinner for the same class and the

FROM THE CANYON RIM

Graham Purcell is running what is known among the pros as a shotgun campaign something like that employed by Lloyd Bentsen in his campaign against Ralph Yarborough.

Bentsen hit Yarborough with a new charge every day and Ralph galloped about trying to put out fires. What time he spent campaigning was inevitably consumed in answering charges.

There's a big difference in the Purcell-Price contest.

Purcell is on the ticket with two of the most scurrilous campaigners in history. Tactics much milder resulted in a duel when Andrew Jackson was campaigning.

George McGovern last week went so far as to brand the President of the United States a "bloody murderer" and went on to say this administration is the most corrupt in history.

Regardless of how Purcell may plead ideological differences with the standard bearer, the fact remains that he has said publicly that he will vote for McGovern.

Purcell was even praised last week in a speech here by H. M. Baggarly, liberal editor of The Tulia Herald, for "doing the honorable thing and supporting McGovern."

In his campaign Purcell must run the risk of having his charges backfire. He takes a terrible chance of being likened to McGovern and Shriver, whose entire campaign seems to be built on invective.

Price is in the position of not having to do much to refute Purcell charges and so far he hasn't personally said much about them.

One of the latest Purcell accusations is that Price delayed the progress of a meat packing plant planned for Dumas.

Dick Reavis, president of the Dumas Chamber of Commerce and editor of The Moore County News, repeatedly denied this allegation.

Reavis from twin vantage points atop the newspaper and Dumas Chamber probably knows as much about what's going on there as anyone.

A Purcell aide Monday said Millard Neptune, an Economic Development Administration official, was prejudiced because he is a Republican appointee. Neptune likewise had denied the Purcell charge.

In fairness, it must be pointed out that Dick Reavis is not even a Republican. Having known Reavis for years as a sometimes less than conservative Democrat I was astounded to learn that he was in the Price corner after having given at least lip service support to Dick Brown when Brown challenged Price in 1968.

Reavis said this is the first time he has supported a Republican for national office in 20 years.

"I have nothing against Purcell," Reavis declared when I called him this week. "Price has done a good working job as congressman and has been receptive to the district's needs. He helped us in every way possible while we were working for the packing plant here."

A Purcell aide said the Democratic candidate will have more to say on the Dumas meat packing plant in the future.

***

In the meantime, Price seems to be pulling ahead here in Randall County. At least that's what the people to whom I talk indicate.

Purcell is saddled with the McGovern ticket which is becoming more unpalatable to voters in this area by the day.

He has little choice but to attack, attack and attack again. Some years and under certain conditions it will work as it did for Lloyd Bentsen but this year it is likely to blend into the national Democratic campaign din which has lost rather than gained strength for George McGovern and his running mate.

Voters may turn in disgust from the entire Democratic ticket as they turned from the incumbents in the May primaries in Texas.

If this happens, it might even result in the election to the state legislature of Rhett Plank, Republican candidate who tried to get off the ballot but was forced to remain by Democratic Secretary of State Bob Bullock.

***

As I mentioned earlier, H. M. Baggarly spoke here last week. I used to think H. M. was more of a teacher than a newspaperman. Now I'm beginning to doubt him on both counts.

The Tulia editor said the Republican Party was founded by Alexander Hamilton. Actually, Hamilton was a Federalist and the Republican party was not born until 1854, decades after Hamilton was killed in a duel with Aaron Burr. Baggarly said only the Democrats led by Thomas Jefferson were interested in human rights and fostered the bill of rights being incorporated into the Constitution. According to him Republicans have been more interested in property than people.

If Baggarly would crack an American history book a tiny bit he would know that many if not most of Jefferson's associates along with Jefferson himself were slave holders.

It was Lincoln the man of the people and first Republican President of the United States who preserved the Union and freed the slaves.

The Democratic Party of today little resembles the Democratic Party founded by Jefferson and of which Baggarly purports to be so proud.

It stood for states rights and a weak central government.

Since election of Franklin Roosevelt in 1932 this role has just about been reversed.

If the likes of George McGovern, Sargent Shriver or Teddy Kennedy had shown up at Monticello, Thomas Jefferson undoubtedly would have set the dogs on them.

Canyon Schools Making Self-Evaluation Study

The administrative staff and faculty of the Canyon Independent School District have launched a two-year self-evaluation study in which they will be appraising the facilities and procedure of the local schools.

According to Curriculum Coordinator Ruth Holladay, speaking for Supt. Jerry Jacobs, the self-evaluation is a procedure required for continued accreditation in the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, and it was recommended by the Joint Professional Communications Committee of the Canyon Classroom Teacher Assn.

The last evaluation of the Canyon school system was made in 1963-64, and, at that time, Canyon was given full accreditation by the association. It is the only fully accredited school system in the Panhandle and one of only two in the state which has full approval at all levels.

A steering committee of faculty and administrative personnel, under the chairmanship of Herman Demus, will direct the study. Members of the committee are Libby Read, Guyda Webb, Suzella Parsons, Luther Lawless, Vondean McGregor, Denny Park, Dave Corley,

Two students begin moving furniture into the Haunted House which will occupy the third floor of the old First National Bank building on the square in Canyon beginning next week. The house, which will feature ghosts, goblins and werewolves, is sponsored by the parents of Canyon band students in an effort to raise money for future band trips.

Leonard Kent, Charlotte Brantley and Mrs. Holladay.

Ex-officio members of the committee are Bob Parks, John Sommer, Hazel Strickland and Jacobs.

Dr. Bascom Hayes of the University of Texas and Dr. Kenneth Laycock of West Texas State University are serving as professional consultants throughout the study.

Initial work is now being done by two major committees: School and Community, and Philosophy and Objectives. The first committee will analyze the socio-economic situation in which Canyon schools operate and will evaluate the relations between the two. The second committee, considering the opinions of faculty, administration, patrons and students, will formulate a statement which will express the local consensus as to the relevance and significance of current educational practices and will state specific objectives which the local school would hope to accomplish.

Present plans call for completion of work by those committees in November of this year.

During the school year, classes may experience early dismissals in order to allow faculty and administration members to meet and work on the program.

Upon the completion of the committee studies in November, curriculum committees and subcommittees will begin study of subject matter, teaching qualifications and facilities of each department and grade level. Other committees will be evaluating student activities, the educational media available, guidance services, school facilities and school staff and administration.

Those studies will continue throughout the winter and tentative committee reports will be submitted in April of 1973. During the 1973-74 school year, those reports will be finalized and a summary of the self-evaluation will be compiled. In April, as a climax to the study, a visiting team of more than 40 educators from the Panhandle area will spend two days in the local schools, making their evaluations. A final, conclusive report of the local schools will give commendations and recommendations.

Concerning the self-evaluation program, Supt. Jacobs said, "Our staff will learn wherein we excel and the points at which we need to improve our teaching program. This grass-roots study will enable us to project our planning to make possible better education for the children and young people of Canyon."

Kids Inc., Teams Win 1, Lose 1

Two Canyon Kids Inc. teams were active last weekend and turned in one win and one loss.

Playing a home game Sunday afternoon, the Canyon Headhunters won out over Avondale by a score of 8-0.

The game's lone touchdown came on a seven-yard run by Eddie Clement. The two-point conversion followed on a pass from Charlie Childs to Chuck Perry.

One drive by Avondale was throttled when Stan "Super" Sanders of the Headhunters intercepted a pass.

The Headhunters meet Belmar at Austin Junior High in Amarillo on Oct. 17, in a game that will decide the league championship. Time of the Tuesday game is 6:30 p.m.

The Purple People Eaters dropped a 14-0 decision to Coronado at Southlawn despite another good defensive effort. Coach Wayne Williams said the defensive team did "real well" with outstanding performances being turned in by Bruce Byrd, Jeff McKay, Doug Davis and Jack Hayes.

Byrd, who intercepted a pass late in the game and returned it some 35 to 40 yards, was named the outstanding player of the game.

Williams said Coronado was the strongest team he had faced this year and that the Purple People Eaters had played an exceptionally good game.

Student Voters Could Be Taxed

Students who registered to vote in Randall County have, in effect, declared themselves residents of the county and are subject to paying taxes here.

That's the opinion of Dist. Atty. George Dowlen as he commented on last week's ruling concerning student voter registrations.

Federal District Judge William Wayne Justice ruled earlier this month that a portion of the state election code which had previously required students declare in writing their intent to remain in the county where they attended school before they could register, was unconstitutional.

Dowlen said that by registering to vote in Randall County, students have established a residence here and could be required to pay taxes here.

As a practical matter, Dowlen said most students would be liable to pay taxes only on cars or furniture since most don't own property in the county.

Dowlen said although the federal judge's opinion struck down the requirement that students sign an affidavit of their intent to remain in the county and even the requirement that they be asked of their intent, the mere signing of the registration form is an expression of intent.

But, he said, it appears students could not be held legally responsible for that statement of intent, since they could change their minds and intentions at any time.

City and School tax assessor-collector Conway Kuykendall is unconcerned. He says if students' cars are not registered in Randall County it would be difficult to tax them, anyway.

New Chairman Heads Council

Dr. Jerry D. Miller, associate professor of business, is the new chairman of the West Texas State University Faculty Council.

He succeeds Dr. Ronald G. Huffstutler, professor of mathematics, who has served the maximum two-year terms.

Dr. J. Pat Stephens, associate professor of government, was named secretary at the council's organizational meeting this week.

The council is composed of instructional faculty members from each of the five colleges and schools. They are elected for two-year terms.

Other council members are Dr. Jimmie L. Green, head of the plant science department in the School of Agriculture; Peter L. Petersen, assistant professor of history; Dr. Jack Bullock, associate professor of mathematics; Dr. David A. LaBrie, assistant professor of biology; J. Stuart Lawrence, assistant professor of business; Allene Stovall, assistant professor of physical education; Dr. Eugene F. Buckley Jr., assistant professor of education; Dr. Wendell Cain, professor of speech; and Elsa Porter, assistant professor of music.

The purpose of the council is to serve as a channel of communication between the university administration and the instructional faculty on matters of faculty concern.

Sheriff's Posse Plans Playday

The Randall County Sheriff's Posse is sponsoring an open playday Sunday, October 15. Registration begins at 1:00 p.m. and games start at 1:30 p.m. Admission is 35 cents per game. Ribbons will be given to the top five winners in each event. All area horseback riders of all ages are invited to participate for an afternoon of fun.

The arena is located two miles south and one mile west of Canyon.

Donald L. Robertson of Canyon will be one of four persons honored tonight for 10 years of service with Colorado Interstate Corporation.
Robertson will be honored during the company's annual service award dinner for long-time employees in Amarillo.

Carnival Set For Oct. 30

Six local associations have laid plans to set up booths at the annual Halloween Carnival in the Junior Livestock Bull Barn in Canyon on the evening of Oct. 31. Alpha Delta Phi Alumni will sponsor a cake walk, Canyon Dames will host a nickel toss, Scabbard and Blade will sponsor a ring toss, Heritage Club will have a toy walk, the Lions Club will sponsor bingo, the University Study Club will have a nail hammering booth and Southside Baptist Church will sell peanuts, popcorn and candy. The event will be from 6 to 10 p.m. in the bullbarn in north Canyon.

Clubs are urged to sponsor a candidate for Halloween Queen. All candidates must be Canyon High School students.
Mrs. Jim Brown is chairman of the carnival.

The memory of Frank Kimbrough, who devoted 44 years to athletics, will be permanently preserved Saturday night just before the homecoming game between the Buffs and New Mexico State University.

In a ceremony on the football field, the university stadium will be formally dedicated in his honor.

Kimbrough, who spent 24 years at WTSU as coach and athletic director, died in February 1971.

Dr. James P. Cornette, university president, will officiate at the ceremony during which a plaque will be presented Mrs. Frank Kimbrough by Don Patterson of Amarillo, president of the T-Lettermen's Club. The plaque is given by the WTSU Ex-Students Association.

The university will erect a bronze memorial to Kimbrough on the hill at the south end of the stadium.

The university board of regents is expected to participate in the ceremony.

But, if elected, Plank said "I wouldn't have much choice—I'd feel obligated to serve."

Russell . . .

ain't supposed to be smart, you know. After all, I went to college on a scholarship."

Russell attacked the appeal of drugs, marijuana and harder, by suggesting alternates.

"You know I like to get high, too. . . I get high on people—people are a gas. . . The single, most exhilarating feeling in this world is to be with someone you love. Just try that, man."

The retired warrior of the basketball court said that someone had once looked him up and down and asked him if he was a basketball player, and he had responded, "No, I am a man who plays basketball." He explained that everyone is a man first of all, and to deny him this is to deny him his humanity.

Enlarging on the topic, Russell expressed his disapproval of the once common practice of colleges and universities signing black athletes with no concern for their education. "I don't think anybody ought to invite a student to a campus where they do not expect him to fully participate in campus life—social, academic, athletic, or political."

A few sentences on, he commented, "Athletes are, in this country, looked upon like pretty girls. No one listens to him or cares what he thinks as long calling for another 13.9 per cent increase.

"You're not going to win this kind of thing as individuals," he said. "It takes a team effort and a lot of cooperative unity from throughout the state."

Stewart said the "name of the game is politics," in trying to obtain better benefits for state employees.

Currently, he said, Texas is 35th in a ranking of all states in pay for state employees.

He said the association's 34,

as he looks good. For this reason, most athletes are somewhat underdeveloped personality wise."

Russell looked back on his career with satisfaction. "In playing basketball, I discovered men of diverse background can work together. Respect is the key word—and self-respect is the most important. You can't respect anyone else if you don't respect yourself."

But the reknown sports figure said he quit coaching the Celtics, even though he had a contract guaranteeing him seven more years, because he was tired of the game.

He recalled that after Emerson Boozier was signed on by the Baltimore Bullets, they beat the Celtics three games by a margin each time of around 30 points. Russell said he felt his team had practically quit, and decided in the next bout with the Bullets he would rally spirits with a "kill-em" kind of pep talk. In the last two minutes of the game, the score was tied so the Celtics called a time out for Russell to sound the "kill-em" command again.

"Suddenly I began thinking. What am I doing here, semi-nude in front of 25,000 people, about to kill over a simple basketball score? I began laughing—and I knew then I had to quit."

In a political vein, Russell said he opposed Nixon because he had "a definite feeling he doesn't like black people and he doesn't like poor people. . . If you don't like me, that's all right—but I'm not going to do anything for you." During the question period, Russell said he would vote for McGovern, even though he was "not enthusiastic" about him.

Nevertheless, patriotism struck a bold note in Russell's speech. "As I go about this country, I'm looking for patriots. I happen to think this is a great country. I'm looking for citizens who care enough about this country to make it do what it has to do."

During the question period, Russell stated he would like to see the politics taken out of the Olympics by having one Olympic uniform for all athletes of every nation and holding the Olympics on an island somewhere, the same location every four years.

At the close of his monologue, Russell repeated his reminder of brotherhood. "Remember this country is you. . . and me. We're all here together. When something happens to you. . . it happens to me. And what happens to you. . . happens to me." The audience stood and applauded.

negotiate with FHA and the Department of Housing and Urban Development for an interest subsidy which would allow only 3 per cent interest annually on the $1.2 million.

Henson said the university could sell bonds for the amount.

If the university does not accept the property, Davis said, the owners would be forced to foreclose, an act he intimated would have far-reaching and dire effects on future FHA lending in the area.

"Rather than dump this on the market or sell it to the lowest bidder, we set this way to smoothly transfer ownership without affecting the local economy or any of the adverse publicity there'd be with a foreclosure sale," Davis said. "We are looking for a way to not ditch the local economy and benefit the college."

Davis said he feels the college would benefit greatly from the apartments.

He said under HUD rules, the university could use the property only for students or faculty members.

Stressing the advantage of having such a facility for married students and to attract faculty, Davis said he believes that the transfer would only enhance the university.

Dr. Cornette and Henson said WTSU is one of the few, if not the only, college in the country which doesn't already own apartment house complexes within the city.

"We're probably the only one that doesn't have apartment houses," Henson said.

A check Wednesday by Assistant Dean of Student Life David Nail at Texas Tech University revealed that school owns no apartment houses for married students or faculty either.

Dr. Carruth said in many cases it has become necessary for universities to provide married student housing because apartment house owners in many college towns have jacked up prices to unaffordable levels.

He stressed this has not been the case in Canyon.

The apartment house owners present Tuesday night were basically concerned with two things: the rents the university would charge and the taxes which would be lost if the apartment house became university property.

"It has to make ends meet and there must be a sure override in it," Henson said.

Although Henson would never say what kind of profit margin he would expect to make on the rentals, he stressed that the apartments would have to operate in the black and would hopefully provide enough money to undergird other programs on campus.

Dr. Cornette voiced the same opinion.

"We're having problems right now," said Bill Davis, local realtor, "and in my eyes it would be foolish to get in a deal where it would have to be that full. Either way you go it's probably going to hurt us."

"The university might lower their apartments to like $100 or lower and they'd have a new apartment building and they'd probably rent theirs before we rented ours. Either way it looks like we're damned if we do and damned if we don't."

Davis was reacting to statements by Stan Davis that if the current owners are forced to foreclose, the FHA would probably sell the apartments for about $700,000, an amount which would allow the future owner to lower rents to a more competitive level anyway.

"I hate to see the university go into this competition with us," Bill Davis said.

Also of concern to the apartment owners was the amount of tax money which would be lost if the Canyon Creek complex reverted to the university.

Charles Gerald said he checked with the school and city tax office and found that the apartments currently bring about $17,000 in taxes into the coffers.

Apartment owner Alvin Kuhlman expressed dismay at the thought that the university, financing with only 3 per cent interest and paying no taxes, could offer their apartments at such a probable low rate.

"We're in business to make a profit," Bill Davis said. "I hate to see another situation taken over in this manner where you can operate at a break-even point I'd rather take the risk of letting it go back to FHA."

Owner Wayland Angel expressed some apprehension.

"It's hard to compete with an agency that has no taxes and a take-off on interest," he said. "It isn't fair."

University officials said they would continue to eye the proposal.

Before anything firm can be done, though, the university board of regents must pass on the plan.

Canyon Creek Apartments were begun about two years ago. Open house for the apartments was in the fall of 1971.

Buff. . .

throwing five touchdown passes against his Buffaloes in last year's 50-24 Aggie victory in Las Cruces, N.M.

West Texas State is 2-2 for the season, losing to Drake in an opening season conference game and last week to Southern Mississippi. The Buffaloes defeated Colorado State in a game which counted on the conference standings and halted then unbeaten Lamar University.

Pisarcik has completed 83 of 185 passes for 949 yards and five scores this season, while suffering 10 interceptions. Split end Hank Cook, who has only one eye, is one of the nation's leaders in receptions with 26 for 383 yards. Flanker Scooter Warren has caught 14 passes for 142 yards.

The Buffaloes leading passer, Mike Wartes, has hit on only nine of 34 passes for 174 yards.

West Texas depends upon its three running backs for yardage. Sophomore Cole Fraley leads the Buffalo ground game with 293 yards. Billy Pritchett, who gained All-Missouri Valley honors last year as a sophomore, has 261 rushing yards. Jimmy Lisle, another sophomore, has 248 rushing yards.

The Aggies' leading rusher is Reggie Gray, who has 144 yards on 51 carries. The starting fullback will probably be Jack Collins, who has 78 yards in 29 carries. Collins is the son of former Buffalo Ben Collins, who is the second leading scorer for a career in West Texas State's history. The senior Collins tallied 221 points in three years with the Buffs. He led the nation in scoring in 1941 with 132 points.

New Mexico State is the oldest current rival of the Buffaloes in football. The Buffaloes hold a 17-7-1 advantage in the series, which started in 1941 with a 51-0 West Texas State win.

Five times in past years the teams have met in a West Texas State homecoming game and the Buffaloes have won four of them.

For the second straight week, the Buffaloes will be facing an outstanding punter. The Buffaloes met the nation's leader, Ray Guy, in last Saturday's game with Southern Mississippi. Mike Stephens took over the punting job for the Aggies last week against SMU and kicked for a 42.5-yard average in eight punts.

Eagles In Homecoming Tiff With Palo Duro

Friday night's homecoming battle at Kimbrough Memorial Stadium between the Canyon Eagles and Amarillo's Palo Duro Dons will be played without the services of key players from both teams, the coaches said this week.

Palo Duro mentor Doug James said he would be trying to bounce back from a loss last week and would have to do it without three starting players. He listed right tackle Jack Galbraith, defensive right tackle Baron Tillman and fullback Mike Smith as injured and not ready for duty.

Coach Ron Mills of the Eagles said he would be operating without standout back Bill Moore, split end Roger Burton, tailback Gary Bednorz and wingback Kenny Barton. Two other players have been placed on the "doubtful" list, Mills said.

According to coach James, he is expecting a good game from the Eagles, a team he described as "getting better every week." He said he expected to see the Eagles do "a bit of everything" against the Dons, especially through the air.

James said he felt Canyon had done an outstanding job against 4-A opponents this year and should readily prove themselves in 3-A district competition to begin next week against Levelland.

Coach Mills, in citing his team's four losses to 4-A teams, said he would be glad to begin district play.

The Eagle coach said this week that he was shooting for good, sound football in the Palo Duro game. Because of deep penetrations against Hereford and Pampa falling short of the goal line, the Eagles have worked on goal line offense, said Mills.

Of the string of losses this year, Mills said, "It's mostly us. Making mistakes. We haven't been whipped physically."

The Dons, called "big, strong, fast and experienced" by Mills, will be hitting from the "I" formation quarterbacked by Mark Hall. His favorite receivers are Dennis Watson, Willie Nash and David Jackson. The Don ground attack will be led by fleet tailback James Tipton, said James. The coach said he hoped to be able to mix the passing and running plays.

Coach Mills also said his charges had worked on passing as a result of their inability to hit receivers in the loss to Pampa. "And we may have to move some men around because of the injuries," he added.

Contestants will be judged on distance in one category and accuracy in another. Point totals will be tallied from each category to name the overall champs.

Contestants may use any brand tobacco with tobacco used to be furnished by the contestants. No age groupings will be established for the competition.

The spitting contest is the second in a series of competitions to be sponsored by The Canyon News to boost community spirit and attract business.

Registration Hits 29,000

Almost 30,000 persons have registered to vote in Randall County.

Mrs. Audrey Bruse, tax assessor-collector, said registration ended Saturday with between 28,000 and 29,000 persons registering here.

The county's two tax offices—the one in Amarillo and one in Canyon—were crowded throughout the morning Saturday as residents waited to the last minute to register.

Mrs. Bruse reported about 400 persons registered Friday and about 400 Saturday in both the South Amarillo and Canyon offices.

Registrations in the county set a record weeks ago, when the number passed the 22,633 mark established in 1968.

Capers Dance At WT Center

Canyon Capers danced at the WTSU Activities Center on Monday, Oct. 9, with four squares. Visitors from Teen-Twirlers and Pistols and Petticoats joined in.

Audrey Brown called in the absence of the regular caller.

Lessons are open for one more week. The next dance will be Oct. 16 at 8 p.m. in the Activities Center. All persons are welcome.

Lutheran Church Will Celebrate Mission Festival

St. Paul Lutheran Church is celebrating their annual Mission Festival this Sunday, October 15 at the 11:00 and at a special service at 3:00 in the afternoon. A potluck lunch will be served immediately after the morning service.

Rev. Walter Ellwanger, pastor of Christ Lutheran Church, Tulsa, and formerly president of Alabama Lutheran Academy and College, Selma, Alabama, a predominantly black school, will be the preacher at both services.

Pastor Ellwanger, a man in his seventies, has also served in an inter-city congregation and has broken a great deal of ground in the area of Christian ministry to and attitudes toward blacks long before it became a respectable thing. There are many black Lutherans in the full-time ministry of the Church because of his influence.

St. Paul invites the members of the Canyon community to its celebration.

Football Teams Score Wins

BY TROYCE MULHERIN
GREETINGS:
THE WESLEY BROMLEY family wishes to express a heartfelt thank you to all who administered to them in their time of sorrow in the loss of their loved one, Billy.

The Bromleys take this opportunity to extend special appreciation to all who served and helped in the Bromley home in any way. The floral offerings were so beautiful and greatly appreciated. The Bromleys hold dear the memories of the many kindnesses and considerations shown to them.

FOOTBALL SCOREBOARD: SIXTH grade team coached by Dick Balke and Leonard Schmidt won over Whittier last Sunday afternoon with a score of 13-7. The Minier brothers coached their fourth grade boys to a 6-0 win over Eastridge. The mixed fifth and sixth grade team coached by Ricky Smith lost to Claude 6-0. Absolutely nobody wins 'em all, and we will all be rooting for all these boys next game. Now is the time perhaps to comment on the excellent support the parents give these youngsters at the games. Always good attendance and good moral support given the coaches and the boys.

JOHN HICKS, SON of Johnny and Phyllis Hicks, is not a bit bashful about telling his age. In fact, he is quite pleased to be approaching the Big Six on the 15th. A happy sixth birthday to you, John.

LISA ERWIN, DAUGHTER of Billie and Harold Erwin, celebrated her becoming twelve years of age Friday night in a big way. Traci Bufkin, Cindy Todd, Janice Delaney, Linda Foster, Donita Hall and Kendra Wallis joined in the fun time. Lisa treated her friends and herself to the production of Disney on Parade. Then back home for birthday party-making and topping off the evening with a slumber party. Very little slumbering and absolutely no sleeping was the rule of the day. Happy on this one, Lisa, and many more.

DO NOT, REPEAT, do not purchase any lightbulbs until after October 16. Why? Because, after that date youngsters in the Kids, Inc., program will be conducting their annual lightbulb sale. Kids, Inc. youngsters and their parents are invited to meet on October 16, at Robert E. Lee

School at 7:30 to go over the details of the sale. Bulbs will be issued that night and the youngsters will be knocking on your doors the following day. The proceeds from the lightbulb sale help to keep the necessary Kids, Inc. fees to a minimum. Not only that, but prizes to the youngsters selling the most bulbs include a trip to Dallas on Thanksgiving Day. Other prizes include things like bicycles, watches, radios, along with hundreds more. So, if any your bulbs go between now and then, drag out the candles or the flashlights, cause that sight-saving knock will be heard on your door about the 17th.

THE DOUG FORD family has been partying like mad recently. Birthday partying, that is. The most recent member of the family to celebrate is Mark, who observes on the 13th of this month. Many happyes to you, Mark.

THE CANYON BAND Parents Club is sponsoring a Spaghetti Supper to be held on October 13. The goodies will be consumed in the cafeteria at Canyon High School between the hours of five and seven o'clock. For a modest $1.25 for adults and $.75 charge for students, empty tummies will be appeased with a big dish of spaghetti, salad, tea and dessert. A $5.00 prize will be given to one student from each band selling the most tickets in dollar amount. The Gene Howe band, Rex Reeves band and the junior high and high school bands are all included in the ticket sales and contest. The proceeds from the supper will go into the general fund. Mrs. Sue Rittenbury is chairman for the spaghetti supper, and, Mrs. Dudley Moore and Sherrie Cates are responsible for the decorations and publicity. Come on and treat yourselves to dinner out. You'll enjoy the evening even more in the knowledge that you're helping the ol' band fund out, too. Good food, good company, good cause.

PICK EITHER ONE or more of the following nights, October 20, 21, 26, 27, 28, 30 or 31, and mark same for your calendar of important things to do. Spend the time between now and then preparing yourselves and your youngsters for a scary but fun evening in observance of Halloween. Ghouls, vampires and werewolves—What do they really eat?—Ever wondered? Go visit the Haunted House on one of the above dates—perhaps you'll find out. If you can stay around long enough, that is. More details on this spookish subject later.

TERRY RUDD, SON of Mr. and Mrs. B.L. Rudd, took his twelve swats (or smacks, as the case may be) like a man on his birthday on the 6th. Melissa Dyson, Janice Delaney, Traci Bufkin, Lisa Erwin, Cindy Todd, Billy Cunningham, Kyle Balke, Steve Schmidt, Robin Stidger, and Terry Tension helped Terry celebrate with a bowling party. Cindy outbowed them all, with a total final score of 113. This group represents a lot of energy, as they topped off the fun with a tag football game at Sam Houston park.

KEEP THOSE CARDS and letters and phone calls coming in, folks.

Xi Kappa Zeta Lists Donations To Pageant

At the regular meeting of Xi Kappa Zeta of Beta Sigma Phi held Tuesday, Oct. 3, at the Girl Scout house, further plans for the Little Miss Canyon Pageant were presented by Virginia Rossiter, chairman.

Miss Rossiter reported on prize donations by Canyon merchants and businessmen for pageant winners. Three $50 bonds, the first prizes, have been donated by Cooper's Market, Southwestern Public Service Co., and Parker Cattle Co. The second prizes, three $25 bonds, were donated by Kremer Kone Drive In, the Tweedle-Dee Children's Shop, and Marie's Beauty Salon.

The chairman, Miss Rossiter, also announced that crowns for the three winners were being donated by Gibson's, and bracelets for runners-up were being given by LaGrone's. Courtesies for judges are being donated by Irwin Greenhouse. Woody Pond, Miss Rossiter also revealed, would preside as master of ceremonies in the role of "Old King Cole," in keeping with the theme of "Little Miss Canyon in Mother Goose Land."

Entertainment during the pageant will be provided by Mrs. Donna Wilson, who will present a girls' choir consisting of fourth, fifth, and sixth grade girls. Miss Cheryl Bellah will play piano accompaniment.

According to Miss Rossiter, a photographer would be present to take pictures of the contestants.

Tickets for the Little Miss Canyon Pageant on Saturday, Oct. 21, at 7 p.m. in the Canyon High School auditorium, may be purchased from any Xi Kappa Zeta member at the door. Adult tickets are $1.00 and children's tickets are 50 cents.

Following discussions of the pageant, Miss Rossiter presented a program on "The End of Life," and served refreshments as hostess for the meeting. One guest, Mrs. Rosetta Baer, of Dumas, was present.

Survey To Eye Educations

A monthly survey in this area on employment and unemployment will include this month questions on school enrollment and college or professional degrees received in the past year, the Bureau of Census announced this week.

A sample of households in this area, part of the 50,000 national sample representing a cross section of all households, will be interviewed next week.

The labor force information, collected for the U.S. Department of Labor, provides a continuing measure of the economic health of the country.

The August survey indicated there were 86.9 million employed, up from 86.5 million in July.

Tidbits

By CAROL CRAIN
A SPAGHETTI SUPPER is being sponsored by the CHS Band Friday night preceding the CHS Homecoming game.

The meal, served in the high school cafeteria, includes the spaghetti, sauce, salad, choice of homemade pie or cake, and drink.

Tickets for the yummy dinner are only 75 cents for children and $1.75 for adults. And, you will be supporting one of the state's finest bands.

WTSU HOMECOMING is also this weekend with the Miss WTSU Pageant at 7:30 p.m. Friday. Saturday is the all-day carnival, registration of exes that morning at the carnival area, and fun-for-all.

THE DISTINGUISHED ALUMNI BANQUET is slated for noon at the lovely WTSU cafeteria—tickets are $5.00.

LAUGH-IN's Lily Tomlin will entertain the audience at the fieldhouse at 2 p.m. The football game with New Mexico State has a 7:30 p.m. kick-off time.

THERE'S SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE THIS WEEKEND!

BRENNAN'S in Dallas is noted for their delicious cuisine and "Breakfast at Brennan's" is a very special treat.

A notice in a recent issue of the Dallas Morning News invites you to dine at Brennan's for lunch and have either one of two cocktails for 25 cents. . . . just in case you might be going to Dallas in the near future.

WHY DOESN'T SOMEONE SPONSOR a Benefit Game Party for our community? The arts and garden department of Dallas Woman's Forum is giving one this season to benefit the department's special projects this year.

Bridge, canasta and other games will be played. Prizes will be awarded and luncheon served at the Big D event.

An evening of bridge and other games could easily be set-up at the community center here, with possibly a Mexican buffet or other meal. Sounds like fun!

THE LEMON DROP, a new tiny shop on the square, will be opening soon, I understand. The word is that some darling goodies will be available for sale and that many are consignment items from some very talented people.

A WORD OF THANKS TO THE First National Bank for their ad giving the Calendar of Events last week. It really comes in handy if you cut it out—that way you may plan your activities early in the month. (I hope this will be regular feature).

SORORITY CHAPTERS USUALLY SCHEDULE COFFEE for their alumnae the morning of Homecoming, so check with yours for individual times. Don't miss any of the numerous activities.

Bird Series Continues

The second in a series of illustrated lectures on birds in the Panhandle was held at 4 p.m. Wednesday in the west wing of the main library at the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum.

The series was presented by Dr. Charles G. Smith, assistant professor of biology and ornithologist at West Texas State University.

Five lectures make up the series.

Wednesday afternoon, Dr. Smith presented a lecture on the history and biology of vultures as well as game birds and some song birds.

Mrs. Sherri Cates and Mrs. Betty Stokes show some of the crafts which can be produced by Cub Scouts under guidance from den mothers. Eight den mothers underwent leadership training early this week at the First Methodist Church.

Mothers Become Scouts

Eight Canyon women became Cub Scouts Tuesday.

The women, all den mothers or prospective den mothers, attended a two-day Cub Scouting workshop, the first held in Canyon in more than three years, at the First Methodist Church, and placed themselves in their charges' places Tuesday afternoon as they attended a mock den meeting.

Scouting itself, arts, crafts, hobbies, stunts, skits and other activities were presented the den mothers in preparation for their duties with between 8 and 10

Scouts.

Mrs. Sherrie Cates, den leader coach for Pack 130 in the Gene Howe area, was primary instructor in the workshop and she voiced her concern for the Scouting program in Canyon.

She said only eight of 24 possible den mothers attended the early week workshop, and she pointed to the fact that fewer and fewer mothers are becoming involved in scouting.

"We have a roundup every fall and spring," she said. "We had a good roundup this year with lots of boys, but not enough den mothers. So, we had to put too many boys in a den."

She said many prospective den mothers have apparently valid excuses for not becoming involved.

"They work or they have small children or they're involved in other ways," she said. "But, the den mothers we have now also have small children and some of them even go to school."

Not every mother can be a den mother, Mrs. Cates said.

"It takes a special kind of person to be a den mother," she said. "They have to not only like children, they have to like their own child."

To Mrs. Cates, den mothers are important to the boys who are in Scouting. And, Scouting is important to the boys, too.

She sees Scouting as teaching young men "to grow into honest, trustworthy men with a love for God and country."

But, to instill Scouting spirit into Canyon's Cubs, she says leaders are needed.

"We're short den mothers in all the packs," she said. "And, we're short men as Webelos leaders. The boys need help badly at the den, pack, troop and district level."

Mrs. Cates has been a den mother and had held various other jobs in Cub Scouting for 10 years. She was recently presented the Silver Fawn award through her pack. The Silver Fawn is the equivalent of the Silver Beaver.

Throughout those 10 years, she feels she's accomplished quite a bit for the Scouts.

And, she cherishes "the pleasure and joy of seeing boys steered the right way."

"I feel it's the most important thing in the world to work with young people to see that they have guidance," she said. "Parents can't do it by themselves. They've got to have the church and schools and other things."

Another workshop for den mothers will be held Saturday at Southwestern Public Service Co. in Amarillo. The shop will be from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Counselling Helpers Sought

A steering committee to begin a counselling service in Canyon is being organized.

The Rev. Baldwin Stribling, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, met with Mitch Jones, retired West Texas State University professor, Mrs. John Childs and County Judge Woody Pond Monday to continue discussions on providing a volunteer and free counselling service here.

The Rev. Mr. Stribling told the three he believes a definite need exists for the service here.

"The middle class is not getting this kind of service because they're working at the end of their rope," he said.

The minister stressed the need for competent professionals who would volunteer two hours of their time each week to counsel.

But, before professionals are needed, he said, enthusiastic and energetic people are needed to help organize the service in Canyon.

"I know it will work if we have the right kind of organization," Jones said.

The meeting broke up Monday with those present vowing to find other local residents interested in forming the service and devoting time to organizing it.

Group Ok's Resolutions

Nine resolutions, several of which originated in Randall County, were included in a package passed last week by the Texas County Judges and Commissioners Association in Fort Worth.

County Judge Woody Pond and Commissioner Glen Dowlen returned from the meeting Sunday and Pond said 25 resolutions were passed, including one which strongly opposes recommendations to change the Texas court structure.

Several changes in the state's court structure, including the elimination of justice of the peace courts and the requirement that all county judges be attorneys, were proposed by the state supreme court Chief Justice's Task Force for Court Improvement.

Four resolutions adopted several weeks ago by the Panhandle association were also adopted last week by the state group. The four originated in Randall County Commissioners Court.

They include a resolution calling for the granting of homestead exemptions to single as well as married persons, a resolution opposing the establishment of district appraisal centers for taxing entities, a resolution concerning delinquent tax receipts and a resolution opposing the establishment of regional data processing centers for taxing jurisdictions.

Girl Scouts Receive Pins

By MARY JO GRIFFIN

HAPPY DAYS AT Canyon High School during homecoming week, this eighth week of school. Many Canyon graduates will be here for the festivities.

TOMORROW EVENING FROM 5:00 till 7:00 will be the spaghetti supper in the High School cafeteria, sponsored by the band parents. The menu includes salad, spaghetti, tea and dessert, and tickets are $.75 for students and $1.25 for adults. The bands' members are in competition on ticket sales.

There will be a $5.00 prize given to one student from each band with the highest amount of sales. The bands are Elementary, three Junior High (Cadet, Concert and Symphony) and High School. Back the bands and get in on some real good food and fun. This supper is just preceding the homecoming football game between Canyon and Palo Duro High. Come on Eagles!

DELORES AND RANDY Stark have moved back to the Canyon area from Stratford. They live in a mobile home and have placed it about a mile north of town and a little to the south of our neighborhood. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Stark and Mr. and Mrs. Percy Hawthorne.

GIRL SCOUT TROOP 158 became official Junior Girl Scouts at a candle lighting ceremony Monday afternoon. Each girl repeated the Girl Scout promise and one of the Girl Scout laws. The girls receiving their Girl Scout pins and participating in the ceremony were Kajsa Bedwell, Amy Boston, Christine Brown, Celia Cotton, Cynthia Dugan, Reba Griffin, Donna Hanes, Debbie Higgins, Susie Higgins, Becky Keiser, Mary Mitchell, Debbie Oppie, Sherry Osborne, Jamie Perry, Trina Rook, Kathy Rosser, Sheila Stark, Dee Ann Staton and Mayla Vars. Several parents and visitors attended the ceremony.

THE KEITH FAMILY has seven of the cutest collie puppies to be given away. They are cuddly and playful and so full of boundless energy. Their mother, Holly has done a good job in getting them ready for a new master. For your choice of these six week old puppies call the Keiths at 352-6012.

DR. AND MRS. John Rider were in McAllen last week Wednesday through Saturday to attend the annual meeting of the Texas Business Education Association. They returned home Sunday and were off to Albuquerque, New Mexico Tuesday for the National Secretary Association meeting where Dr. Rider was a speaker. Audrey enjoys the traveling as well as attending the meetings.

NEXT FRIDAY, OCTOBER 20, begins the dates for the Haunted House at the old First National Bank building on the square in Canyon. We'll have more about this next week.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TODAY to Brenda Wilhite. Tomorrow is Susie Simons birthday, and Sunday is the day for Donna Stark to celebrate. Happy Birthday to each of you and wishes for many more.

BROWNIE TROOP 181 has been real busy in their meetings the past two Tuesday afternoons.

Last week they toured Neblett Hospital and this week they toured the Canyon Fire Department. After returning to the Scout Building they learned the proper way to make a fire. Their theme for this year is to learn to help others. Members of the troop are Tammy Bonner, Suzanne Bromlow, Melissa Carruth, Leslie Gordon, Donna Grimes, Kemi Hill, Holly Hooper, Sondra Lacy, Debbie Mankins, Niki Newman, Quinell Newman, Stephanie Raymond, Meg Reeves, Michelle Rider, Ellen Scarbrough and Kristi Sheffy. Troop Leaders are Mrs. Karen Sheffy, Mrs. Judy Hill, Mrs. Nelda Newman and Mrs. JoEll Newman.

RAN ACROSS THIS in a historical paper. Postal rates jumped to an all-time high in the spring of 1975, with the new rate going to 2 cents for all postage.

Mescalero Park News

Indian Guides To Organize Tonight - - Flying Pattie Off To Columbus

BY TOOTIE BYBEE
HOW DO YOU do and how are you !! Hope you have been busy and having a good time from life.
HAD THE NICEST telephone call from the nicest lady and wanted to give her news first since it is so important. The lady was Darlene Finke and her news was about the big Spaghetti Supper the Canyon Band parents are sponsoring. It will be Homecoming with Canyon playing Palo Duro, Oct. 13. They will serve from 5 til 7. The tickets are $1.25 for adults and $.75 for students and this entitles you to: a plate of spaghetti, salad, tea and dessert!!

Now I want to be sure and tell you all that there is a $5.00 prize to the student who sells the most dollars in tickets. This includes band students from Canyon High, Junior Hi, Rex Reeves and of course, Gene Howe. Now, you know we all need to support these kiddoes and give the Bands a big boost. So, do your part and buy a ticket. Mrs. Sue Rittenbury is chairman and Mrs. Dudley Moore and Sherry Cates are in charge of decorations.

Collier is Chairman. So, here are a couple of good ways to give support to our fine school bands. Won't you help by participating?
WELL, OUR OWN sweet Marty Johnson and "Flying Pattie" are really flying high these days. Martha has been selected as one of the 8 young people to represent Texas in Columbus, Ohio, with "Flying Pattie" of course. This is the National Youth Congress of the American Junior Quarter Horse Association. This is where the youth champions from each state meet and compete for national honors. We all want to wish Martha and her superb mare the very best of luck and tell her how very proud we all are of her. Just remember only 8 from the whole big ole state of Texas were selected and Marty was one of them!!

WENT TO THE sweetest baby shower I have been to in a long time. The honoree was Blanche Hudson and it was held in the Lantern Square Club House in Amarillo. There were little tiny baby carriages made from the individual pockets of egg cartons and pipe cleaners. There were all kind of goodies and lovely decorations. Such a very pretty baby shower for a precious person. Saw Deann Cooper, Mike Whitehead and Ann Tow there from Mescalero Park. Saw lots of other people too, but didn't know too many of them. Blanche's mother and grandmother were there from New Mexico; also, Mike's mother was there again, from New Mexico. Now all that's needed is the baby and that won't be long.

SAWA NEW pickup truck being driven by Mr. Crews. My, sure was a sharp looking job. Also, the Cooper's have somehow wound up with a new car. Sam said what kind is it and I said a green one, guess that doesn't tell one much but never was too good on the "kind" of car it is. But it sure is pretty, Tracy.

WELL, THE LADIES Thursday Club met again Thursday, in Shirley Jones' home. Had a small attendance as everyone was a little busy this week. But had a big time just the same. Good weight watchers lunch I heard about. We will meet in Ann Tow's home this Thursday and discuss a little business, hope to see you there with your covered dish in hand. Was happy to welcome Mrs. Brooks to our little group and hope she comes again.

THE PATTERSONS ARE off on a most anticipated trip. They left Sunday morning for Denver to spend a few days with youngest son, Toby and family and then around to the coast of Texas to spend a few days with their oldest son. Said all in all two weeks just wasn't enough. But seeing the little granddaughter will be a real pleasure for them.

SINCE I BELIEVE so strongly in youth character building organizations wanted to give you a little information about one that is getting a start in the Gene Howe area. It is the "Y" Indian Guides. Thursday evening at 7:30 Roger Whitehead and son Dale will host the organizational meeting in their home. This will be to organize a first year Tribe of first and second graders. There was quite a bit of interest shown for this program. It involves the Dad and sons only. They attend the meetings together and plan to carry out the whole program together. No boys without their fathers or grandfathers etc. accepted and no moms. So, it sounds like a lot of fun for some little and big boys. If you are unable to attend the meeting and are interested please call: 622-0052, Roger Whitehead. There is a big camp out already planned for all Tribes in October, so be sure to get in on the fun.

Had a party? Or giving one? Tell The Canyon News about it. Telephone 655-7121, or stop by the News office on the south side of the square.

ALSO, THE BAND will have the "Halloween Haunted House" once again. It will be open Oct. 20, 21, 26, 27, 28, 30 & 31. It will be in the old First National Bank Building on the Square and tickets are 50c. Mrs. Verona

IN WITH THIS, want to tell you the results of the two shows at Dalhart and Guyton, Okla. At Guyton Marty and her mare won, 2nd in halter, 2nd in showmanship, 1st in junior Western pleasure, 1st in youth Western pleasure and 1st in youth reining. At the same show Steve Ross won 4th in Showmanship, 5th in Pleasure and 6th in halter class. At Dalhart along with other honors Marty and "Flying Pattie" won Grand Champion Mare.

THE JUNIOR HIGH Camp Fire Girls, which is Discovery Club, held their first meeting for this new year. Officers were selected and costumes and many other things were discussed. The Guardian of the group is Betty Malson.

OH, YES, DOUG Jones is selling bags of Halloween candy if you should need some. This is for his Pioneer group of Rangers at his church. It will help to buy camping equipment for the group, so give him a hand if you can.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY to a very special little boy, Matt Malson, and hope you have a real bang up year and many more, and for Heaven's sake have a good time.

VICKIE MILLER TELLS me they had a visitor this weekend. Her grandmother from McLean was visiting. This is her dad's mom, Mrs. Miller.

HAD A ROARING good time here at our house Saturday night, Oct. 2. We had our youth choir out for supper and singing. We counted 35 teenagers and 6 adults. But any way had several ask what was happening over here and that was it. We built a big fire outdoors and sang and visited. Nothing can keep your spirits up and your body run down like a precious group of teens. Love them all.

DON'T TAKE RURAL TEXANS FOR A RIDE... AND DON'T TAKE US FOR GRANTED.

HERE'S WHAT NIXON IS DOING TO RURAL AMERICA

WHEAT SCANDAL - Giant wheat exporters made huge profits at the expense of individual wheat farmers, many in Texas, on Soviet trade.

TAXES - Wall Street Journal says federal laws favor the corporation or investor who farms on the side for a tax write-off.

FARM ISSUES - Under Nixon, parity dropped the lowest since 1933. Nixon held up payments of nearly $400 million for feed grains in 1970, forcing farmers to borrow at highest interest rates in history.

CONGLOMERATE SCANDALS - Big Business first, the public second - that's the Republican philosophy. Anti-trust suit against ITT dropped at the same time ITT pledged $400,000 to finance Republican Convention.

Harry S. Truman said, 'The Republicans admire our government so much they want to buy it.'

Let's face it. The Republicans just haven't changed much since the days of our grandfathers. They still favor Big Business over the average working man and woman. And while they're taking us for a ride, they keep telling us what a 'dangerous radical' Senator McGovern is.

That's what they said about Harry S. Truman.

HERE'S WHAT McGOVERN IS DOING FOR RURAL AMERICA

HIS STANDING - George McGovern has been elected time and again as a Democrat from a Republican farm state... because they know where he stands.

TAXES - His tax proposal would end the loopholes for tax-loss farming by giant corporations and the wealthy individuals who compete unfairly with family farmers. McGovern's proposal calls for the same tax on capital gains as on earnings.

FARM ISSUES - He sponsored and co-sponsored: Meat Import Limitation Law; Dairy Import Act; Wheat, Feed Grain, and Soybean Emergency Reserve Bill; Rural Development, Rural Job Development, and Rural Telephone Acts; Farm Credit Act; and other pieces of important legislation.

HIS BELIEFS - George McGovern knows that the answers to many of our most pressing problems in America today can be found by developing genuine opportunities for everyone in our small towns and rural areas throughout the country.

Let's not be taken for granted by the Nixon Republicans. Rural America has always fared best under a Democratic administration. If you want to stand up and do something good for rural America, the answer is to help put a Democrat in the White House. We need George McGovern... and George McGovern needs us.

ZTA Presents Foundation Gift

Barbara Jo Payne, sophomore of Odessa, is the recipient of a scholarship grant from the Zeta Tau Alpha Foundation in recognition of her high academic achievements and outstanding personal qualifications.

Mrs. Stan Elliott, president of the Zeta Tau Alpha alumnae, made the presentation at a meeting Oct. 9 of the collegiate chapter.

Miss Payne is the first member of Elta Eta chapter to receive a Foundation grant. She has been on the Dean's List every semester and is a member of Mary E. Hudspeth Honor Society. An English and journalism education major, she has had the highest grade average in her Zeta Tau Alpha pledge class.

The Zeta Tau Alpha foundation is a separate, non-profit organization with funds derived from gifts, bequests, grants and contributions. The funds provide scholarship grants or loans, improved educational facilities, supplement the work of colleges in developing programs, and lend financial assistance to aged or disabled former students.

Miss Barbara Jo Payne, sophomore journalism major from Odessa, is presented with a certificate of scholarship grant from the Zeta Tau Alpha Foundation by Mrs. Stan Elliott, president of the local alumnae group. This marks the first time a WTSU student has been recipient of the national grant.

Buff Cross-Country Runners Slowed By Injury, Illness

West Texas State cross country coach Bob Kitchens isn't and never claimed to be a healer, but he certainly has enough business to keep one jumping for a while.

After Saturday's West Texas State Invitational, the list reads as follows for injured Buffaloes: Larry Lane (muscle pull behind knee); Wally Nowicki (stress fracture of lower leg); Robert McElroy (knee injury); Lindsey Snodgrass (strained tendon in leg); and Gary Keim (kidney infection).

Nowicki will be examined by the team doctor this week, but may be out for the season. He, McElroy and Keim, who is out for the season, didn't attempt to run Saturday. McElroy may also miss the remainder of the season.

The Buffaloes started Saturday's race with three runners and only two of those finished. Jim Hogan, the senior veteran from Buffalo, N.Y., won the four-mile event in 21:04. Lane limped home in sixth place with 21:48, but Snodgrass stepped in a hole on the course at Amarillo's Thompson Park and was unable to finish.

Kitchens claimed the last three running place points for his Buffaloes and still placed third in the four-team event. Texas Tech won with 34 points. Wayland Baptist College had 60, West Texas 61 and Lubbock Christian College 64.

"We may not run this week in the Eastern New Mexico Invitational at Portales to allow some of these fellows time to recover a bit from their ills," said Kitchens. "I may send Hogan over to compete as an individual."

Kitchens started a regular track man—Jim Childers—running cross country last week and he should be able to compete in several weeks. Childers is a long-jumper and triple-jumper for the Buffaloes during the spring.

$447,000 Set For Resurface

The expenditure of $447,000 for maintenance of two stretches of U.S. 60 in Randall County has been approved by the Texas Highway Commission.

District Engineer Charles W. "Chili" Smith announced the appropriation this week for 1973.

Smith said the money will be used to place additional asphalt base and surface on the west bound lane of U.S. 60 from the Deaf Smith County line east 9.3 miles.

Resurfacing work will be done within the city limits of Umbarger on both the eastbound and westbound lanes.

Smith said the resurfacing work had nothing to do with upgrading the highway to meeting interstate standards, a subject much in the news recently as several New Mexico and Texas towns have joined together to have U.S. 60 redesignated an interstate highway.

The work to be done is part of the state highway commission's combined state highway and safety and betterment and farm to market road improvement program for the next year.

Supervisor for the work will be Donald D. Day, senior resident engineer in Canyon.

A real eye-opener to electric heating costs

Electric heating operating cost estimates usually surprise our customers. They expect electric heat to cost a good bit more. A factual, easily understood, written estimate opens their eyes to the fact it can cost little more than they've been paying. Thousands of our customers are heating electrically now because they asked for the facts about electric heating costs. Phone us today for an estimate. It's free. It's accurate. And, it's a real eye-opener.

Rainbow Girls Schedule Hamburger Supper, Oct. 20

By MARY NEAL HENRY
WITH RUTH SIMS' permission, I tell this. Last Tuesday morning I finished my column to send to Canyon by Ruth as she went to school. Ruth has a one o'clock class on Tuesday. I telephoned her and said, "I'll meet you at the Main Hiway." "O.K.," she says. So I get there at the time I'm supposed to, but not a minute early and Ruth is nowhere in sight. I began to think and drive down to the Main Street of Happy and the hiway crossing and then back to Northern and still no Ruth. So I try one more time.

There had been a train across the Main Street crossing and I thought perhaps she had been detained because of it. Finally, I parked at the crossing of Northern and the Main Hiway and here comes Ruth from the North. She had gone to the Wayside Highway to meet me. She just laughed. Habit is a strange thing and she had picked me up too many times at the Wayside Highway.

DURING HOMECOMING, SOMEONE asked me where I moved. They knew by reading the column that I had moved, but they didn't know where. (I am always amazed that someone reads the column.) I laughingly say I live on the same street that Ruth Sims does. And someone thought I lived West of town. We live eleven miles East of Happy. And I love it. Once I get all the "extras" done, I can keep up until they need doing again. I still lack a few jobs on the house and most of the landscaping. I've planted twenty trees and an "acre" of iris—all still living. Those are my chores. Tom has another set of goals. Together, this place should shape up.

HAPPY RAINBOW GIRLS met last week for business. Mary Ann Sims presided. The annual Hamburger Supper will be October 20 at the high school cafeteria. Tickets are ninety cents. This includes your hamburger, french fries and drinks. Pie will also be sold. The Rainbow will begin serving at 5:30 p.m. and serve until, during, and after the game with Wilson.

ALENE MANN PRESENTED Kay Spear her gavel from the OES Chapter. This is a big moment for the girls. They began to plan for the time they will use that gavel as Worthy Advisor.

THERE WERE TWENTY-SIX girls and six adults present for the meeting.

JOYCE WHEAT was awarded her 50 Year OES pin at the Happy Chapter on Tuesday of last week. Pat Hargrave was on hand to do the presentation. Joyce also received a beautiful bouquet of REAL flowers that day from her family—Bob, Mark and Tricia; Si and Willa; Willa Jane, Jim and Christi, and I can't remember all those names on that card. I may be leaving someone out.

THE COWBELLES MET at Willie Butlers on Wednesday morning of last week at 9:30. Mrs. Bill Eubanks, Vivian Woods, and Nora Taylor were co-hostesses. Our special guests for the morning were Mrs. Jewel Ament of Tulsa and Mrs. Douglas (Elaine) Forbes. Elaine doesn't really know whether to say she's from Tulsa, Silverton or Vigo Park. Elaine is the president of the "Tulsa Area" Cowbells and Mrs. Ament is the state second vice president. Others present were Mildred Gooch, Eron Jennings, Bernice Hamblen, Myra Nell Culp, Judy Shipman, Othella McGehee, Leona McFarland, Delores Wilhelm, LaNelle Todd, Ruby Vise, Linda McDonald, Willa Elliott, Barbara Danner, Jo Hand, Ruth Sims, Joyce Wheat, and me.

VIVIAN WOODS was elected president; 1st vice president is LaNelle Todd; 2nd vice president is Mary Neal Henry; secretary is Delores Wilhelm; treasurer is Linda McDonald; historian is Nig Taylor; and parliamentarian is Othella McGehee. Judy Shipman, Anna Bee and I took reporter. Since we want the whole world to eat more American beef, you'll get the stories, too.

HAPPY COWBELLES is the name we adopted. We invite all you out there to join us. Our main project is to promote beef. You know you eat Ham for Easter, Turkey for Thanksgiving, well, you eat Beef for Father's Day. We figure since he is king, we'll feed him the best.

OUR NEXT MEETING will be Wednesday, November 8, at 11 a.m. It will be a luncheon in the home of Ruby Vise.

MRS. AVENT ANNOUNCED that there would be a Cowbelle Brunch on Tuesday, October 24, at 10 a.m. in the Villa Inn at Lubbock. I'd like to go.

SWEETIE JOHNSON had luncheon and the bridge club in her home on Tuesday of last week.

JUDY SHIPMAN and LaNelle Todd took the G.A.'s of the First Baptist Church to Amarillo to the Hi Plains Children's Home on Wednesday of last week.

CONNIE HAND, COLETTE McCarley, Megala Thornton, Johnnie Wilson, Bobbyetta Butler, Patricia Geauthreaux, Brenda Penn, Bonnie Briscoe, Star Turner, Tammie Nation, and Denise Cope toured the home and met many of the children.

RUTH SUNDAY SCHOOL Class had a luncheon at Nig Taylor's home on Thursday of last week. Wanda Bates was co-hostess. Billie Pearson gave the devotion. Also present were Vivian Woods, Camilla Greenfield, Traverne Vermeire, Jo Hand, Louise Sanders and Nan Earl Geauthreaux. A donation was made to the church nursery. Plans to donate to the church library next quarter.

THIS WAS THE week that the Wranglers had an open date. Today they play River Road at Happy at 4:30 (according to the schedule.)

HAPPY COWBOYS BEAT Nazareth 35 to 6. A more exciting game than the score denotes. Chris Pearson made three of those touchdowns and Greg Looney, the other two. Mark Hargrave kicked all the extra points.

DEBRA MAGNESS FLEW to Houston on Friday and returned Sunday. Been a long siege, hasn't it, Deb?

MARY ANN AND Don left Houston Tuesday and spent that night in Dallas visiting Donna Ann. They arrived home on Wednesday afternoon. They've taken in some professional football while at Houston, the Jet-Oiler game for one. They also took a tour down the ship channel and saw about fifteen foreign ships loading one day. Very interesting! But welcome home!

MR. AND MRS. Dee Taylor left Wednesday for Arlington to see Nig's nephew ordained a minister at the South Side Baptist Church in Arlington. They'll return Friday.

RUTH AND ALDEN Mann are in Temple this week. Alden had a knee operation on Tuesday morning. Their address is Ponderosa Motor Inn, 2625 South 31st Street, Temple, Texas 76501. Alden is in Scott and White Hospital.

MRS. OTIS HARMAN is still in St. Anthony's Hospital, but is resting much better. Her condition is stabilized and there is no paralysis.

JOHN FRANK TOLES is home and about to be a little bit active—welcome home, Johnny!

THE FESTIVE FOODS program will be in Canyon on October 26 this year. There will be two programs at the Farm Bureau Building, one at 10 a.m. and one at 1:30 p.m.

HAPPY RAINBOW ASSEMBLY was hostess to a joint meeting of nine assemblies on Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Cortez Dowlen, Grand Visitor, was their special guest. Mary Ann Sims was the presiding officer of the day. Ruth Mann, Faye Foster and Evelyn Dowd served punch and cookies to about eighty guests.

ELBURN WALLACE and Eric Wallace, Joyce, Dick and Brenda Railsback, Amelia Irlbeck, Sherry Altman, C.E. and Jack Hayes, Dorothy and Burl Sims, and of course, Scott Railsback, James and Jay Irlbeck, Steve Altman, Doug Sims, were the familiar faces that J.T. and I saw at the Punt, Pass and Kick activities on Saturday morning at the Maverick Club in Amarillo.

HAPPY RODEO ASSOCIATION has fresh steers for that Wesley Sims Memorial Roping. And are they hard to find! Plans are for you to be on

EDDIE CLEMENT OF Canyon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Clement won the eleven year old division and will compete in Oklahoma City next Saturday. Rance Williams, won the runner-up in that age group and received a certificate. Delores was also there.

SUNNY HILL HOME DEMONSTRATION Club met with Mary Wilhelm on Thursday morning of last week. Barbara Danner called the meeting to order. Roll call was answered with "My Favorite Food." Helen Bryan opened the meeting with a quiz, very funny. Your answer told about you. Phyllis Bryan gave a program on foods. Mary served coffee and cookies to Barbara Danner, Helen Bryan, Phyllis Bryan, Maurine Allison, Judy Shipman, Mary Jane Miller, Gwynn Tueck and Melissa, Rowdy Bryan and myself.

KIM FOSTER HAD a birthday on Monday and Angelique Henry, Kaye Stubblefield, Dan E. Venhaus, Don E. Venhaus, Connie Venhaus, Clay and Duane Simons helped her celebrate it. Lissa, Dana and Kelly Foster also helped their mom out. Della, Carla, and Gay Venhaus and Skip Simons were on hand to wish Kim a happy birthday.

WAYSIDE HOMECOMING, AN annual event, will be Sunday, October 15. Church services will be at the regular hours, with Sunday School at 10:00 a.m. and Church at 11. A basket lunch in the basement of the church will immediately follow the church service. The program will begin about 1:30. Invitations read "Relive the Roaring Twenties. We all recall the 20's roared, but just who made them roar in Wayside, come and find out." Program chairman is Mittie Comerford, now living in Amarillo. This sounds like something you wouldn't want to miss!

HAPPY RODEO ASSOCIATION has fresh steers for that Wesley Sims Memorial Roping. And are they hard to find! Plans are for you to be on hand October 21st and 22nd. The calf roping will be on Saturday. Each contestant will rope three calves and the top four will rope a fourth calf.

THIRTY STEER ROPERS have already entered the tripping on Sunday and these will also rope three head and the top ten rope a fourth.

LINN HELTON OF La Grande, Oregon, will be the announcer again. You may remember Linn from last year. Linn will also announce the rodeo finals this year; I understand, a job that McSpadden had always held.

HAPPY JAYCEES will sponsor a dance on Saturday, October 21, at the Jaycee Hall. The Hawkriders of Dumas will be playing.

CHERYL SCHAEFFER will be honored with a bridal shower on Saturday afternoon at Baptist Fellowship Hall.

Rock Group Will Tour Next Summer

A New Day, pop-rock student choral group at West Texas State University will take part in an overseas tour next summer on behalf of the U. S. Department of Defense.

The ensemble, conducted by Dr. Hugh Sanders, associate professor of music, was selected for a 30-day tour of the Caribbean May 24 — June 22.

The selection was made by the Overseas Touring Committee of the National Music Council, the United Service Organizations (USO) and the defense department on the basis of performance tapes by last year's group, Sanders said.

Four new members were recently named to the 10-member group. They were Dana Gibson, Amarillo graduate student, Linda Adams, Amarillo junior, Vicki McFarlin, Fritch senior, and Jerry Hoover, Odessa freshman, who will serve as pianist.

Last year's group members selected again were guitarists Phil and Andy Dietz, Berger sophomores, Steve Garms, Canyon junior, Rene Clemente, El Paso senior, and Cheryl Richardson, Canyon sophomore. Sanders will perform on the drums in addition to directing.

A New Day was formed a year ago for the purpose of reaching a television-oriented public and to give student vocalists the chance to sing and experience the "now music of the younger generation, Sanders said.

The group makes its season debut this week at the Miss WTSU Pageant in the Activities Center hall room. It also is booked for a performance Oct. 24 at the Pampa Chamber of Commerce banquet.

WTSU Prof At NSA Meet

Dr. John A. Rider, professor of business education and office administration at West Texas State University, was the guest speaker at a meeting of the Albuquerque, N. M., chapter of the National Secretaries Association (International) Tuesday night.

Rider, who came to West Texas State in 1970 after four years on the faculty at the University of New Mexico, spoke on the "value of the Certified Professional Secretary certificate."

Five Albuquerque area secretaries who achieved the CPS rating this year received their certificates.

Rider, who received a doctorate from the University of Nebraska, has had five articles published in professional publications and was listed in Who's Who in the West.

Cowboys Idle This Weekend

The Happy Cowboys, winners of four straight conference games, have an open date this week and will use it to prepare for a home game against Wilson Oct. 20.

In Friday night's action, the Cowboys of coach Robert Criswell were scored on for the first time since their opener against non-conference Claude.

In downing Nazareth 35-6, Happy rolled up 302 yards, all on the ground, while limiting the opponents to 160 total yardage.

New Rules For State Park Use

Beginning Jan. 1, 1973, rules and laws governing visitors to Texas State Parks, including Palo Duro Canyon, will be enforced much more vigorously than in the past.

According to the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, new rules regarding use of the parks have been adopted in the form of laws and violators will be subject to fines of up to $200 per citation.

At Palo Duro Canyon State Park, manager Elton Baker said the changes would have some effect on his operation but he added that he expected no major problems.

Baker said he had not yet been fully informed of what the changes would include, and would not know until a planned department meeting is held sometime between now and the first of the year.

"Vandalism is a problem in all state parks," said Baker. "We have had quite a bit of vandalism here but not as much as in other parts of the state," he added.

In saying that his problem had not been as serious as in other sections of the state, Baker did say that "some beer parties" caused disturbances at Palo Duro Canyon.

Of the new laws and new authority to enforce them, Baker said, "We'll just have to wait and see."

In the past, rules have been more a matter of individual conscience with state officials lacking the authority to cope with offenders. Beginning next year, the new laws will be enforced, say state officials.

The statutes to govern use of parks are described as "common sense" rules with the visitor experiencing no problem "if he just makes a conscientious effort not to disturb or annoy his neighbor and to protect the park," the department said.

Visitors to parks will be given a condensed version of the new rules upon entering a park, and a complete list of regulations will be posted in prominent places throughout the park system.

According to the state agency, it will be the responsibility of visitors to know and obey the new rules.

Final Plans Set For Home Tour

Final plans for the Annual Tour of Homes next Sunday, 2-6 p.m., were made this week by the University Study Club, which will use proceeds to fund many worthy community projects. Tickets may be purchased for $1.00 from any member or at the door.

Homes to be opened on the tour are those of Mr. and Mrs. George Blackwell, 702 Taylor Lane; Dr. and Mrs. Dudley Moore, 11 Southridge Dr.; Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Crossland, 1400 Creekmore; Mr. and Mrs. Larry Brandon, 1102 Creekmore; Dr. and Mrs. Charles Smallwood, 2505 12th Ave.; and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Perry, 2816 7th Ave.

Contemporary styling and warm colors characterize the interesting three-bedroom, two-floor home of the George Blackwells. The foyer, with flagstone floor, open stairway, and free-form window on the second level, makes an attractive entrance and gives passage to living or kitchen areas as well as upstairs bedrooms.

Leading off from the formal living room of the Blackwell home is a large family room featuring generous bookshelves flanking picture window, fireplace set in brick wall, and comfortable easy chairs in textured fabrics of gold and orange — an ideal setting for relaxation or entertaining. A copper-enameled painting done by Georgia Blackwell and an abstract metal sculpture lend individuality to the fireplace wall. Other examples of her handicraft and needlework, including a striking hooked wall hanging in the upper foyer, provide decorative detail.

The Dudley Moore's brick and frame, split-level home features a floorplan perfectly suited to providing all the members of their large, active family with space to "do their own thing." Girls' bedrooms along with master bedroom suite are on the upper level, while the boys have their sleeping and relaxing area on the first level. A large kitchen and dinette features the dark, rich hues of natural wood cabinets and carpeting in gold and brown pattern.

The living room of this home reflects Mrs. Moore's personality and tastes in the pastel colors and traditional furnishings, many of which are refurbished family pieces that belonged to her mother and grandmother. The colonial blues of a landscape painting by the French artist Dellard, seen over the fireplace, are picked up in the chair grouping and rug nearby as well as other appointments of the room. White walls and carpeting provide a restful background for lovesats in gold and soft greens and blues. Lamps with Chinese porcelain bases and Chippendale tables add decorative accents.

The interesting architectural lines of the exterior of the George Blackwell home, 702 Taylor Lane, are matched on the interior with tasteful use of textures and colors in contemporary styling. Mrs. Blackwell, above, will open her home for viewing in the Annual Tour of Homes next Sunday, 2-6 p.m.

Simple, contemporary lines and warm shades of gold, orange and turquoise characterize the furnishings of the George Blackwell home, one of those to be featured in the Annual Tour of Homes next Sunday. Examples of needlework and handicraft by Mrs. Blackwell add the extras.

WTSU Senior Sets Recital

Contralto Vicki McCormick, West Texas State University senior from Dumas, known for her role of Kate Lucas in the musical drama "Texas," will be presented in recital Oct. 23.

Miss McCormick, a voice student of Royal Brantley of the WTSU music faculty, will perform at 4 p.m. in the Fine Arts Auditorium on campus. The recital is free.

Miss McCormick has won both dramatic and musical awards for such leading roles as Irene Molloy in "Hello, Dolly," Golde in "Fiddler on the Roof" and Nikolaus in "Tales of Hoffman" in university productions.

Last summer she appeared for the first time in the role of Kate, the earthy sweetheart of comical gold prospector Tucker Yellidell in the popular Paul Green show that plays in Palo Duro Canyon State Park.

She is a member of Mu Phi Epsilon, honorary music sorority; Alpha Psi Omega, honorary dramatics fraternity; Alpha Chi, national honor society, and Buffalo Masquers, dramatics club. She is also a member of the WTSU Chorale and of the Schola Madrigalis.

Her recital program includes Schubert's "Die Forelle," "Der Lindenbaum" and "Der Tod und das Mädchen;" Saint-Saens' "Samson et Dalila," Vaughan Williams' "The Water Mill" and "Two Songs of Seumas O'Sullivan" and Mozart's "Ombra Felice."

The recital is presented in partial fulfillment of graduation requirements for the Bachelor of Music Education Degree in voice.

History Can Affect Music And Career

Great historical events can influence both the course of a musical composer's career and the content of his music, a West Texas State University music professor says.

Dr. Hugh D. Sanders, associate professor of music and director of choral activities, says he based this on interviews with three generations of German choral composers last summer.

His research, sponsored through a WTSU Organized Research Committee grant, will be published in the Journal for American Choral Directors.

German choral directors' teaching methods are still in the tradition of the Prussian drillmaster, he says.

"A Stuttgart boy's choir I saw was ruled with an iron thumb by its director, with no nonsense or talking during the entire rehearsal session."

Among the newest innovations in German choral music is the use of "metered speaking," or speaking within the music, and the addition of electronic equipment, Sanders says.

An experimental work by one of his interviewed composers, Hans Zimmermann, will be performed by the WTSU Chorale in its opening concert Oct. 29.

The work, "Psalmkonzert," utilizes jazz idioms with the choir as well as an accompanying vibraphone and string bass, Sanders says.

During his month in Germany, Sanders says he discovered in a Lubeck library two unpublished cantatas by Buxtehude, famed German choral composer. Sanders is editing the works for publication.

DR. HUGH D. SANDERS

"The first generation of composers interviewed were almost a lost generation in that their period of writing fell during the rise of the Third Reich when Hitler's stipulations and bans on what he regarded as revolutionary music caused most to quit writing during the fuhrer's regime," Sanders says.

"These men got off to a slow start since they were working with such taboo experimental techniques as atonality, serial music and music in the tradition of such banned composers as Hindemith, Schoenberg and Weber," he adds.

Sanders says one eminent composer interviewed was delayed in his career by 10 years in Hitler's army and one year in an American prisoner of war camp.

"The choral music these men were creating was what they called 'Gebrauchsmusik,' or utility music — works meant to be used or performed rather than published and sold," he says.

The second generation of composers were those getting out of high school during the Third Reich days. These men were immediately drafted into the army, thus postponing for several years their university careers, Sanders says.

"Their generation tended to be more traditional," he says. "Their period of writing fell when Germany was rebuilding her churches and buildings after the devastation of war."

The third generation were too young during the war years to relate significantly to those times, Sanders says. Their work shows a far greater sense of freedom and experimentation, he adds.

Sanders says one of the unique features of German choral music is its emphasis on performance rather than publication, which, he adds, is the primary concern of commercial-minded American writers.

Since the media is all state-owned, Sanders says, there is a greater emphasis on national music — "German music for Germans."

"Outside the contemporary music being written in nearby European countries, the German composers have little knowledge of what is going on outside their borders," Sanders says.

"They won't admit Stravinsky was an American; they know little or nothing of Delladjoio and other great American composers. They know Leonard Bernstein because of his 'Mass,' but few have any knowledge of his choral compositions."

Happy Roping This Month

The annual Wesley-Sims Memorial Roping contest will be held Oct. 21 and 22 sponsored by the Happy Rodeo Association at the Happy Rodeo Arena.

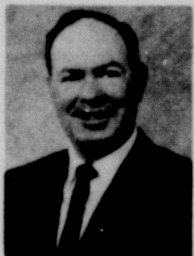

Contestants will rope three calves each on Oct. 21 and the ten with the fastest times will rope a fourth calf.

On Oct. 22, steer ropers will rope three steers each with the top 10 roping a fourth.

Linn Helton of LaGrande, Ore., will announce both events. Helton is a world-renowned announcer who will announce the national finals this year.

Canyon Youth Moves Up In Punt, Pass, Kick

An 11-year-old Canyon youth, who won his age group's Punt, Pass and Kick contest in Amarillo last weekend, will go to Oklahoma City Saturday to compete in district play.

The winner, Eddie Clement, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Clement of 1209 9th Ave., had advanced to the Amarillo meet, along with five other Canyon entrants, after taking first place in the local tournament held here the previous weekend.

Young Clement scored 235 points in the judging based on both distance and accuracy. This will be his second trip to the district competition, having placed second at Oklahoma City two years ago as a 9-year-old.

A younger brother, 8-year-old Ted Clement, had advanced to the Amarillo event by winning in Canyon also. He finished second with a score of 128 in the event which saw the winner score 132 points.

Other Canyon youngsters who competed in the Amarillo tournament were 9-year-old Jim Fulcher of 608 8th Ave., 10-year-old Jack Hayes of 1111 Hillcrest, 12-year-old Harold Ashley of 103 12th St., and 13-year-old Rob Haws of 1110 7th Ave.

Should Eddie Clement win in Oklahoma City, he will then advance further toward the final competition to be held in January during the annual Super Bowl game. A total of five area and regional meets must be won in order to reach the final contest.

Piano Forum Wednesday

The problems of piano teachers — ranging from inspiring young pupils to coping with stage fright in public performances — will be discussed at the 3rd annual Piano Teachers Forum Wednesday at West Texas State University.

Boosters Still Stick By Eagles

The Eagle Booster Club Monday night saw film highlights of the Canyon loss to Pampa last weekend and heard coach Ron Mills discuss the mistakes his team had made.

In speaking of the upcoming homecoming game against Palo Duro Friday night, Mills said he probably would not use Bill Moore who has been hobbled by an injury. According to the coach, he did not want to take the chance of re-injuring any player, especially in non-conference games. District play for the Eagles begins Oct. 20, in a home game against Levelland.

The coach told the estimated 20 members that failure to move the ball across the goal line despite deep penetrations had proved costly against Pampa. He also noted that the Eagle passing attack fell flat when the ball and receiver seldom arrived at the same place at the same time.

Mills told the group that goal line offensive drills and passing were being worked on in preparation for the encounter with Palo Duro.

The club meets each Monday at 7 p.m. at the First National Bank in Canyon. Visitors are invited, a spokesman said.

The program will be held from 9:30 a.m. to noon in the Fine Arts Building. A complimentary luncheon is planned for those who make reservations in advance.

Conducting the forum will be members of the WTSU piano faculty, Dr. George Eason, Cecil Lotief and Sarah Moore.

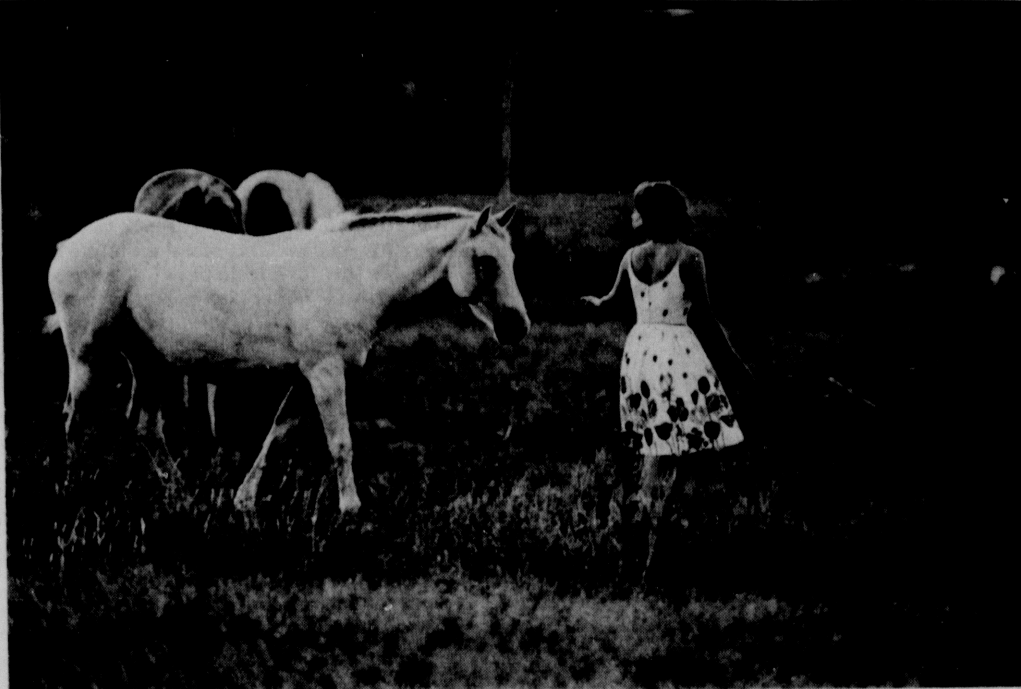

Eason's talk will focus on the works of Alexander Scriabin, Russian composer and mystic whose work, because of its exuberance and romanticism, is said to be particularly appealing to the temperament of young people.

"Scriabin, although he lived in the late 19th and early 20th centuries, was interested in combining music and color and lights together to create a spiritual experience that nowadays would be called 'psychedelic,'" Eason said.

He added that Scriabin may have been one of the first to create a "light show" for musical background when he invented an organ that projected different colors while a piece was played.

Lotief's lecture will deal with various attitudes that should be instilled in young students in regard to public performances. Among these, will be approaches toward alleviating nervousness and stagefright during performances.

Miss Moore will discuss methods of teaching beginners, with emphasis on teaching young piano students to read music.

Area Story In Photos On Display

The Panhandle Story, told in photographs by West Texas State University graduate Bill Clough of the Houston Chronicle, will be featured in an exhibition opening Saturday at the Panhandle-Plains Museum.

The show is among Homecoming activities sponsored by the WTSU Student Activities Council. The artist plans to be present for the opening reception at 10:30 a.m. until noon.

The exhibit will be on display through Oct. 20 in the museum's Little Gallery, off the North Gallery.

Clough, 31, a 1965 graduate of WTSU, came to Amarillo in 1952 from Beaumont. He launched his journalistic career with the Amarillo Citizen, where he worked for four years.

In 1964 he served as staff photographer for the Globe-News Publishing Co. After two years in the Navy during which he toured the Far East, he returned to the Globe-News where he worked until 1969.

In 1970 he moved to Beaumont where he worked on the city's newspaper, and the next year he became a staff photographer for the Houston Chronicle.

His WTSU show will encompass 10 years of photography. In his work, he tries to capture the flavor and personality of the High Plains — its farms, rolling plains, brilliant sunsets, its harvesters and grain elevators, and most of all, its people.

WT Orchestra Makes Debut This Month

The West Texas State University Symphony Orchestra makes its season debut in a concert at 3 p.m. Oct. 22 in the Fine Arts Theatre on campus.

Conducting will be Michael Matesky, who makes his debut as WTSU's new orchestra director. The 28-year-old assistant professor of music also serves as cellist in the university's Faculty Trio and assistant director and principal cellist with the Amarillo Symphony.

The concert will open with Aaron Copland's "Fanfare for the Common Man," a piece written for and first performed by the Cincinnati Symphony during the 1942-43 season.

In part, Matesky says, the work's purpose was to pay tribute to the heroism of World War II soldiers and, in part, to enrich the literature for brass and percussion instruments.

The work is highlighted by huge percussion blasts, golden brass fanfares and a massive climax by the entire ensemble.

Also programmed are Bach's "Brandenburg Concerto No. 3 in G Major," one of the first works,

Matesky said, to be recorded by electronic synthesizer, and Christoph Willibald von Gluck's "Overture to Iphigenia and Aulis."

For the finale, the orchestra will perform Beethoven's "Symphony No. 1 in C Major." Matesky said, "Beethoven rewrote the book, built the orchestra, vastly influenced future composers and gave to all men music of sublime worth and beauty. Although at times, disguised in humor, the Symphony No. 1 contains it all."

Club Meets In Simon Home

The Friendship Sewing Club met recently in the home of Mrs. Tony Simon, 610 11th St., with Mrs. Nell Sheets, president, presiding. Members brought cookies for the children of the Amarillo Speech and Hearing Center.

The business meeting was called to order with those present singing the club song. It was voted to buy sheets and pillowcases for Girls Town at Whiteface. Following business, each member presented a favorite poem as part of the program.

Those present were Mmes. Nell Sheets, Leonard Winters, Joe Turpin, Herrick Simon, Clarence Winters, Lou Hermesmyer, Frank Simon, and the hostess.

The next meeting of the sewing club will be in the home of Mrs. O.E. Sherer, Rt. 2, on Oct. 19.

Buff Golfers Run Into Rain

West Texas State University's golf team ran into rain and high winds during last week's Tucker Invitational Tournament at Albuquerque and its scores climbed higher than was allowed.

The Buffaloes were among the seven teams cut after Friday's third round. Coach Vern Farquhar said four of his players teed off at 7:45 a.m. that day in heavy rain and high winds, but said the weather cleared somewhat for players who competed in the afternoon.

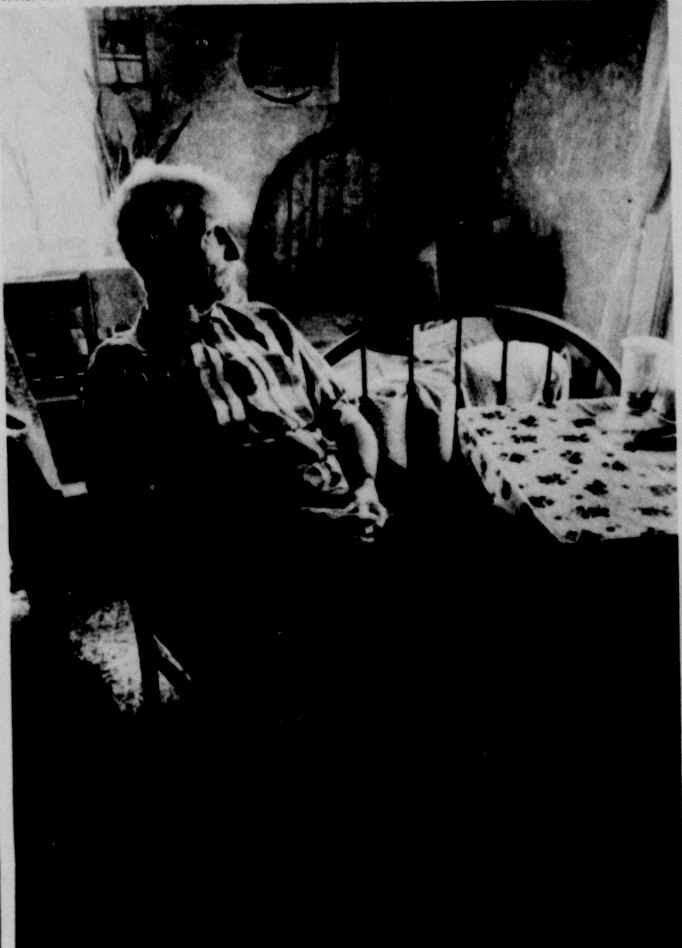

Jerry Boeka led the Buffalo golfers with rounds of 76, 73, and 79. Other three-round totals were John 242, Mickey Piersall 244, Dick Weston 246, Randall Burton 248, and Junior Salinas 262.

West Texas competes in two week at the Socorro, N.M., Collegiate Invitational Tournament.

U.S. Olympian To Be Here Next Thursday

One of America's Olympic swimmers and the first man to win three consecutive modern pentathlon U.S. titles will be in Canyon next Thursday.

Chuck Richards, a U.S. Army captain, just returned from the Munich Olympics where he set a new world record in the Modern Pentathlon 300-meter swim with a time of 3:21.7. He was the front member of the U.E. Modern Pentathlon Olympic team.

Richards will discuss conditioning for swimming competition and demonstrate swimming techniques at a clinic in Canyon which will be free to the public.

The clinic will be at 12:15 p.m. Thursday at the West Texas State University activities center of organisms that had lived long ago. He said many fossils have been found in the Texas Panhandle and exhibited samples of those found here and elsewhere.

Those present included Ronda Davis, Stan and Jana Cranmer, Gary Greg and Neal Hinders, James and Janie Irlbeck, Shawn and David Hall, Brenda Abbott, Rocky and Kelly McRobertes, Jay Findley, and guest, Stacie Stroup.

Jowell 4-H Club met in the Jowell Schoolhouse on Oct. 6 for regular business and to hear a program presented by Dr. Gerald E. Schultz of the Geology department of West Texas State University. Mrs. Raymond Hinders was hostess.

James Irlbeck reported that the club had made $42 with concessions at a pig sale.

Centering his talk on the subject of fossils, Dr. Schultz explained they were the remains of organisms that had lived long ago. He said many fossils have been found in the Texas Panhandle and exhibited samples of those found here and elsewhere.

Prehistoric Skull Restored

Restoration of a prehistoric reptile skull, believed to be about 190 million years old, has been completed after three years of work by Dr. Gerald Schultz and paleontology students at West Texas State University.

The skull, that of a phytosaur, was discovered about five miles west of Boys Ranch on the south side of the Canadian River in Olkham County.

It was donated to the university's geology department by three Amarillo men, A.C. Moore, Jerry Cates and Eddie Collic.

The phytosaur skull, along with a sketch drawn by Mrs. Mary Frost, geology senior from Canyon, of what the ancient reptile looked like, is on public display on the first floor of the Science Building on campus.

Phytosaurs were common in the Texas Panhandle during the upper Triassic age. Such skulls are not rare, Schultz said, but this was "one of the more complete specimens."

Festive Foods Show Scheduled

The Festive Foods Program will again be sponsored by the Randall County Home Demonstration Council on Thursday, Oct. 26, it was announced by Mrs. Becky Hall, County Extension Agent.

Marilyn O'Dowd, home service advisor for Southwestern Public Service Company, will present two sessions of food demonstrations, one from 10-11:30 a.m., and one from 1:30 to 3 p.m.

All homemakers in the area are invited to attend at no charge.

Mrs. Hall, extension agent, is in Denver, Colo., this week attending the national Home Economist Association meeting.

Going somewhere? Or been? The Canyon News wants to know about it — and so do its readers.

Importance Of Using Quality Yarns

There is nothing more fierce than a woman "scorned," (goes the old saying). Unless it is a woman who knits or crochets a non-satisfactory garment because of inferior yarns.

A hand knitter (even males these days) may pay $5-$10-$15 or more for yarns which may take 40-60 hours knitting time.

The psychological impact of completing a garment and then having it look poor and perform poorly because of inferior yarns is tremendous.

That is why men and women drive many miles to stock up on yarns from Dan's 5th Ave. where quality wool and wintuck yarns are sold for less.

The most meaningful indicators of a quality yarn are elongation, recovery, bulk and resiliency. Dan's 5th Ave.

Dr. Gerald Schultz, West Texas State University geologist, points to a cavity in the skull of a 190-million-year-old phytosaur which once lived in the Panhandle. Mrs. Mary Frost of Amarillo and other WTSU paleontology students assisted in the restoration of the prehistoric reptile.

WT Netter Outstanding In Tourney

West Texas State's Mike Bolton was the outstanding individual in the Rocky Mountain Collegiate Invitational Tennis Tournament, which was completed in Boulder, Colorado; Saturday afternoon.

Bolton, playing the number one position for the Buffaloes, defeated New Mexico's Herman Aguirre, 7-5, 6-1, Saturday to complete a sweep of singles wins. He had beaten the Air Force Academy's Alex Parsons, 6-3, 6-3; and John Grant of the University of Colorado, 7-5, 6-3, in matches Friday.

Bolton also teamed with Bill Marsh to go undefeated in doubles competition. Marsh, a junior college transfer, and Bolton, a senior, beat the University of New Mexico's Dick McGuire and Tim Russell, 4-6, 2-6, 6-3, Saturday.

The Buffaloes were edged, 5-4, by New Mexico and took second in the four-team meet. New Mexico finished 3-0, while West Texas was 2-1, Colorado 1-2, and Air Force Academy 0-3. "We have been looking this fall for a number one singles player and Mike (Bolton) just came to the front in this tournament," said WTSU coach David Kent.

Dale Corbin and John Phillips combined to give the Buffaloes their third victory against New Mexico by beating Aguirre, who is the state men's singles champion of New Mexico, and Peter Arndt, 6-3, 6-7, 7-5. Steve Bailey and Guy Thytherleigh scored the Buff's other win by stopping Jim Mitchell and Arnie Tylen, 6-1, 6-2.

In other singles matches the Buffaloes were beaten. Marsh fell to Arndt, 2-6, 6-2, 6-4; Phillips was beaten by McGuire, 4-6, 6-4, 6-3; Corbin lost to Russell, 6-0, 6-1; and Thytherleigh was halted by Tylen, 2-6, 6-2, 6-4.

Todd Recital Next Sunday

Violinist Donald Todd of West Texas State University will be presented in recital at 3 p.m. Oct. 15 in the fine arts auditorium on campus.

Todd, associate professor of music and violinist with the Amarillo Symphony, will perform Bach's "Partita in E Major," Beethoven's "Sonata in F Major" and Franck's "Sonata in A Major."

Accompanying Todd in the Beethoven and Franck works will be pianist Mary Jane King of Canyon.

Todd's performance credits include appearances with the Indianapolis Symphony, the Kansas City Philharmonic and the Eastern Illinois University Symphony. Now in his sixth year at WTSU, Todd has made numerous solo appearances on radio and television and with symphony orchestras.

He is a member of the Faculty Trio, a group organized in 1967 at the university for performance of chamber music. The trio has been featured in arts and civic events throughout the Panhandle.

Todd received bachelor's and master's degrees in music from Northwestern University and a doctorate in musical arts from the University of Illinois.

While a student at Northwestern, he received chamber music coaching from Charles Foidart, former violinist with the Paganini String Quartet.

Haunted House Planned

A Haunted House, scary enough to pale the bravest spook, will be sponsored again this year beginning next week.

Canyon parents of band members will construct the house and man the operation during its 7-day run on the top floor of the old First National Bank Building on the west side of the square.

Headless ghosts, werewolves, vampires, witches and goblins are scheduled to make appearances throughout the house's short life before Halloween.

Mrs. Verona Collier and Mrs. Mary Ellen Garner are chairmen for the house.

Seven haunted rooms will be available for public inspection from 7 p.m. to about midnight each night with tickets costing only 50 cents.

Parents of band students through high school age are busy this week making costumes and decorations for the house.

The house will be open Oct. 20, 21, 26, 27, 28, 30 and 31.

The house is sponsored to help raise money for band trips this year and for any other financing the bands need.

Persons interested in helping prepare the haunted house for occupancy are asked to come to the First National Bank building at 7 p.m. Monday.

Persons with old clothing, costumes, makeup or anything else which might be used in a haunted house are asked to contact Mrs. Garner.

Amendments To Be Eyed

The 14 amendments to the Texas Constitution will be examined for the public by six West Texas State University government professors Oct. 24.

"Fourteen Constitutional Amendments: What Are They All About?" is the subject of the public meeting at 7:30 p.m. Oct. 24 in the ballroom of the Activities Center.

Travis McBride, chairman of the WTSU political science department, will moderate the discussion of the amendments.

Others who will talk about the pros and cons of the various amendments will be Dick Jackson, J. Pat Stephens, George Ritter, Fred Marsh and Walter Shelly.

Each faculty member will discuss two or three of the amendments, giving a brief outline of what the amendment means and the pros and cons of each proposal.

A department spokesman said it is not the intention of the professors to take positions on the amendments, but rather to inform the public about what the amendments mean.

The constitutional amendments appear on the November general election ballot for voter approval.

Included in the amendments are proposals which would almost double the salaries paid legislators and which would more than quadruple the salaries of the lieutenant governor and speaker of the House, which would provide four-year terms for state office holders and which would provide equal rights for residents regardless of sex.
